To the CREDITORS of JAMES STEWART Vintner, Borrowstounness.

JAMES STEWART having become insolvent, his Creditors named Andrew Tod, merchant in Borrowstounness, and James Gib, farmer at Borrowstounness, trustees, and the said James Stewart has granted them a trust right to his whole effects for behoof of his Creditors.

The Meeting therefore authorized the said Trustees to proceed to sale of his effects, so far at least as to pay off the preferable and hypothetical debt, as also the first moiety of 5s. of the Pound of the proposed composition payable as at Candlemas next, on or before which day, it was agreed, if Mr Stewart found sufficient security for the other 5s. of the Pound, the trust right should be delivered up, and Mr Stewart discharged.

The Trustees in the interim request the Creditors of the said James Stewart to lodge notes of their debts, and the grounds thereof, with Andrew Tod, merchant in Borrowstounness.
