TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES CORMIE, Smith and Machine Maker, Anderson, Glasgow.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Creditors of the said James Cormie, that his Estates were, on 20th April 1855, Sequestrated by the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, under the Act 2 and 3 Vict. cap. 41, and on 7th May 1855 the undersigned John Christie Foulds, Accountant in Glasgow, was elected Trustee on said Estates, and he was thereafter duly confirmed in office; but as the claims of Creditors and whole other documents in the Sequestration cannot now, at the distance of seventeen years, after every search made for them, be found, the Trustee presented a Petition to the Court of Session (First Division), mentioning that he was now in Funds to pay a Dividend, praying the Court to authorize him to insert a Notice in the Edinburgh Gazette, North British Advertiser, and Glasgow Herald Newspapers, addressed to the Creditors on the Estate, setting forth the date of the Sequestration and the loss of the claims lodged by the Creditors, and requiring Creditors and the Representatives of Creditors deceased to lodge claims in the statutory form within the period of one month from the last date of notice, under certification that the assets of the Estate should be divided amongst such Creditors or Representatives of Creditors only, as should lodge claims within the said period, and praying for authority otherwise as set forth in said Petition; upon considering which Petition, the Lords of the First Division of Court pronounced an Interlocutor, dated 18th July last, bearing that, having heard Counsel for the Trustee, they authorised him to give the Notice in the Gazette and Newspapers mentioned in the prayer of the Petition, and appointed him also to give notice otherwise to the same effect as mentioned in said Interlocutor, reserving for special consideration, when these Notices had been given, the further procedure in the Sequestration; and the said Lords having again considered the Petition, with productions showing the Notices authorized to have been given, pronounced an Interlocutor, dated the 5th instant, appointing the Trustee to repeat the said Notices in the Gazette and Newspapers mentioned in the prayer of the Petition, but limiting the time for Creditors lodging claims to fourteen days from the last date of notice under the said order of date 5th instant.—Of all which Notice is hereby given accordingly.

JOHN C. FOULDS, Trustee.
