PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by section 18 of 'The Extradition Act, 1870,' it is among other things enacted that if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British Possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State or by any subsequent Order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such Law continues in force there and no longer;

Or direct that such Law or Ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act.

And whereas by an Ordinance, numbered 7 of 1877, enacted by the Legislature of Mauritius, the short title of which is 'The Extradition Act (Mauritius), 1877,' it is provided that 'all powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals in the United Kingdom under "The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873," are thereby
