Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 26, 1875.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, ST. JAMES'S
PALACE, March 23, 1875.

NOTICE is hereby given that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday the 26th of April next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS

MADE BY

THE GLASGOW TRAMWAY AND OMNIBUS COMPANY, LIMITED.

Lessees of the Glasgow Street Tramways under a Lease between the said Company and the Corporation of Glasgow, dated 16th and 17th November 1871.

Under the powers conferred on the Company by 'The Tramways Act, 1870.'

1. THE Bye-laws and Regulations herein-after set forth shall extend and apply to all carriages of the Company, and to all places with respect to which the Company have power to make Bye-laws or Regulations.

2. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a carriage by the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise.

3. No passenger shall smoke inside any carriage.

4. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

5. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

6. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on any carriage, or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws and Regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

7. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a carriage, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in the interior of any carriage, and may be prevented from entering the interior of any carriage, and shall not enter the interior of any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if found in the interior of any carriage, shall, on request of the conductor, leave the interior of the carriage, upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

8. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor, or other duly authorised officer of the Company, the fare legally demandable for the journey.

9. Each passenger travelling by a car marked 'through car,' must, on entering the same, accept a ticket for the entire distance the car has yet to run to its destination, and pay the fare legally demandable for that distance.

10. Each passenger shall show his ticket, when required so to do, to the conductor or any duly authorised servant of the Company, and shall also when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

11. Personal luggage exceeding in the total twenty-eight pounds in weight shall not be carried by any passenger unless permitted by the conductor, when each parcel exceeding this weight shall be charged for and a ticket obtained by the owner or custodian as for a passenger. No passenger's luggage shall be allowed on either platform.

12. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Company shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platforms of any carriage, or stand either on the roof or in the interior, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any carriage, and shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

13. No person except a passenger or intending passenger shall enter or mount any carriage, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any carriage or travel therein, otherwise than on a seat provided for passengers.

14. When any carriage contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or on any such carriage when warned by the conductor not to do so.

15. The conductor shall not permit any passenger beyond the licensed number to enter, or mount, or remain in or upon any part of a carriage.

16. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave any carriage whilst in motion.

17. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any carriage, except by permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers.

No person shall take a dog or other animal into any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any carriage in breach of this Regulation, shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the carriage immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

18. No person shall travel in or on any carriage of the Company with loaded fire-arms.

19. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the execution of his duty, upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway of the Company.

20. The conductor of each carriage shall enforce or prevent the breach of these Bye-laws and Regulations to the best of his ability.

21. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws or Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings.

22. The expression 'conductor' shall include any officer or servant in the employment of the Company and having charge of a carriage.

23. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws and Regulations.

24. These Bye-laws and Regulations shall come into force on the 14th day of June 1875.

Given under the Common Seal of the Glasgow Tramway and Omnibus Company, Limited, this 25th day of March 1875.
