ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, DEC. 5. 1801.

Copy of a letter from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, Bart. and K. B. to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated at Port Mahon, 24th October, 1801.

SIR,

I have enclosed to you the copy of a letter relative to the transactions that have taken place at Porto Ferrajo, which I request you will be pleased to lay before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the honour to remain, &c.

JOHN BORLASE WARREN.

SIR,

Porto Ferrajo, Oct. 14, 1801.

In my letter of yesterday I had the honour to report to you, that the enemy had shown lately some disposition to advance and take ground nearer our works, and this morning I found they had thrown up an intrenchment of earth and gabions upon a peninsula or tongue of land within two hundred yards of our works.

I immediately determined to destroy the work.

and dislodge them before they could have time to strengthen or bring any guns upon it; I appointed De Bercy's corps for this service with a party of peafants to destroy the work, and the Maltese corps, under Major Weir, to support and cover them; about eleven o'clock they crossed the ditch, drove the enemy from the ground, and destroyed the work.

The enemy made two or three attempts to advance in force, but were completely kept in check by our grape-shot from the batteries, which were admirably well served; their batteries kept up a very heavy fire of round and grape-shot, which did us very little harm. The business being completed, the troops returned into the works, having suffered inconsiderably in numbers; though we have to lament one officer killed and three wounded.

I was a good deal inclined to have kept possession of the ground, but upon consideration of the weakness of our force, I thought it scarcely tenable so close to the enemy's works, more especially as we were advised this morning of their having got a reinforcement of two hundred men from Piombino, two or three nights ago. I flatter myself, however, they are equally convinced of their inability to keep a post so near us.

The enemy admit between between sixty and seventy killed and wounded, and three officers; and from what we could see ourselves, I am persuaded they are within the mark in this calculation.

I subjoin a list of killed and wounded and missing.

I am, &c.

GEORGE AIREY.
