LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, August 3.

Licut. PHILIP DUMARESQ of his Majesty's ship Cæsar, arrived last night with dispatches from Rear-Admiral Sir JAMES SAUMAREZ, Bart. of which the following are copies:

SIR, Cæsar, off Cape Trafalgar, July 13.

It has pleased the Almighty to crown the exertions of this Squadron with the most decisive success over the enemies of their country.

The three French line-of-battle ships disabled in the action of the 6th instant, off Algeiras, were, on the 8th, reinforced by a Squadron of five Spanish line-of-battle ships, under the command of Don Juan Joaquin de Moreno, and a French ship of 74 guns, wearing a broad pendant, besides three frigates, and an incredible number of gun-boats and other vessels, and got under sail yesterday morning, together with his Majesty's late ship Hannibal, which they had succeeded in getting off the shoal on which she struck.

I almost despaired of having a sufficient force in readiness to oppose to such numbers, but, through the great exertions of Captain Brenton, the officers and men belonging to the Cæsar, the ship was in readiness to warp out of the Mole yesterday morning, and got under weigh immediately after with all the Squadron, except the Pompee, which ship had not had time to get in her masts.

Confiding in the zeal and intrepidity of the officers and men I had the happiness to serve with, I determined, if possible, to obstruct the passage of this very powerful force to Cadiz. Late in the evening I observed the enemy's ships to have cleared Cabareta Point, and at eight I bore up with the Squadron to stand after them. His Majesty's ship Superb being stationed ahead of the Cæsar, I directed Captain Keats to make sail and attack the sternmost ships in the enemy's rear, using his endeavours to keep in shore of them. At eleven the Superb opened her fire close to the enemy's ships, and on the Cæsar's coming up and preparing to engage a three-decker that had hauled her wind, she was perceived to have taken fire, and the flames having communicated to a ship to leeward of her, both were seen in a blaze, and presented a most awful sight. No possibility existing of offering the least assistance in so distressing a situation, the Cæsar passed to close with the ship engaged by the Superb, but by the cool and determined fire kept upon her, which must ever reflect the highest credit on that ship, the enemy's ship was completely silenced, and soon after hauled down her colours.

The Venerable and Spencer having at this time come up, I bore up after the enemy, who were carrying a press of sail standing out of the Straits, and lost sight of them during the night. It blew excessively hard till day-light, and in the morning the only ships in company were the Venerable and Thames ahead of the Cæsar, and one of the French ships at some distance from them, standing towards the shoals of Conil, besides the Spencer after coming up:

All the ships immediately made sail with a fresh breeze, but, as we approached, the wind suddenly failing, the Venerable was alone able to bring her to action, which Captain Hood did in the most gallant manner, and had nearly silenced the French ship, when his mainmast (which had been before wounded) was unfortunately shot away, and it coming nearly calm, the enemy's ship was enabled to get off without any possibility of following her.

The highest praise is due to Captain Hood, the officers and men of the Venerable, for their spirit and gallantry in the action, which entitled them to better success. The French ship was an eighty-four, with additional guns on the gun-wale.

This action was so near the shore, that the Venerable struck on one of the shoals, but was soon after got off and taken in tow by the Thames, but with the loss of all her masts.

The enemy's ships are now in sight to the westward, standing in for Cadiz. The Superb and Audacious, with the captured ship, are also in sight, with the Carlotta Portuguese frigate, commanded by Captain Craufurd Duncan, who very handsomely came out with the Squadron, and has been of the greatest assistance to Captain Keats, in staying by the enemy's ship captured by the Superb.

I am proceeding with the Squadron for Rosier Bay, and shall proceed the moment the ships are refitted to resume my station.

No praises that I can bestow are adequate to the merits of the officers and ship's companies of all the Squadron, particularly for their unremitting exertions in refitting the ships at Gibraltar, to which, in a great degree, is to be ascribed the success of the Squadron against the enemy.

Although the Spencer and Audacious had not the good fortune to partake of this action, I have no doubt of their exertion, had they come up in time to close with the enemy's ships.

My thanks are also due to Captain Holles of the Thames, and to the Honourable Captain Dundas of the Calpe, whose assistance was particularly useful to Captain Keats in securing the enemy's ship, and enabling the Superb to stand after the Squadron, in case of having been enabled to renew the action.

I herewith inclose the names of the enemy's ships. I have the honour to be, &c.

SIR, Caesar, off Cape Trafalgar, July 14.

I herewith inclose, for their Lordships' further information, the statement I have received from Captain Keats, to whom the greatest praise is due for his gallant conduct on the service alluded to.

Captain Hood's merits are held in too high estimation to receive additional lustre from any praises I can bestow; but I only do justice to my own feelings when I observe, that in no instance have I known superior bravery to that displayed by him on this occasion.

I have the honour to be, &c.

J. SAUMAREZ.

Evan Nepean, Esq.

SIR, Superb, off Cape Trafalgar, July 13.

Pursuant to your directions to state the particulars of the Superb's services last night, I have the honour to inform you, that in consequence of your directions to make sail up to and engage the sternmost of the enemy's ships, at half past eleven I found myself abreast of a Spanish three-decked ship (the Real Carlos, as appears by report of some survivors), which, having brought in one with two other ships nearly line abreast; I opened my fire upon at not more than three cables' length; this evidently produced good effect, as well in this ship as the others abreast of her, which soon began firing on each other, and at times on the Superb.

In about a quarter of an hour I perceived the ship I was engaging, and which had lost her fore-top-mast, to be on fire, upon which we instantly ceased to molest her, and I proceeded on to the ship next at hand, which proved to be the San Antonio, of 74 guns, and 730 men, commanded by the Chef de division Le Rye, under French colours, wearing a broad pendant, and manned nearly equally with French and Spanish seamen, and which, after some action (the Chef being wounded), struck her colours.

I learn from the very few survivors of the ships which caught fire and blew up (which, in an open boat, reached the Superb at the time she was taking possession of the San Antonio), that in the confusion of the action, the Hermenegildo (a first rate also), mistaking the Real Carlos for an enemy, ran on board her, and shared her melancholy fate.

Services of this nature cannot well be expected to be performed without some loss, but though we have to lament that Lieut. E. Waller, and fourteen seamen and marines, have been wounded, most of them severely, still there is reason to rejoice that that is the extent of our loss.

I received able and active assistance from Mr Samuel Jackson, the First Lieutenant, and it is my duty to represent to you, that the officers of all descriptions, seamen, and marines, conducted themselves with the greatest steadiness and gallantry.

I have the honour to be, &c.
(Signed) R. G. KEATS.

Copy of a letter from the Hon. WILLIAM CORNWALLIS, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated off Ullant, July 31. 1801.

SIR,

I have the honour to inclose to you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a letter from Captain Hotham, of his Majesty's ship the Immortalite, acquainting me with his having captured the four masted French privateer therein mentioned.

I have the honour to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR, Immortalite, at sea, July 31.

I have the honour to inform you, that at one o'clock in the morning of the 27th inst. in lat. 43 deg. 34 min. N. and long. 11 deg. 42 min. W. I had the good fortune to fall in with, and, at half past seven, to capture a remarkably fine and singularly constructed French privateer with four masts, named L'Invention, carrying twenty-four guns on a slush deck, and two hundred and ten men. She is quite new, had only left Bourdeaux nine days before on her first cruise, and had taken nothing. She is a beautiful vessel, on a plan entirely peculiar to herself, designed by her Commander Mr Thibaut, and of extraordinary dimensions, being one hundred and forty-seven feet long and twenty-seven wide; each mast is rigged in the usual manner, and she appears to me to answer perfectly well.

During the chase, at day-light, his Majesty's ship Arethusa was seen at a distance, who joined in the pursuit, and from her situation, greatly assisted me in capturing her.

I have the honour to be, &c.

H. HOTHAM.

Hon. Admiral Cornwallis, &c.

Copy of a letter from Captain MANLEY DIXON, of his Majesty's ship Genereux, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. Secretary of the Admiralty, dated Port Mahon, 9th June 1801.

SIR,

I have the pleasure to transmit a copy of Lord Cochrane's letter, relative to the very spirited and brilliant action with a Spanish xebec frigate.

I have the honour to be, &c.

MANLEY DIXON.

His Majesty's sloop Speedy, off Barcelona, May 6. 1801, Castello Ferro N. four miles.

SIR,

I have the pleasure to inform you, that the sloop I have the honour to command, after a mutual chase and warm action, has captured a Spanish xebec frigate of 32 guns, twenty-two long twelve-pounders, eight nines, and two heavy carronades, named the Gamo, commanded by Don Francisco de Torris, manned by 319 naval officers, seamen, supernumeraries, and marines.

The great disparity of force rendering it necessary to adopt some measure that might prove decisive, I resolved to board, and with Lieut. Parker, the Hon. Mr Cochrane, the boatswain, and crew, boarded; when, by the impetuosity of the attack, we forced them instantly to strike their colours.

I have to lament in boarding the loss of one man only; the severe wounds received by Lieutenant Parker, both from musketry and the sword, one wound received by the boatswain, and one seaman.

I must be permitted to say, there could not be greater regularity nor more cool determined conduct shewn by men, than by the crew of the Speedy.

Lieut. Parker, whom I beg leave to recommend to their Lordship's notice, as well as the Hon. Mr Cochrane, deserve all the approbation that can be bestowed. The exertions and good conduct of the boatswain, carpenter, and petty officers, I acknowledge with pleasure, as well as the skill and attention of Mr Guthrie, the surgeon. I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) COCHRANE.

M. Dixon, Esq. Captain of his Majesty's Ship Genereux.

3 Killed and 8 wounded.

Copy of a letter from Captain THOMAS ROGERS, of his Majesty's ship Mercury, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated off the Tremite Islands, in the Adriatic, 23d of June 1801.

SIR,

I beg leave to inclose, for their Lordships information, a copy of a letter I have received from Captain Ricketts, of the Corfo; as also of one from myself to Lord Keith.

I have the honour to be, &c.

THOMAS ROGERS.

El Corfo, off Manfredonia, May 27. 1801.

SIR,

I have the honour to acquaint you, that this morning, at nine o'clock, we captured, off Manfredonia, the Coriveffe, a small vessel, mounting one brass gun, commanded by M. Bernard du Bourdier, Lieutenant of the Regenerée, who with another officer was carrying dispatches from Alexandria to Ancona.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) W. RICKETTS.

Captain Rogers, Senior Officer of his Majesty's ships in the Adriatic.

Mercury, off the Tremite Islands, in the My Lord, Adriatic, 23d June 1801.

I have the satisfaction to acquaint your Lordship with the capture of a notorious French pirate, this afternoon, by the boats of the Mercury and El Corfo: He had taken refuge in the morning, when chased by the Corfo, among the rocks in the Tremite Islands, inhabited by a few renegades only; and upon the Mercury's appearance landed the greatest part of his crew, who posted themselves with a four-pounder and musketry, upon a hill to defend the vessel, close to which she lay aground, with hawsers fast to the shore; notwithstanding this advantageous position, the boats, under the command of Lieutenant Mather, of the Mercury, rowed in with great intrepidity, exposed to a smart fire of grape and musketry from the vessel and the hill, while the Mercury and Corfo awed the enemy by firing what guns could be brought to bear upon him; and we had the satisfaction to see our people very gallantly board the vessel, and land at the same time to drive the banditti from the hill, in which they fortunately succeeded, without the loss of a man; and Lieutenant Wilson, with the party of marines, maintained the position, while the seamen hove the vessel off the rocks, and brought her out, with several prisoners taken upon the hill. She is a tartan, called Le Tigre, fitted out at Sinigalia, but left from Ancona, mounts eight six and twelve pounders, and had a crew of sixty French and Italians; the plunder found on board this vessel is sufficient evidence of her character, consisting of bales of cotton, and other goods taken from vessels of different nations.—I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) T. ROGERS.
