IRRAWADDY FLOTILLA AND BURMESE STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY (LIMITED).

NOTICE is hereby given that at a Special General Meeting of the Shareholders of this Company, held on 25th May 1875, the following Special Resolutions were unanimously passed, viz. :—

- I. 'That in order to obviate the difficulties which have hitherto been experienced in adequately conducting the business of the Company under the existing Articles of Association, a new Company be formed under amended Articles of Association, conferring extended powers; and that upon the formation of such new Company the present be voluntarily wound up, by the business and property thereof being taken over by the new Company, it being understood that the capital of the new Company shall be divided into shares of £50 each, and that the holders of shares of the present Company shall be entitled to an equal number of shares, and to participate in the profits of the new Company to a corresponding extent, subject to the proviso that holders of shares of the present Company only partially paid up shall be bound to pay up the balance before being registered as holders of fully paid up shares of the new Company.
- II. 'That in pursuance of said Resolution, the Directors of the Company be, as they are hereby authorized and empowered forthwith to adopt the necessary steps for the formation of a new Company under the name of the "Irrawaddy Flotilla Company (Limited)," or such other name as they may approve of, with power to adjust and settle the terms of the Memorandum and Articles of Association applicable thereto. And
- III. 'That on the formation of the said new Company the business and affairs of the present Company be voluntarily wound up, by the business and property thereof being transferred to and taken over by the said new Company on the footing before stated; and that to this end and effect, James Galbraith, Esq., of Messrs. F. Henderson & Company, of Glasgow, and Peter Denny, Esq., of Messrs. William Denny Brothers, of Dumbarton, be, as
