The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act has been received, in pursuance thereof to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in such Order, burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order

PRESENT,

Whereas by the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act has been received, in pursuance thereof, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in such Order, burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act; provided always, that notice of such Representation, and of the time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of or on some conspicuous places within the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered :

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff of Ayrshire, finding that the allegations contained in a Petition of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Galston are true, that the burial ground for the Parish of Galston is in an overcrowded state, that it is offensive or contrary to decency and dangerous to health, and ought to be discontinued, with this exception, namely, reserving right to John Smith, youngest son of the late Reverend Doctor George Smith, Minister of the Parish, to be interred in the private burying place which belonged to his said late father :

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that burials should, with the exception of the private right mentioned in the Interlocutor, be forthwith discontinued in the said burial ground :
