*Board of Trade, Whitehall,

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, a copy of an Order addressed by the Spanish Colonial

Minister to the Governor of the Philippine Islands, modifying Articles 42, 156, 157, 158, and 159 of the Customs Regulations in force in those Islands. The above-mentioned Articles will in future be respectively worded as follows:—

ART. 42. If the examination shows minus differences in the number, weight, measure, or value of the effects, then, for the payment of the duty, that which is manifested in the declaratory notes shall be abided by; but where there are plus differences, whether in quality or quantity, Arts. 156 and 157 shall be observed.

ART. 156. If, on examining and comparing goods of lawful commerce with the declarations of the parties interested, there be found in the goods a plus or minus difference in quantity or quality not exceeding 4 per cent., they shall be despatched according to the result of the said acts. When the plus differences in quantity or quality between that which is found and that which is declared exceeds 4 per cent., the parties interested shall suffer an additional duty equal to the difference between the duty to have been paid on the goods according to the declarations and the duty to be applied in consequence of the result of the examination. As regards oil, dried cod fish, greases, soap, butter, and other oleaginous goods liable to waste away, plus or minus differences shall not be accounted as such, if they do not exceed 5 per cent. in goods coming from Asia, and 8 per cent. in goods coming from other countries. For calculating the rate per cent. of the differences that may appear in one and the same despatch, and the amount of the additional duty according to the basis laid down in the second paragraph of this Article, all those belonging to one item of the Tariff shall be taken together (even although the goods be in different packages), to deduce therefrom that which ultimately constitutes the fraud attempted. If the merchandise be woven goods, the calculation shall be made by taking together all those of the same class, even although they belong to different items of the Tariff, taking care not to mix up plain goods with goods in imitation of serge (asargados), nor embroidered with unembroidered goods.

The amount of the additional duty spoken of in this Article shall be divided between the Exchequer and the employés.

ART. 157. When the differences are produced by the appearance of less goods, or of other goods liable to lower duty than the goods declared, duty shall be exacted on the whole of the goods set forth in the declaration. Goods of lawful commerce which, not having been declared, may be found fraudulently hidden, shall be confiscated.

ART. 158. If, on making the examination and valuation of duty, prohibited goods are found, which the parties interested may have declared as considering them allowed, a fine of the fourth part of the value thereof shall be imposed, and divided between the Exchequer and the employés concerned in the discovery. The owners shall be obliged to re-export, and in the meantime the goods shall remain in the Custom-house in deposit. If the said goods shall not have been declared, they shall be confiscated. If they have not been declared and are found fraudulently hidden they shall be confiscated, and an additional duty shall be imposed equal to the value of the goods. The amount of this additional duty, which, like the confiscated goods, shall be divided in equal parts between the Exchequer and the employés concerned in the discovery, shall be the price fetched by the goods in public auction, and not the amount of the valuation. For the re-exportation ordered in any of these cases, the administrator shall exact from the proper person a sufficient guarantee, to be held until the presentation of the certificate of the Spanish Consul at the port to which the goods are exported, stating that they have been received there. A fine of 400 escudos shall be imposed for the non-presentation of the said document within the term to be fixed at discretion.

ART. 159. When passengers bring unregistered goods exceeding 200 escudos in value, the goods to that amount shall first be set on one side and the rest shall be charged double the respective Tariff duty. If the goods have not been declared, double duty shall be charged on the whole; but if, besides this, they have been fraudulently hidden in secret compartments of boxes, or in any other manner, they shall be confiscated.

(C. 1250.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Decree issued by the Spanish Government, which provides "that until the day on which the town and port of Barcelona shall be declared free from yellow fever, coals destined for the latter place (Barcelona), and which are presented for despatch at the Custom-house at Tarragona, shall be exempt from Tariff dues, and from the duty on unloading."
