WHITEHALL, May 20, 1876.

ON Saturday, the 20th instant, at 11.30 A.M., died at Cumberland Lodge, Windsor Park, the Infant Son of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, to the great grief of Her Majesty and of the Royal Family.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of May 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act has been received, in pursuance thereof to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in such Order, burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act; provided always, that notice of such Representation, and of the time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of or on some conspicuous places within the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered:

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a Representation stating that he received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of Stirling and Dumbarton, finding proved the allegations contained in a Petition of two Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Denny, that the burial grounds or churchyards which are known respectively as I. The Parish Churchyard of Denny: II. The Broompark or United Presbyterian Churchyard situated in Denny: and III. The United Presbyterian Churchyard at Dennyloanhead are dangerous to health and offensive, and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that burials should be forthwith discontinued in the said burials grounds or churchyards:

And whereas notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a
