Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FROM FRIDAY, JUNE 12. TO TUESDAY, JUNE 16. 1801.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

At the Court at Kew, 29th May, 1801.

THE King, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased, by Letters Patent under his Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, to dispense with all the statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to Installation; and to give and grant unto their Royal Highnesses William Henry Duke of Clarence and St Andrew's, Edward Duke of Kent and Strathern, Ernest Augustus Duke of Cumberland and Teviotdale, Prince Augustus Frederick, and Prince Adolphus Frederick; their Serene Highnesses William Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, and Ernest Duke of Saxe Gotha; Prince William, son of his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester; as also to Charles Duke of Richmond, William Duke of Devonshire, William Marquis of Lansdown, Henry Duke of Beaufort, George Marquis of Buckingham, Charles Marquis Cornwallis, Hugh Duke of Northumberland, John Earl of Chatham, James Marquis of Salisbury, John Earl of Westmorland, Frederick Earl of Carlisle, Henry Duke of Buccleugh, William Henry Duke of Portland, George John Earl Spencer, and John Jeffreys Earl Camden, Knights Elect of the said most Noble Order, respectively, full powers and authorities to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to the Knights Companions of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, as if they had been formerly installed; any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, June 3, 1801.

The King, as Sovereign of the most Noble Order of the Garter, having, by letters patent under his Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date the twentieth day of May last, dispensed with the holding of a chapter in form, to fill the stall vacant by the death of Earl Howe, was this day graciously pleased to nominate John Duke of Roxburgh, his groom of the stole, to be a Knight Companion of the most Noble Order of the Garter; and, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales and Duke of York, to invest his Grace with the Garter, and the Ribband and George; the Lord Bishop of Salisbury, Chancellor of the Most Noble Order, pronouncing the usual admonitions during the ceremony.

And, on the same day, by Letters Patent under the Sovereign's Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, a dispensation, similar to that which each of the Knights elect had lately received, was granted to his Grace the Duke of Roxburgh.

QUEEN'S HOUSE—June 11. 1801.

This day the Count de Woronzow, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Emperor of Russia, had a private audience of her Majesty:

TO THE CREDITORS ON
The sequestrated Estates of WILLIAM GIBB & CO.
late Soap Manufacturers in Aberdeen, and of the said WILLIAM GIBB as an Individual.

A Final Scheme of Division among the said Creditors lies open for their inspection in the hands of Mr Robert Allan, Sun Fire Office, Edinburgh, the trustee, who requests the Creditors to meet within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse there, on Friday the 24th day of July next, at twelve o'clock noon, to authorise the division and receive their several dividends.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
THOMAS and JOHN WEBSTERS, Merchants in Leith.

UPON the application of the said Thomas and John Websters, with concurrence of the trustee upon their sequestrated estate, for an approval of the offer of a composition of five shillings Sterling in the pound of the whole debts due by them at the date of the sequestration, payable in one month thereafter;—the Lords of Council and Session, by an interlocutor of the 10th inst. appointed intimation of the said application to be made upon the walls of the Inner and Outer House, and in the Edinburgh Gazette, in terms of the statute.

Edinburgh, June 12, 1801.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
JOHN FRASER, jun. Merchant in Inverness.

THE appointment of Henry Andrews, merchant there, to be trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Fraser, jun. having been confirmed by the Court of Session, he hereby intimates to the creditors, that the Sheriff of Inverness-shire has fixed Thursday the eighteenth day of June current, and Thursday the 2d day of July next, at 12 o'clock noon on each of these days, within the ordinary Sheriff Court Place of Inverness, for the public examination of the bankrupt, and others acquainted with his business; and that a general meeting of the said creditors will be held within the house of Mrs Robert Ettles, vintner in Inverness, upon Friday the third day of July next, for instructing the trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate: And the trustee further requires, that such of the creditors as have not already lodged their claims and vouchers, or grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, will lodge the same with him, at or previous to the said meeting, or on or before Thursday the fifteenth day of January next, 1802, being ten months from the date of the sequestration; with certification to such of them as shall fail to comply with this requisition, that they shall have no share of the first dividend of the said bankrupt's estate.

Inverness, June 2, 1801.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
ROBERTSON and BARRY, Merchants in Leith.

UPON the application of the said Robertson and Barry, with the concurrence of a creditor to the extent required by law, the Lords of Council and Session, of the date hereof, sequestrated the whole estate, heritable and moveable, real and personal, of the said Robertson and Barry, as a Company, and of George Robertson and David Barry, the individual partners thereof; and appointed their creditors to meet within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Saturday the 20th day of June next, at one o'clock afternoon, to name an interim factor upon said sequestrated estates, and to meet again upon Wednesday the 22d of July next, at same place and hour, for the purpose of choosing a trustee or trustees, all in terms of the statute, and of which this intimation is given.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
PATRICK DOWNIE, Merchant in Stornoway, as an Individual, and as a Partner of the Company of PATRICK and JOHN DOWNIE, Merchants there.

ALEXANDER MACKENZIE, Writer in Inverness, has been appointed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Patrick Downie, and the 25th June and 11th July, 1801, are the days fixed for the examination of the bankrupt, before the Sheriff, within the ordinary Court-house of Inverness. And, on the 13th July a crossad, a meeting of the creditors is to be held within the house of John Ettles, vintner in Inverness, at twelve o'clock noon, for instructing the trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate. The creditors are therefore required to produce in the trustee's hands their claims, and affidavits thereon, at or previous to the said meeting; and unless the said production is made between and the 7th January next, being ten months after the date of sequestration, the persons neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.

Inverness, June 5, 1801.

NOTICE.

HUGH VALLANCE, Merchant in Paisley, having been chosen Trustee on the sequestrated estate of JAMES FINDLATER, Wright in Paisley, his nomination has been confirmed by the Court of Session; and on his application to the Sheriff-substitute of Renfrewshire to fix a time for the public examination of the bankrupt, and others acquainted with his business, he has appointed Friday the 3d, and Friday the 17th days of July next, at two o'clock, within the Sheriff Court-house of Paisley, for that purpose.—The creditors are required to meet within the counting-house of Hunter and Vallance, merchants in Paisley, upon Saturday the 18th day of the said month of July next, at two o'clock, to give the trustee instructions as to the management and recovery of the estate, and to appoint commissioners.—Such of the creditors as have not produced their grounds of debt, and oaths to the verity of the same, are required to do so at this meeting, or to lodge them with the trustee before the 9th day of February next, being ten months after the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration; with certification that such as neglect shall have no share in the first distribution of the bankrupt's estate, all in terms of the statute.

Paisley, June 15, 1801.

NOTICE.

STATES of the affairs of JAMES GREENSHIELDS and CO. late Manufacturers in Glasgow, made up in terms of the statute, lye at the Counting house of Charles Campbell, trustee on their sequestrated estates, till the 18th proximo, when he requests there a general meeting of the creditors to give instructions, at 12 o'clock.

NOTA.—No dividend then to take place.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
JAMES DOUGALL, Merchant in Port-Glasgow.
THAT upon the application of Mr John Dunlop, Merchant in Port-Glasgow, trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said James Dougall, the Sheriff-Substitute of Renfrewshire has appointed Saturday the 4th of July next, and Saturday the 18th day of the same month, at twelve o'clock on each of these days, for the public examination of the bankrupt, and others connected with his business, within the house of Mrs Englesham, innkeeper, Port-Glasgow, of which intimation is hereby made to all concerned.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
The Deceased JOHN MACKENZIE, jun. late
Merchant in Glasgow.

ANDREW TEMPLETON, merchant in Glasgow, trustee for the creditors of the said John Mackenzie, hereby intimates to all concerned, That by direction of the creditors, and under authority of the Commissary of Glasgow, he has now made up a state of the affairs of the defunct, as the same stood at the time of his decease, on the 3d day of March last; as also a state of the funds which since then have been realized, or which are in the course of being soon recovered, together with a scheme of division thereof among those having an interest therein, and who have produced their grounds of debt, with affidavits to the verity thereof. Which states and scheme of division will be open for inspection, in the trustee's hands, until the 15th day of July next; on which day, if no objections are then made to the ranking and division as now prepared, he will pay a dividend of 15s. per pound to the respective creditors who have proved their debts as aforesaid.

Intimation is hereby further given, that if there are any persons who claim an interest in the defunct's estate, besides those who have already appeared, such persons will immediately lodge their claims with the trustee, so as they may still have an opportunity of being included in the present ranking;—hereby certifying to those who fail to comply with this requisition, that they will not thereafter be entitled to any share in the present distribution of the defunct's effects, nor be heard in any objections to the states and scheme of division as now made up.

ANDREW TEMPLETON.
