FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

ADMIRALTY OFFICE—November 10, 1801.

Extract of a Letter from Sir CHARLES MORICE POLE, Bart. Vice-Admiral of the Blue, &c. to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated off Cadiz, the 24th day of September 1801.

ENCLOSED I transmit to you a copy of a letter from Lieut. Newton Starck, of the Milbrook schooner, stating his capture of a Spanish privateer called the Baptista; and one from Captain Hollis of the Thames frigate, informing me of the capture of the Sparrow Spanish privateer by the boats of the said ship in a spirited and gallant manner, which I pray you to lay before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

His Majesty's Schooner Milbrook, off Cadiz, Sept. 21, 1801.

SIR,
I beg leave to inform you, that on the 15th instant, being off Cape Montego in his Majesty's schooner Milbrook, under my command, to put myself under your orders, I perceived a small Spanish privateer, which, after a long chase, I succeeded in securing. Her name is the Baptista, mounting eight guns, and was laden with a valuable cargo of English prize butter, with which she was on her passage from Vigo to Seville.

I have the honour to be, &c.

NEWTON STARCK.

Vice-Admiral Pole, &c.

His Majesty's ship Thames, September 21, 1801, Cape Saint Mary N. W. by N four leagues.

SIR,

I have to inform you, that this morning, at day-light, his Majesty's ship Thames being between the sand hills of San Lucar and Condan Point, discovered an enemy's lugger in the N. W. which after a chase of twelve hours, (it then becoming calm when about 3 miles from the ship,) was boarded in a very spirited manner by the boats of the Thames, under the command of Lieutenants Hawker, Stewart, and Lucas.—She is called the Sparrow, a Spanish privateer, mounting two four-pounders, two brass swivels and small arms, and thirty-one men, out fifty-four days, had taken a Gibraltar privateer, and was on her return.

I have the honour to be, &c. &c. &c.
A. R. HOLLIS.

TO CREDITORS.

ANDREW ADIE, Merchant in Glasgow, trustee upon the sequestrated estate of JOHN WATSON & CO. Merchants in Glasgow, as a Company, and of John Watson and Patrick Philips, the Partners of said Company, as Individuals, hereby intimates to their Creditors, that he, as trustee foresaid, has applied for, and obtained authority from the Lord Ordinary on the bills, to make an interim dividend among the said creditors, of the sums already recovered by him from the bankrupt's estates, and that upon Wednesday the 16th of December next.—The trustee therefore hereby intimates, that said dividend will accordingly be made on that day, at 12 o'clock noon, in his Counting-house in Glasgow; betwixt and which period a state of the funds and scheme of division will lie in his hands, for the inspection of the creditors.—And further, the trustee requires the creditors to produce in his hands, their vouchers or grounds of debt, and oaths of verity thereof, previous to said 16th of December, if not already produced; and intimates, that unless the said productions are so made, the parties neglecting shall have no share in the present distribution of the bankrupt's estate.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ROBERT INNES, Flesher in Edinburgh.

THAT at a Meeting of the creditors held on the 11th November current, the bankrupt having made offer of a composition of six shillings per pound, payable by two installments of three shillings each—the first whereof on the first January next, and the second six months thereafter. The trustee hereby requests a general meeting of the creditors within John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon the ninth day of December next, at twelve o'clock noon, for the purpose of coming to a final resolution on this offer.—Of which this intimation is given in terms of the statute to all concerned.

Edinburgh, November 13, 1801.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

Mrs JANET MURRAY, Brewer at the back of Canongate.

CHARLES WILSON, Solicitor at Law, Trustee on the sequestrated Estate of the said Janet Murray, hereby requests a meeting of the said Creditors, in John's Coffeehouse, on Wednesday the 2d day of December next, at one o'clock afternoon, in order to give instruction as to the future management of the estate, and to receive a dividend from the funds recovered.

Edinburgh, Nov. 12, 1801.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

RODERICK M'RAE, Merchant in Leith.

JOHN MENZIES, merchant in Leith, trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Roderick M' Rae, hereby requests a general meeting of the creditors to be held within the house of J. Baxter, vintner, South Bridge Street, Edinburgh, upon Friday the 27th of November current, at 12 o'clock mid-day, to consider the state of the bankrupt's affairs, and give such instructions thereon, as may seem proper.

The trustee farther intimates to the debtors, that unless immediate payment of their accounts is made to him, or Nathaniel Grant, writer in Edinburgh, prosecution will be raised to recover payment.

Edinburgh, 13th Nov. 1801.

TO CREDITORS.

THOSE ranked on the Estate of the late THOMAS HUNTER, sen. Merchant here, will please to call on Mr John Crawford, merchant here, and receive the last dividend arising from Mr Hunter's estate, and discharge the trustees.

Saltscoats, Nov. 12. 1801.
