LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

DOWNING-STREET, July 21. 1801.

Dispatches, of which the following are copies, have been this day received at the office of the Right Hon. Lord HAWKESBURY, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from the Earl of ELGIN and Major HOLLOWAY:

Imperial Ottoman camp of the Grand Vizier, Benalbasfer, May 20. 1801.

My LORD,

I had the honour of addressing your Lordship on the 2d of May from Salahich, which place his Highness the Grand Vizier left the 7th, and the following day arrived at Belbeis, where the advanced corps of his army had been encamped for some time before.

On the 15th instant, his Highness received intelligence that the enemy had early that morning marched a considerable force from Cairo, on the road towards Belbeis, where his Highness was then encamped. In the evening, a further confirmation of this intelligence was brought, when the enemy was in full march. The Vizier, after dark, ordered Tahir Pacha, with 3000 cavalry and three light field-pieces, to advance to meet them, and, if a favourable opportunity offered during the obscurity of the night, to attack, if not, to impede their progress as much as possible. About ten o'clock at night they met, three leagues from camp, when each halted and lay on their arms during the night, and until eight o'clock in the morning, at which time Tahir Pacha commenced an attack.—He was soon after reinforced by 1500 cavalry. It was now found the enemy had come forward with about 14 pieces of artillery, 600 cavalry, and 4000 infantry. His Highness therefore ordered Mehemed Pacha to move forward with 5000 men, cavalry and Albanian infantry, and nine light field-pieces; the enemy had eight-pounders in the field. His Highness afterwards advanced himself, and took the command, which had the happiest effect.

The enemy moved into a wood of date trees, where they were attacked by the cavalry and infantry with great spirit for three hours, when the enemy retired from the wood, taking position on the plain, their left to the wood, and forming a hollow square on the right. The Albanian infantry advanced to the edge of the wood, and, in this situation, galled them considerably; and upon the Turkish cavalry threatening their right, they changed position, and attempted to gain the heights, in which they were prevented by a rapid movement of cavalry, who gained the summit. In this manœuvre they were annoyed by two guns, which were advanced by his Highness on the occasion. At this time the French commenced a decided retreat, and were driven beyond El Hanka, a distance not less than seven miles from the place of the first operations. The Grand Vizier, who had commanded his troops with great gallantry and prompt decision, then gave orders for them not to pursue any further. The loss on either side for the time they were engaged was small. The Turks had about thirty killed and eighty wounded. The French I think had about fifty killed and one prisoner; the number of their wounded could not be ascertained, as they took them off the field.

The Turkish forces engaged on this occasion did not at any time exceed 9000 men.

Whilst I was congratulating his Highness in the field of battle on the success of the day, we received additional satisfaction by the arrival of the intelligence of the capture of Fort Lesbie, at Damietta, and two smaller forts depending on it, by a detachment from the Vizier's army. I had the honour of acquainting your Lordship, in my letter of the 2d of May, that his Highness intended sending a force against Damietta. This intention he carried into effect on the 6th, by ordering Ibrahim Pacha, with 2500 men, and five pieces of artillery to march immediately for that purpose; and it appears by Ibrahim Pacha's report to the Vizier, that every arrangement had been made for the attack of Fort Lesbie on the morning of the 14th inst. when it was discovered that the fort was evacuated, and the garrison had retired.

I beg leave to inform your Lordship, that during the action of the 16th instant, myself and Major Hope of the Royal Artillery were in the field with the Grand Vizier, Captain Lacey of the Royal Engineers with Mehemed Pacha, and Captain Leake of the Royal Artillery with Tahir Pacha, to render every assistance in our power.

The combined forces under Major-General Hutchinson and the Captain Pacha are about five hours distance in the Delta, but are expected here in a day or two. I received a letter from the General this morning, who informs me he has taken a convoy of 550 camels, and 600 French prisoners.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) CHARLES HOLLOWAY.

My LORD, Constantinople, June 21.

I have the most sincere satisfaction in forwarding to your Lordship the inclosed dispatch from Lieut. Col. Holloway.

The modest and unassuming manner in which this deserving officer has mentioned himself and the British under his orders, imposes upon me the obligation of stating to your Lordship what I had learnt by their private communications to me from Jaffa and Gaza; that as soon as the determination was formed for the Vizier to advance into Egypt, Lieutenant-Colonel Holloway proposed that distribution of the Turkish army, and that order of march, which have effectually ensured this unlooked-for success over the French. The advanced guard was composed of a select body of cavalry under Tahir Pacha, and of Albanian infantry under Mehemed Pacha; the first, accompanied by Captain Leake, the second by Captain Lacey, each receiving their orders from Colonel Holloway, who remained near the person of the Vizier.

It is by this well combined disposition, by the endeavours which were strenuously exercised to prevail upon this corps to disembarrass themselves of their superfluous attendants, and by giving confidence to the Turks in their own means, that Colonel Holloway has been enabled to bring these troops to keep in check, during many hours, a French army of superior force—to counteract its plans—to attack it—to seize every advantage of its positions and of ground, and, after manœuvring with science, during seven hours, to repulse it with loss, and gain a complete victory. In the account which the Vizier has sent of this action to the Porte, his Highness speaks in the highest terms of the service done by the artillery, which Major Hope is well known to be so very capable of directing.

Right Hon. Lord Harcourt, &c.

ELGIN.

DOWNING-STREET, July 21.

A dispatch, of which the following is a copy, has been this day received at the office of the Right Hon. Lord Hobart, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General the Hon. Sir JOHN HELY HUTCHINSON, K. B. commanding his Majesty's forces in Egypt.

Head-quarters, Camp, near Alkam,
My Lord, June 1. 1801.

I have the honour to inform your Lordship, that the French abandoned the position of El-Aft on the 7th of May, which we occupied the same evening, and on the 9th we advanced to Rahmanich, where the French were posted with upwards of 3000 infantry and 800 cavalry. We at first imagined that they might have endeavoured to have maintained that position, but our corps on the eastern bank of the Nile having got into their rear, took the fort of Rahmanich in reverse, which probably induced the enemy to retire in the night between the 9th and 10th, leaving a garrison in the fort, which surrendered in the morning, amounting to 110 men, commanded by a Chef de Brigade; we also took the same day about 50 cavalry and three officers coming from Alexandria.

As the enemy retired towards Cairo, it became necessary to follow them in order to cover the army of the Grand Vizier, and to secure a junction with the expected reinforcement from India.

Nothing happened of any importance, until the 14th, when we fell in with a valuable convoy of germs on the Nile. They had come from Cairo down the Canal of Menouff, which joins the Damietta and Rosetta branches of the river. From this circumstance, they knew nothing of the retreat of General La Grange from Rahmanich. About 150 prisoners fell into our hands, and several heavy guns, some of them intended for the defence of Alexandria. The convoy itself was very valuable, and is a great loss to the enemy. We found on board all kinds of cloathing, wine, spirits, &c. and about 5000l. in money.

On the 17th, when encamped at Alkam, we were informed by the Arabs, that a considerable body of French, coming from Alexandria, were advancing towards the Nile, near the spot where the boats of the Capitan Pacha then were. The cavalry were immediately ordered out, with two pieces of cannon, under the command of Brigadier General Doyle, supported by his brigade of infantry. Colonel Cavalier, who commanded the French convoy, as soon as he perceived the boats of the Capitan Pacha, suspected that our army must be near, and therefore retired into the Desert, where we followed him. The cavalry came up with him, after a march of about three hours. A flag of truce was sent in to them by Major Wilson of the Hompefch, requiring them to surrender, on condition that their private property should be respected, and that they should be sent to France by the first convenient opportunity. With these terms they complied, and laid down their arms. They amounted, in all, to about 600 men, infantry, cavalry, and artillery, together with a considerable portion of the dromedary corps, one four-pounder, and 550 camels. The prisoners taken are all Frenchmen, and of the best troops they had in Egypt.

On the 17th of May the enemy retired from the fort of Lisbet, on the Damietta branch, and formed a junction with about 200 men which they had at Burlos; this fort they also evacuated, and embarked in five small vessels, four of which have been taken and carried into Aboukir Bay; the fifth endeavoured to escape towards Cyprus, but a Turkish frigate was left in chase of her, so that it is more than probable she has shared the same fate.

The garrisons of the two forts consisted of about 700 men; so that in all we have taken, from the 9th to the 20th, near 1600 men, which makes a considerable diminution of the enemy's force in this country.

The French made a most extraordinary rapid march from Rahmanich to Gizah, where they arrived on the 13th, and immediately crossed the river to Boulac.

On the 15th, they marched to attack the Grand Vizier's army. His Highness anticipated their intention, and made a forward movement with a considerable body of cavalry on the night between the 15th and 16th. The armies remained for some hours in presence of each other, when the Ottoman troops attacked at about eight o'clock in the morning, and after an action of seven hours, the French retired, having lost between 300 and 400 men killed and wounded. They were nearly the same people who had retreated from Rahmanich, and were about 4000 or 4500 men.

I congratulate your Lordship upon the event of this very important action; I have also much pleasure in informing you, that the Mamalukes, under the orders of Osman Bey (successor of Murad Bey), have joined us, to the amount of about fifteen hundred cavalry, inferior, certainly, to none in the world. I am sanguine enough to hope that the most serious good effects will arise from this junction, as they have a most intimate knowledge of the country, and the greatest influence amongst the inhabitants.

I inclose you the capitulation of the fort of Rahmanich, and also a return of the killed and wounded on the 9th of May, which I rejoice has been so very inconsiderable.

I have the honour to be, &c.

J. HELY HUTCHINSON.

The Right Hon. Lord Hobart.
