FROM TUESDAY, JULY 28. TO FRIDAY, JULY 31. 1801.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, July 28.

Copy of a letter from the Hon. Wm. Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated off Ushant, the 23d instant.

SIR,

I have the honour of inclosing, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a letter from Capt. Brisbane, of his Majesty's ship the Doris, who commands the frigates employed in watching the enemy's fleet at the entrance of Brest harbour, in which important service he has shewn a great deal of zeal and enterprize.

This daring exploit appears to me to stand as high, in point of credit to his Majesty's arms, and glory to those brave officers and men who have so nobly achieved it, as any of the kind ever performed.

I have the honour to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR, Doris, off St Matthew's, July 22.

I have the honour to inform you, that a most daring and gallant enterprize was last night undertaken by the boats of his Majesty's ships Doris, Beaulieu, and Uranie, entirely manned by volunteers, under the direction of Lieut. Lofack of the Ville de Paris, whose gallantry on the occasion is better felt than expressed, who succeeded in boarding and carrying the French national ship La Chevrette, mounting twenty guns, manned and completely prepared with three hundred and fifty men, under the batteries in the Bay of Cameret, and in the presence of the combined fleets of France and Spain.

Any comments of mine would fall short of the merit due to those gallant officers, seamen, and marines employed upon this service: It is but justice to subjoin their names and qualities*, who have so nobly added an additional lustre to his Majesty's arms.

I have most sincerely to regret the loss of the killed and wounded, but when compared with that of the enemy, it is comparatively small. I cannot conclude without returning my warmest thanks to Captains Poyntz and Gage, for their judicious arrangement of their boats. I beg to mention that Captain Jervis, of his Majesty's ship Robust, very handsomely sent his barge and pinnace on this service; likewise Lieutenant Spencer, who placed his Majesty's hired cutter Telemachus in the Goulet, and prevented any assistance, by boats, the enemy might have attempted.

I have the honour to be, &c.

C. BRISBANE.
