

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1871.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of July 1871.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Secretary Bruce.
Mr. Forster.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, it is, amongst other things, enacted, 'that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessel shall not have come from any place from which His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the Plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper may be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles, as aforesaid, on board the same; and in case of any infectious disease or distemper appearing or breaking out in the United Kingdom or the islands aforesaid, to make such Orders and give such direction, in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with any such disease or distemper, and the rest of His Majesty's subjects, as shall appear to the Lords or others of

His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to be necessary and expedient for that purpose, and likewise to make such Orders as they shall see fit, for shortening the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels or particular persons, goods, wares, merchandize, or any other articles, or for absolutely or conditionally releasing them, or any of them, from quarantine; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them, as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as well with respect to the Commander, Master, or other person, having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable, as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council concerning quarantine, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette.'

And whereas by 'The Sanitary Act, 1866,' it is (among other things) enacted (section fifty-two) as follows:—

'Every vessel having on board any person affected with a dangerous or infectious disorder shall be deemed to be within the provisions of the Act of the sixth year of King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, although such vessel has not commenced her voyage, or has come from or is bound for some place in the United Kingdom; and the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), may by Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, make such rules, orders, and regula-

'tions as to them shall seem fit, and every such Order shall be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published in the London Gazette, and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such Order to all intents and purposes; and such Orders shall be binding and be carried into effect as soon as the same shall have been so published, or at such other time as shall be fixed by such Orders, with a view to the treatment of persons affected with Cholera and epidemic, endemic and contagious disease, and preventing the spread of Cholera and such other diseases, as well on the seas, rivers, and waters of the United Kingdom, and on the high seas within three miles of the coasts thereof, as on land; and to declare and determine by what Nuisance Authority or Authorities such Orders, Rules, and Regulations shall be enforced and executed; and any expenses incurred by such Nuisance Authority or Authorities shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by it or them in carrying into effect the Nuisances Removal Acts.'

And whereas Cholera is now prevailing in certain parts of Continental Europe, with which this country has communication, and it is requisite to take precaution, as far as practicable, against the introduction of that disease into this country:—

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the recited enactments or otherwise in them vested, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. In this Order—

The term 'ship' includes vessel or boat:

The term 'master' includes the officer or person for the time being in charge or command of a ship:

The term 'cholera' includes choleraic diarrhoea:

The term 'nuisance authority' has the same meaning as in 'The Sanitary Act, 1866.'

2. It shall be lawful for any Nuisance Authority having reason to believe that any ship arriving in its district comes from a place infected with Cholera, to visit and examine such ship before it enters any port, or lands any person or thing in the district, for the purpose of ascertaining whether such ship comes within the operation of this Order.

3. The Master of every ship within the district of a Nuisance Authority, having on board any person affected with Cholera, or the body of any person dead of Cholera, or anything infected with or that has been exposed to the infection of Cholera, shall, as long as the ship is within such district, moor, anchor, or place her in such position as from time to time the Nuisance Authority directs.

4. No person shall land from any such ship until the examination hereinafter mentioned has been made.

5. The Nuisance Authority shall, immediately on the arrival of such a ship, cause all persons on board of the same to be examined by a legally qualified Medical Practitioner, and shall permit all persons who shall not be certified by him to be suffering from Cholera to land immediately.

6. All persons certified by the examiner to be suffering from Cholera shall be dealt with under any rules that may have been made by the Nuisance Authority under the twenty-ninth section of the Sanitary Act, 1866; or where no such rules shall have been made, shall be removed, if their condition admits of it, to some hospital or place to be designated for such purpose by the Nuisance Authority; and no person so removed shall quit such hospital or place until some physician or surgeon shall have certified that such person is free from the said disease.

7. In the event of any death from Cholera taking place on board of such vessel, the body shall be taken out to sea, and committed to the deep, properly loaded, to prevent its rising.

8. The clothing and bedding of all persons who shall have died, or had an attack, of Cholera, on board such vessel, shall be disinfected, or (if necessary) destroyed, under the direction of the Nuisance Authority.

9. The ship, and any articles therein which may be infected with Cholera, shall be disinfected by the Nuisance Authority.

10. Every person obstructing the Nuisance Authority in carrying this Order into effect, or otherwise offending against this Order, shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

EDMUND HARRISON.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act 1855, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received by him, in pursuance thereof, to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in such Order, burials within certain limits, or in certain Burial Grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly; or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always, that notice of such Representation, and of the time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such Burial Ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is considered:

And Whereas the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a Representation stating that he has received copies of Interlocutors of the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Stirling, finding that the allegations contained in a Petition presented by certain members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Falkirk, in the said County, are proved, viz., that the Burial Grounds or Churchyards which are known respectively as

- I. The Parish Churchyard ;
- II. The East United Presbyterian or Erskine Churchyard ;
- III. The West United Presbyterian Churchyard ;
- IV. The South United Presbyterian Churchyard ;
- V. The Episcopalian or Christ Church Churchyard, are more or less dangerous to health, and offensive and contrary to decency :

And Whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that interments should be discontinued in the said Burial Grounds or Churchyards, with certain exceptions :

And Whereas notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act :—

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the 7th day of August 1871, interments be discontinued in the Burial Grounds of the said Parish Church of Falkirk, the said East United Presbyterian or Erskine Church, the said West United Presbyterian Church, and the said South United Presbyterian Church, except in the private family vaults and walled graves to be used for the burial of their owners and of the widowers and widows of those already buried therein—each coffin to be embedded in charcoal and entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented ; and in the private earthen family graves, for the burial of the widowers and widows only of those already buried therein—no such grave to be less than five feet deep, or buried in, unless it can be opened to that depth without the exposure of coffins :

Provided always, that Notice of any intended burial be sent to the Sanitary Inspector of Falkirk on the day preceding that on which the grave or vault is to be opened :

Also, that interment in the said Episcopalian or Christ Church Burial Ground be wholly discontinued from and after the said 7th day of August 1871.
