Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1877.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 23d day of October 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received, in pursuance thereof to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in such Order, burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of or on some conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered:

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a representation stating that he received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Perthshire, finding proved certain of the allegations contained in a Petition of two members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Blairgowrie, viz., that the burial ground of that parish is offensive, and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said representation it is recommended that burials should be forthwith discontinued in the said burial ground, subject to the exceptions in the 'Joint Minute' of the petitioners and objectors accompanying the Sheriff-Substitute's Interlocutor:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the fourth day of November 1877, burials be discontinued in the said burial ground of the Parish of Blairgowrie, with the following exceptions, viz. :—

1. That a right of interment in the said burial ground be reserved to all persons (and the descendants of such persons) who have at the date at which this Order shall come into force one or more of the following relatives already interred in the said burial ground, viz., a parent, grandparent, spouse, child, brother or sister; also the minister of the parish and his successors in office and their families. And that this reservation be modified in the case of the burying place enclosed by the Rosemount family to the effect of allowing the interment therein of the nephews of the late Robert Geekie of Rosemount and their descendants.

2. That such interments shall be made, in the case of the ministers and their families, only in that portion of the Burial Ground which has hitherto been recognised as the ministers' burying ground, or in unoccupied ground; and in the case of others, only in the lair or lairs in which one or more of the above mentioned relatives of the deceased have already been interred, or in unoccupied ground; and that in no case shall any interference be made with lairs pertaining by allocation, custom, or occupancy to other parties, although such parties may not be resident in the parish.

3. That no interment shall be made in any part of the Burial Ground unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and that without the exposure of another coffin.
