In Parliament—Session 1878.]

SCOTTISH UNION AND SCOTTISH NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANIES.

(Amalgamation of the Two Companies and Incorporation of United Company; Change of Name; Confirmation of Agreement; Dissolution of the Two Companies; Vesting Property, &c., in United Company; Policies, &c., to remain Valid; Accounts; Regulation of Capital; Additional Capital; Conversion of Shares into Stock; Investments; Lands; Power to Acquire Property and Business of other Insurance Companies; Bye-laws; Amendment or Repeal of Royal Charter, Contract of Copartnership, and Acts; other Powers and Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting the following objects, or some of them, that is to say:—

To amalgamate and unite the Scottish Union Insurance Company (hereinafter called 'the Union Company') and the Scottish National Insurance Company (hereinafter called 'the National Company') and the Shareholders in such Companies respectively into one Company, to be incorporated by the name of 'The Scottish Union and National Insurance Company,' or by such other name as may be provided by the Bill; with power to such United Company to carry on the business hitherto carried on or authorised to be carried on by the Union Company and the National Company (hereinafter called 'the two Companies'), and with all such further powers usual and necessary relating to the business of Fire and Life Insurance Companies as may be conferred by the Bill; and for such purposes to confirm and give effect to a Contract and Agreement entered into between the two Companies, dated the 10th, and registered in the Books of Council and Session at Edinburgh the 12th day of January 1877.

To provide for the dissolution of the two Companies, under reservation of all contracts, responsibilities, and obligations to which such Companies or the Shareholders thereof respectively are or may be liable, and for satisfying all claims and demands upon the two companies, and for applying and disposing of the capital and assets thereof respectively, and for transferring to and vesting in the United Company the property, estate, and effects, and all debts, obligations, rights, and interests of every description of the two Companies or of either of them.

To provide that all policies, bonds, and obligations, and all debts and liabilities granted, issued, or undertaken by the two Companies or either of them shall be valid and effectual and operative against the United Company and the stock and funds thereof.

To provide for the keeping of accounts of the policies and annuity transactions and other business of the two Companies and of the United Company, and for the distribution of the profits arising thereon in manner to be provided by the Bill.

To alter and regulate the existing capital of the two Companies respectively; to provide that such existing capital or part thereof shall form the capital of the United Company; to authorise the United Company to raise additional capital; to sanction the conversion into stock of the share capital of the two Companies, or part thereof, and whether heretofore issued or to be hereafter issued; and to fix the amount, and to regulate the distribution and allotment of the capital of the United Company.

To provide for the investment of the capital and funds of the United Company, and to empower the United Company to purchase and take and to sell and dispose of grants of annuities for terms of years or in perpetuity and reversions, postponed sums of money and postponed rights upon or for the lives of any persons or for years determinable on the dropping of a life or lives or other event, and with or subject to such conditions or qualifications as may be prescribed in the Bill.

To empower the United Company or any persons in trust for the United Company to hold lands or other property without license in mortmain.

To empower the United Company from time to time to acquire all or any part of the property and business of any other Fire or Life Insurance Company or Society, and for such purpose to enable any such other Company or Society to sell or dispose of all or any part of their property and business to the United Company.

To provide for the dissolution or winding-up of the United Company under such conditions as may be prescribed in the Bill.

To enable the United Company to make Bye-laws for the regulation of their business and affairs; to vary or extinguish any rights or privileges which might impede or interfere with the execution of the objects of the Bill; and to confer upon the United Company all such powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for carrying such objects into effect; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To amend or repeal and annul (so far as may be necessary for the objects of the Bill) the Scottish Union Insurance Company's Act, 1847 (10 Vict., cap. 34), intituled 'An Act to enable the Scottish Union Insurance Company to purchase annuities and invest money on securities in England and Ireland, and for other purposes relating thereto,' and the therein recited Charter of Incorporation of the Union Company, and 'The Scottish National Insurance Company's Incorporation Act, 1859' (22 and 23 Vict., cap. 49), and the therein recited Contract of Copartnership and Bye-laws or other alterations of the said Contract made in virtue of the provisions thereof.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December 1877, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this Sixth day of November 1877.
