ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, SEPT. 12. 1801.

Extract of a letter from Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated in Rosia Bay, the 26th July 1801.

I herewith inclose Captain Hood's report of the Venerable's very gallant action with the French ship Formidable, the morning of the 13th inst.; and also the return of her killed and wounded.

SIR, His Majesty's ship Venerable, at sea, 13th July 1801.

You must have observed my giving chase to an enemy's line of battle ship at day break this morning, at seven, she hoisted French colours, and I could perceive her to be an eighty gun ship; at half-past, being within point-blank shot, the enemy commenced firing his stern chase guns, which I did not return for fear of retarding our progress, until the light and baffling airs threw the two ships broad-side to, within musket shot, when a steady and warm conflict was kept up for an hour and a half, and we had closed within pistol-shot, the enemy principally directing his fire to our masts and rigging; I had at this time the misfortune to perceive the main-mast to fall overboard, the fore and mizen-mast nearly in the same state, and since gone, the ship being near the shore close to the Castle of Sancti Petri, the enemy escaped. It was with much difficulty I was enabled to get the Venerable off her cables and an hors, all disabled, and it was only by the great exertion of the Thames with the boats you sent me, she was saved, after being on shore for some time.

I shall have no occasion to comment on the bravery of the officers and ship's company in this action, who had with much patience and perseverance suffered great fatigue by their exertions to get the ship to sea, and not five hundred men able to go to quarters; but I beg leave to add, I have been most ably supported by Lieut. Lillcrap, second of the Venerable, (first absent) all the other officers and men who have my warmest recommendation, and have to lament the loss of Mr Williams, Master, an excellent officer, with many other valuable people killed and wounded; a list of which I have the honour to enclose.

I am, &c. S. HOOD.
Sir James Saumarez, Bart. Rear-Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. &c.

A list of killed and wounded in action with a French ship of eighty guns, on the 13th July, 1801.

Mr John Williams, master; fifteen seamen, two marines, killed.

Mr Thomas Church, Lieutenant; Mr John Snell, boatswain; Mr George Meilly; and Mr Chas. Par-doe, midshipmen; seventy-three seamen, ten marines, wounded.

SAMUEL HOOD, Captain.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, SEPT. 11.

Copy of a letter from Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated in Kofia-Bay the 2d August 1801.

SIR,
I herewith enclose, for their Lordships' information, two letters from Lieutenant Wooldridge, of his Majesty's hired armed brig Pasley, giving an account of the capture of the El Golondrina Spanish privateer on the 25th of June, and of the action on the 21st of July with a Spanish xebec, of twenty-two guns, which reflects the highest credit on Lieut. Wooldridge, his officers and men; also of the capture of the Spanish privateer schooner El Atanacta, on the 29th following.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

SIR, Pasley, Gibraltar, July 9. 1801.

I beg leave to inform you, that on the 29th ult. off Cape St Vincent, I captured the Spanish Felucca privateer El Golondrina, of two guns, with small arms, and a complement of thirty three men, nine of which had previously been sent in a small Guernsey lugger and a Portuguese schooner, which she had captured during her cruize.

I have the honour to be, &c.

W. WOOLDRIDGE.

Rear Admiral Sir James Saumarez.

His Majesty's armed brig Pasley,
July 30, 1801.

SIR,
I have the honour of informing you, that on my return from Minorca, in execution of your orders, on Tuesday the 21st inst. the island of Carbera, N. E. six or seven leagues, I fell in with a Spanish man of war xebec, of twenty-two guns, which at seven A. M. after being hailed by her with orders to send my boat on board, I brought to action within pistol-shot, and continued it until a quarter past eight, when she was perfectly silenced, but took advantage of her sweeps, it being nearly calm; and although every exertion was used with the Pasley's sweeps, I had the mortification of seeing her get close in with Ivica before night.

I am much obliged to Mr Lyons the Master, for his cool and steady conduct during the action, and Mr Douglas, midshipman of the Caesar, a passenger, who assisted at the guns. The remaining officers and ship's company behaved with credit to themselves and my satisfaction; but I am sorry to add, one of them was killed, and two others wounded.

And on the 29th following, off Cape Tenerifas, I captured the Spanish privateer schooner El Atanacta, pierced for fourteen guns, but only seven on board, long twelves and sixes, and fifty-five men, belonging to Malaga, out ten days, and had captured a schooner, from Oran, laden with cattle for Gibraltar; and have the honour to be, &c.

W. WOOLDRIDGE.
