Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1874.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of August 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of Militia,' it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the Militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the Militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year; anything contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to suspend the calling out of the Fife Artillery Regiment of Militia, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby suspend the calling out of the Fife Artillery Regiment of Militia, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four;

and it is further ordered that this Order be published in the London Gazette.
