AUCHENLOCHAN (KYLES OF BUTE)
PIER.

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

(Powers to Construct Pier; Levy Rates; Borrow Money; Regulate Vessels and Traffic; Constitute a Harbour Authority; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, pursuant to the provisions of the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, on or before the 22d day of December next, by John Malcolm, Esquire of Poltalloch (who, together with his heirs, assignees, and successors, are hereinafter called 'the Promoters'), for a Provisional Order for all or some of the powers and purposes following, that is to say:—

To authorize the promoters to make, maintain, and regulate a Pier, commencing at or near a point on the east side of the public road leading from Otter Ferry to Tighnabraich, 155 yards southward from the point of junction of the centre line of that road with the centre line of the road leading from the first-mentioned road westward to the Established Church or Chapel of Ease of Tighnabraich, and extending in an easterly direction into the sea for a distance of 75 yards or thereabouts from the said point of commencement, and there terminating; together with all necessary works in connection with such pier; which pier and works will be situate in the Parish of Kilfinan and County of Argyll, and on the foreshore and in the sea adjacent thereto.

To authorize the promoters in the construction of such pier to make all suitable deviations, lateral and vertical, and to make all necessary approaches, roads, jetties, wharves, warehouses, sheds, cranes, water-pipes, and other works and conveniences; and to supply water to vessels.

To authorize the promoters to levy tolls, rates, duties, and charges on vessels and boats, and on passengers, animals, fish, goods, vehicles, and other matters and things, at or in respect of the use of the said pier, and the warehouses, sheds, cranes, and other conveniences connected therewith, and for the supply of water to vessels; and to make provision for the collection and regulation of the same; and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from such tolls, rates, duties, and charges, and to make compositions with respect to the payment thereof.

To authorize the promoters to borrow money for the purposes of the said pier and other works, and of the said Provisional Order, on the security of the said pier and works, and the lands and property connected therewith, or of the tolls, rates, duties, and charges authorized to be levied by the said Provisional Order, or on the security of such pier, works, lands, property, tolls, rates, duties, and charges in combination, or of some of them.

To provide for the maintenance, management, and administration of the said intended pier and works, and all matters relating thereto; to authorize the promoters to let on lease the said pier and works, and the said tolls, rates, duties, and charges, or any of them; to make, alter, and rescind bye-laws, rules, and regulations, for the management, use, and protection of the said pier and works, and for the regulation and control of vessels, persons, and traffic frequenting or resorting to, or employed, embarked, disembarked, loaded or unloaded at or near the said pier and works; and to impose and recover penalties for the breach or non-observance of such bye-laws, rules, and regulations; and to appoint and remove pier-masters, meters, weighers, and other officers and servants.

To define the limits within which the powers of such pier-masters, meters, weighers, officers, and servants may be exercised.

To constitute the promoters the Harbour Authority and Pilotage Authority for the said pier and the neighbourhood thereof, and to fix the limits of such authority.

To confer on the promoters all powers, rights, and privileges necessary for carrying the said Provisional Order into effect; and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which might interfere therewith.

To incorporate with the said Provisional Order all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and the Harbours Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, plans and sections of the proposed works and a copy of this Notice will be deposited for public inspection in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, the Office at Inveraray of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Argyll, the Custom House of the Port of Greenock, and the Office in London of the Board of Trade.

Printed copies of the Draft Provisional Order will be furnished by the undersigned, at their Offices as undernoted, to all persons applying for the same, on and after the 22d day of December next, at the price of one shilling each.

Dated this 9th day of November 1877.

PORT-SETON HARBOUR.

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

(Incorporation of Commissioners and Constitution of Harbour Authority; Reconstruction, Maintenance, and Regulation of Harbour, and Construction of other Works in connection therewith; Power to Levy Tolls, Rates, and Duties; Power to Borrow Money; Incorporation of General Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations (hereinafter called the Board of Trade), by a Memorial to be deposited on or before the 22d day of December next by—

The Right Honourable Francis Charteris Douglas, Earl of Wemyss and March;
The Honourable Francis Charteris, commonly called Lord Elcho, Member of Parliament for the County of Haddington;
William Stewart Macdonald, Factor to the said Earl of Wemyss and March, residing at Craighielaw, in the County of Haddington;
The Reverend James Kilgour, Minister of the Free Church, Cockenzie;
John Bathgate, Baker, Cockenzie;
John Barclay, Hotel Keeper, Cockenzie;
James Burnet, Farmer, Seton, in the County of Haddington;
William Brebner M'Lachlan, Fish Salesman, Edinburgh;

James Snowdoune, Coal Master, Cockenzie;
Robert Ovens, Schoolmaster, Cockenzie;
Thomas Donaldson, John Donaldson, William Dickson, John Stewart, Angus Marshall, John Jones, Peter Horne, John Barker, all Fishermen in Cockenzie;

(hereinafter called the Promoters), praying for a Provisional Order pursuant to the provisions of 'The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861,' and 'The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act,' for all or some of the following among other powers and purposes; that is to say:—

To provide for the constitution of the Promoters as a body of Commissioners for the harbour to be called 'The Port-Seton Harbour Commissioners' (hereinafter called 'the Commissioners').

To incorporate the Commissioners as a body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to purchase, lease, take, hold, and dispose of lands and other property for the purposes, but subject to the restrictions, of the said proposed Provisional Order, and to provide for the election of their successors.

To constitute the Commissioners and their successors as the Harbour Authorities and the proper Pilotage and Local Authorities for the said intended harbour, and to fix the limits thereof; and to grant all the powers and privileges authorized by 'The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854,' 'The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855,' 'The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862,' and 'The Merchant Shipping Act, 1876.'

To empower the Commissioners to reconstruct, deepen, maintain, and regulate a harbour at the village of Port-Seton in the Parish of Tranent and County of Haddington, and approaches thereto, and to make and maintain the works hereinafter described, or some of them; that is to say:—

- 1st. A Pier on the site of Old East Pier of Port-Seton Harbour, commencing on the shore near high-water mark at a point 64 yards or thereby measured in a north-westerly direction from the north-west corner of the building called Reid's House, and extending in a north and westerly direction for a distance of about 102 yards, thence in a west and northerly direction for a distance of about 86 yards, thence in a southerly direction for a distance of about 23 yards, and there terminating.
- 2d. A Breakwater on the site of the Old West Breakwater of Port-Seton Harbour, commencing at or near the high-water mark at a point 168 yards or thereby distant in a westerly and northerly direction from the north-west corner of the houses called Red Row, and extending in a north-easterly direction for a distance of 58 yards or thereby, thence for a distance of 37 yards or thereby in a northerly and easterly direction, thence for a distance of 60 yards or thereby in an easterly direction, and there terminating.
- 3d. The Deepening of the Entrance and Area of Port-Seton Harbour within the aforesaid Piers, said deepening to commence at a point on the beach measuring 85 yards or thereby in a north-westerly direction from the aforesaid north-west corner of Reid's House, and terminating at the entrance to the said Port-Seton Harbour at low-water mark of ordinary spring tides.

The said works will all be situated in the Parish of Tranent and County of Haddington, upon the sea shore of the said County, or in the bed of the sea adjoining thereto.

To empower the Commissioners to make and maintain all bulwarks, embankments, quays, jetties, piers, roads, lights, approaches, wharves, stairs, tramways, sheds, warehouses, cranes, buoys; and to cross, alter, stop up, or divert temporarily or permanently, or otherwise interfere with foreshores, roads, streets, lanes, passages, sewers, drains, streams, water-courses, channels, conduits, and gas and water, and other pipes and all other works which it may be necessary to interfere with in the construction of the said intended works, or any of them; and to alter, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with and prevent the objects and purposes of the said proposed Order.

To levy tolls, rates, duties, and charges on vessels, boats, and other craft entering, and using, and anchoring within the limits of the harbour, and on animals, fish, and goods landed and shipped or unshipped therein, and on the quays, works, and conveniences connected therewith.

To lease and compound the said tolls, rates, duties, and charges, in such manner and for such period as may be specified in the said Provisional Order; and to provide for the application of the revenue of the said harbour.

To borrow at interest such money as may be required for the purposes of the said proposed works and of the said Order, by way of mortgage or cash credit or otherwise; and to re-borrow on the security of the said harbour, and the lands and property connected therewith, and the works to be constructed thereon, and the tolls, rates, duties, and charges authorized to be levied by the said Provisional Order; and to enable the Commissioners to establish a sinking fund for the repayment of monies borrowed; and to provide for the application of the funds and revenues of the Commissioners.

To authorize the Commissioners and their successors, owners of the said harbour for the time being, to carry the said Provisional Order into effect; to confer upon them all powers, rights, privileges, and authorities which may be necessary for that purpose; and to provide for the maintenance, management, and administration of the said harbour and works, and of all matters relating thereto.

To make all and such other provisions as may be suitable to carry into effect the objects of the said application.

The said Order will incorporate all or some of the provisions of the 'Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847,' 'The Lands Clauses Consolidation Scotland Act, 1845,' 'The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860,' 'The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1817,' and 'The Harbours and Passing Tolls Act, 1861,' with such variations from the provisions of such Acts respectively as may be provided in the said Order.

A copy of this advertisement with a plan and sections of the said proposed works will, on or before the 30th day of November 1877, be deposited for public inspection in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, in the Office at Haddington of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Haddington, in the Custom House at Leith, and in the Office at the Board of Trade, London.

Printed copies of the Draft Provisional Order will be furnished by the Agents for the Promoters at their Offices as under, to all persons applying for the same, on and after the 22d day of December 1877, at the price of one shilling each.

Dated this 12th day of November 1877.

BORROWSTOUNNESS TOWN AND HARBOUR.

Amendment of the Borrowstounness Town and Harbour Act, 1875; Alteration of Constitution of the Trustees for the Town and Harbour of Borrowstounness, and of the qualification of the Trustees, and Parties by whom they are to be elected; Change of Name; New and Increased Rates, Assessments; and Powers to Trustees with reference to Water Supply, Maintenance of Foot Pavements, &c., and Constables, &c.; Incorporation of new Harbour Commissioners; Transfer to them of Harbour Undertaking and Powers of existing Trustees; Levying Tolls, Rates, and Duties; Borrowing Money; Powers to North British Railway Company to Borrow and Raise Money; Powers to North British Railway Company to Subscribe or Lend Money; Amendment of Acts; Incorporation of Acts; and other Purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other objects, powers, and purposes, that is to say:—

To alter, amend, vary, extend, and enlarge, and, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, to repeal, or to repeal and re-enact, with or without modification or alteration, all or some of the powers and provisions of the Borrowstounness Town and Harbour Act, 1875 (in this Notice referred to as the Act of 1875); and to make other and further provisions with respect to the Harbour of Borrowstounness as defined by the said Act of 1875.

To alter the constitution of the Trustees for the Town and Harbour of Borrowstounness under the Act of 1875 (who in this Notice are referred to as the existing Trustees).

To alter and change the name and designation of the existing Trustees, and to limit and restrict their rights, powers, functions, and jurisdictions to the rights, powers, functions, and jurisdictions conferred on them by the Act of 1875, with reference to the property of and rights in and over the Town of Borrowstounness (as distinguished from the Harbour of Borrowstounness, as defined by that Act), including the right of levying assessments within the Town for the purposes of that Act and of the Bill, and of superintending, managing, and improving the said Town, and to the improvement, police, sanitary, local, and other management and government of the said Town; and to repeal, alter, and amend the clauses and provisions of the Act of 1875 with relation to the qualification of the existing Trustees authorised to be elected thereunder, and of their election; and to make further provision both as to the parties to be qualified to be elected, and of the electors, or in relation thereunto; and to make such other provisions with respect to the several matters aforesaid as the Bill will define.

To repeal, alter, or amend section 68 of the Act of 1875, and to relieve the existing Trustees from any further liability to make up any deficiency in the sinking fund provided by that Act.

To repeal, alter, or amend section 5 of the Act of 1875, so far as it incorporates and makes applicable to the election of Trustees thereunder 'The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847,' with respect to the following matters, or some of them, or some parts thereof, that is to say, 'with respect to the election and rotation of the Commissioners, when the Commissioners are to be elected by the ratepayers or other like class of electors;' and to make further and other provisions with respect to the election of the existing Trustees; and to provide that the same shall be regulated in the manner prescribed by law for the election of Town Councillors in Burghs in Scotland, and shall proceed and be regulated by and under the Act 3 and 4 William IV., chapter 77, intituled 'An Act to provide for the appointment and election of Magistrates and Councillors for the several Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return or contribute to return Members to Parliament and are not Royal Burghs;' and the Act 31 and 32 Victoria, chapter 108, intituled 'The Municipal Elections Amendment (Scotland) Act, 1868,' 'The Municipal Elections Amendment (Scotland) Act, 1870,' and the Act 35 and 36 Victoria, chapter 33, intituled 'The Ballot Act, 1872,' or otherwise, as the Bill may provide.

To repeal, alter, or amend section 9 of the Act of 1875, and by the incorporation of the necessary sections of 'The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862,' or by special enactments in the Bill, to authorise and empower the existing Trustees to assess and levy on the owners of the lands, houses, property, and premises within the town of Borrowstounness, as defined in the Act of 1875, rates and assessments for the maintenance and repair of the foot pavements of streets within the town; and to make regulations and confer powers on the existing Trustees with reference to the maintenance and repair of such foot pavements.

To authorise the existing Trustees to appoint and regulate constables and police officers within the town, and to defray the expenses thereof by the police rates they are at present authorised to levy.

To authorise and empower the existing Trustees to assess and levy further new or additional rates and assessments on the occupiers of all lands, houses, property, and premises within the town of Borrowstounness; and to apply the said rates and assessments towards the expenses of the water supply the Commissioners are authorised to supply, and the cost of constructing and maintaining the works necessary therefor, and the supply of water therefrom, and for that purpose to increase and alter the maximum amount of police assessments the existing Trustees are authorised to assess and levy under section 84 of 'The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862,' and to that extent to amend the said section of the said Act; and to incorporate with the Bill, with or without alteration, all or some of the powers and provisions of 'The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847;' and to make such other provisions with respect to the waterworks and water supply of the Trustees as the Bill will define.

To create or provide for the creation of a new and separate body of Commissioners (who in this Notice are referred to as the Harbour Commissioners), to be nominated, elected, or appointed, or to be partly nominated, partly elected, and partly appointed, in such manner as the Bill may provide; and to fix and define the qualification of persons eligible to be nominated, elected, or appointed Harbour Commissioners, and the parties (and their qualifications), corporations, or local authorities, and others, by whom such nominations, elections, or appointments shall be made; and to provide for the rotation or retirement of the Commissioners, and for the nomination, election, or appointment of their successors; and to incorporate the Harbour Commissioners, with powers to sue and be sued, and to take, hold, and dispose of lands and other property, and all other powers usually conferred on a body corporate, and as the Bill may provide.

To vest in, or transfer to, or to authorise and provide for the vesting in or transference to the Harbour Commissioners of the undertakings, lands, buildings, works, real, personal, and moveable estate and property, and the superintendence, maintenance, and management of the harbour, dock, and piers of Borrowstounness now vested in and exercisable by the existing Trustees under the Act of 1875, together with all their jurisdiction, rights, powers, privileges, liabilities, duties, and obligations, and the execution of the other objects and provisions of the Act of 1875, so far as relates to the said Harbour, dock, and piers, and to the works connected therewith authorised by the Act of 1875, as fully as if the Harbour Commissioners, instead of the existing Trustees, had been the parties under the Act of 1875 in whom the harbour, dock, and piers of Borrowstounness had been vested, and authorised to execute the powers of the said Act, in so far as it relates to the said harbour, dock, piers, and works; and to confer on the Harbour Commissioners all the powers vested by the Act of 1875 in the existing Trustees, and all other needful powers as may be defined in the Bill or as Parliament may prescribe.

To authorise the Harbour Commissioners to levy and collect the tolls, rates, dues, duties, and other charges on shipping, and on goods, merchandise, animals, and persons at, upon, or in respect as well of the existing harbour, dock, piers, and works, as of the piers, dock, and other works and conveniences authorised by the Act of 1875, or to levy and collect other altered or reduced or increased tolls, rates, dues, duties, and charges; and to confer exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, dues, duties, and charges; and to confer, vary, alter, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To authorise the Harbour Commissioners to exercise the borrowing powers conferred on the existing Trustees under the Act of 1875 for harbour and dock purposes, and in addition to the monies authorised to be borrowed under that Act, to borrow, and from time to time to re-borrow, money on the security of the tolls, rates, dues, duties, and other charges, and on the security of the harbour undertaking, dock, piers, and other property to be vested in or which may be acquired or constructed by them, and in such way and manner, whether by mortgage, cash-credit, or otherwise, as shall be deemed expedient, or as the Bill may provide; and to provide for a sinking fund for discharging and paying off the money so to be borrowed.

To authorise the North British Railway Company (in this Notice referred to as the Company), and also any parties or traders or associations of traders interested in the trade and commerce of Borrowstounness, to subscribe or to advance money on loan to the Harbour Commissioners upon the same security as the existing Trustees may borrow money for the purposes of the Harbour undertaking, or upon any other terms or security which may be agreed upon between the Company and said parties or traders, or either of them, and the said Harbour Commissioners, or to guarantee the payment of interest or monies borrowed by the Harbour Commissioners from other parties; and to authorise agreements between the Company and the said Harbour Commissioners and traders or parties, or either of them, with respect to such advances, loans, or guarantees; and to confirm any agreements already made, or which, previous to the passing of the Bill, may be made in relation to any of the matters hereinbefore specified; and to provide for the Company and such traders or parties nominating, electing, and appointing members of the Harbour Commission; or otherwise to provide by enactments in the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid, or any of them; and to confer upon the Company, traders, or other parties, or the Harbour Commissioners, such other powers, rights, and privileges as may be deemed expedient, or as the Bill may provide.

To authorise the North British Railway Company to raise more money for the purpose of any advances they may make for or in connection with the said Harbour and Dock, either by the creation of ordinary or preference shares or stock mortgages or debenture stock, or otherwise by mortgage of the interest or other annual payment to be made to that Company in respect of all or any such advances.

To make provision for payment of the costs of the Bill out of the revenues or property of the existing Trustees, or out of the assessments, rates, revenues, or loans to be created or to arise under the Bill.

The Bill will vary, alter, or extinguish or modify all rights, powers, privileges, and jurisdictions inconsistent with all or any of the objects of the Bill, and will confer other rights and privileges, and will incorporate with itself the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the following Acts, or either of them, viz.:—'The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847,' and 'The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847.'

And it is proposed by the Bill to repeal, alter, or amend certain of the provisions of 'The North British, Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee, and West of Fife Railways Amalgamation Act, 1862,' and of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them relating to the North British Railway Company, and the undertakings belonging to, amalgamated with, or held on lease by or vested or worked or used by that Company, that is to say, Acts passed in the sessions of Parliament held respectively in the 49th, the 54th, the 57th, and the 59th years of the reign of King George the Third; the 1st and 2d, the 4th, the 5th, the 7th, the 10th, and the 11th years of the reign of King George the Fourth; the 1st, 3d and 4th, 4th and 5th, 5th and 6th, 6th and 7th, and the 7th years of the reign of King William the Fourth; the 2d and 3d, the 4th and 5th, the 6th and 7th, the 7th and 8th, the 8th and 9th, the 9th, the 9th and 10th, the 10th and 11th, the 11th and 12th (and the several Acts therein recited so far as not repealed thereby), the 12th, the 12th and 13th, the 14th, the 14th and 15th, the 15th, the 15th and 16th, the 16th, the 16th and 17th, the 17th, the 17th and 18th, the 18th and 19th, the 19th and 20th, the 20th and 21st, the 21st and 22d, the 22d and 23d, the 23d and 24th, the 24th and 25th, the 25th, the 25th and 26th, the 26th and 27th, the 27th and 28th, the 28th and 29th, the 29th and 30th, the 30th and 31st, the 31st and 32d, the 32d and 33d, the 33d and 34th, the 34th and 35th, the 35th and 36th, the 36th and 37th, the 37th and 38th, the 38th and 39th, the 39th and 40th, and the 40th and 41st years of the reign of Her present Majesty; 'The Kelvin Valley Railway Act, 1873,' 'The Kelvin Valley Railway Act, 1877,' 'The North British, Arbroath, and Montrose Railway Acts, 1871, 1872, 1874, and 1877;' 'The Newport Railway Acts, 1866, 1867, 1870, and 1873;' and 'The Leven Harbour Act, 1876,' and any other Act or Acts of Parliament recited in any of the before-mentioned Acts, or relating to or affecting the Company, or any other company or body who, or whose property and interests, may be affected by any of the powers or provisions of the intended Act.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December 1877.

Dated this 8th day of November 1877.

LOCHMADDY PIER AND HARBOUR.

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

(Power to Construct a Pier or Quay; Power to Levy Tolls, Rates, or Duties; to Borrow Money; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations (hereinafter called the Board of Trade), by a Memorial to be deposited, on or before the 22d day of December next, by Sir John Powlett Orde of Kilmory and North Uist, Baronet, and John William Powlett Orde, son of the said Sir John Powlett Orde, and presently residing at Auchnaba House, Lochgilphead, in the County of Argyll (the former being vested in the liferent, and the latter in the fee of the Estate of North Uist, whereon the proposed Works are to be situated), hereinafter called 'the Promoters,' praying for a Provisional Order, pursuant to the provisions of 'The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861,' and 'The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act,' for all or some of the following among other powers and purposes (that is to say):—

The Construction of a Wharf or Quay on the site of the present Pier of Lochmaddy, commencing at a point about five feet to the westward of the western end of the Crosshead of the said Pier, and extending in an easterly direction a distance of 75 feet or thereby to a point 29 feet or thereby to the eastward of the eastern end of the said Crosshead, and there terminating. The Construction of a Retaining Wall, commencing at the western end of the said proposed Wharf or Quay, and extending in a northerly direction a distance of 37 feet or thereby, and terminating at a point 20 feet or thereby from the southern end of the existing building called the Large Store. The Construction of a Retaining Wall, commencing at the eastern end of the proposed Wharf or Quay, and extending in a northerly direction a distance of 94 feet or thereby, till it meets the sea wall of the main road near the existing building called the Eastern Store. The space to be enclosed by the said Wharf or Quay, and the said two Retaining Walls to be filled up with hearting to the level or thereby of the adjoining road.

The said Works will be situated within the Parish of North Uist, Island of North Uist, and County of Inverness, and on the lands of the said Sir John Powlett Orde and John William Powlett Orde, and foreshore and sea adjacent.

To make and maintain in connection with the said Works all necessary bulwarks, embankments, walls, jetties, roads, sheds, approaches, stairs, cranes, mooring-buoys, lights, and other works and conveniences at and connected with the said proposed new works, and to cross, alter, stop up, or divert temporarily or permanently, or otherwise interfere with foreshores, roads, streets, lanes, passages, sewers, drains, streams, water-courses, channels, conduits, and gas and water and other pipes, and all other works which it may be necessary to interfere with in the construction of the said intended Works, or any of them; and to alter, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with or prevent the objects and purposes of the proposed Order, to deviate laterally from the lines of the said intended Works to the extent shown on the plans, and also to deviate vertically from the levels shown on the sections deposited with reference to the Order, to such extent as may be provided by the Order.

To levy tolls, rates, duties, and charges on vessels, boats, and other craft entering and using and anchoring within the limits of the said Harbour, and on passengers, animals, fish, and goods landed and shipped or unshipped therein, or at the said Harbour and Works and Quays, works and conveniences connected therewith, to make provision for the collection and regulation of the same; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, duties, and charges, and other rights and privileges.

To lease or compound the said tolls, rates, duties, and charges, or any of them, in such manner and for such period as may be specified in the said Provisional Order, and to provide for the application of the revenues of the intended Harbour.

To borrow money for the purposes of the said proposed Works and of the said Provisional Order on the security of the said intended Harbour and Works and the lands and other property connected therewith, and the Works to be constructed thereon, and of the tolls, rates, duties, and charges authorised to be levied by the said Provisional Order.

To authorise the promoters and their successors to carry the said Provisional Order into effect, to confer on them all powers, rights, privileges, and authorities which may be necessary for that purpose, and to provide for the management and administration of the said intended Harbour and Works, and of all matters relating thereto respectively, and to take the necessary powers for maintenance and regulation of the Harbour, Pier or Quay, and Works.

To constitute the promoters and their successors as the Harbour Authorities and the proper Pilotage Authorities for the said intended Harbour, and to fix the limits thereof; and to grant all the powers and privileges authorised by 'The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854,' 'The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855,' 'The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862,' and 'The Merchant Shipping Act, 1876.' To make all and such other provisions as may be suitable to carry into effect the objects of the said application.

A copy of this advertisement, with a plan and section of the said proposed Works, will, on or before the 30th day of November 1877, be deposited for public inspection in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, in the Offices at Inverness and Lochmaddy of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Inverness, in the Customhouse at Stornoway, and in the Office of the Board of Trade, London.

Printed copies of the Draft Provisional Order will be furnished by the Agents for the promoters, at their Offices, as under, to all persons applying for the same, on and after the 22d day of December 1877, at the price of one shilling each.

Dated this 12th day of November 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, for leave to bring in a Bill to effect the following, or some of the following, among other objects, powers, and purposes:—

1. To repeal, in whole or in part, alter, or amend, or to consolidate, with or without alterations or amendments, all or some of the powers and provisions of 'The Glasgow Public Parks Act, 1859' (in this Notice afterwards referred to as the Act of 1859), and to make further and other provisions in addition to or in lieu thereof, and to confer further other and additional powers and authorities on the Magistrates and Council of the City of Glasgow, with reference to the Public Parks, Buildings, Pictures, and Works of Art referred to in the Act of 1859; and to authorise the said Magistrates and Council to acquire additional lands for all or any of the purposes specified in the Act of 1859, or for the purposes hereinafter specified or to be specified in the Bill, and to make and maintain additional parks, recreation grounds, museums, and open spaces for the recreation, use, and benefit of the public.

2. To authorise the said Magistrates and Council to purchase and take, compulsorily or by agreement, and to enter upon, hold, and use the lands and heritages hereinafter described, and all houses, hereditaments, and other property thereon, or any part thereof (that is to say), certain lands, houses, and other property situated in the Parish and Police Burgh of Maryhill and County of Lanark, lying between and in an area bounded by a line commencing on the west side of the road leading from the Forth and Clyde Canal to the Farm of Firhill, at a point where the same is intersected by the northern boundary of the property feued by the Trustees of the late James Davidson, Esquire of Ruchill, to Moses Hunter & Co., and proceeding thence westward for a distance of 828 feet or thereby, along the said boundary till it meets the eastern side of a new road laid out and partly made between the property of the Trustees of the said James Davidson and his feuars and to lead from the Firhill Road to the approach to Ruchill House; thence northward following the curve of the eastern side of the said proposed road for a distance of 1167 feet or thereby, till it meets the fence forming the southern boundary of the fields or ground marked 612 and 613 on the Ordnance Survey Map, and feued or about to be feued by the Trustees of the said James Davidson to Alexander Robertson, Robert M'Kellar and others; thence eastward and northward along the southern and eastern boundaries of the said ground feued or about to be feued by the Trustees of the said James Davidson to the said Alexander Robertson, Robert M'Kellar and others, till it meets the fence on the south side of the road leading to Ruchill Offices; thence eastward along the said fence and the fence forming the south boundary of the gardens adjoining the said offices, and the south boundary of other ground feued or about to be feued by the Trustees of the said James Davidson to the said Alexander Robertson, Robert M'Kellar and others, to the Possil Burn; thence southward along the fence forming the western boundary of other ground feued or about to be feued by the Trustees of the said James Davidson to the said Alexander Robertson, Robert M'Kellar and others, till it meets the northern boundary of the lands of Possil; thence westward and southward along the northern and western boundaries of the lands of Possil till it meets the northern boundary of property feued by the Trustees of the said James Davidson to Alexander M'Neil and others; thence westward along the said last-mentioned boundary and across Firhill Road to the point from which it commenced; and to empower the owners of the said lands and heritages to be acquired, and the persons interested therein, whether Corporations, or holding under entail, or under any legal disability or not, to sell and convey the same.

3. To authorise the said Magistrates and Council to purchase and acquire by agreement other lands and heritages to be held and used by them for the purposes of the Bill, and also to authorise the said Magistrates and Council to take over and maintain as open spaces such other portions of ground as may be granted or given to them for that purpose; and to authorise the said Magistrates and Council to enter into agreements with the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, or any other body or persons interested, for the taking over, laying out, and maintaining, under the Bill, with a view to the amenity and sanitary improvement of the city, of such churchyards within the city as have been or may hereafter be closed, under the provisions of 'The Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.'

4. To authorise the said Magistrates and Council to enlarge and improve the Kelvingrove Museum now belonging to them, and to erect new and additional Buildings for a Museum or Museums, and collections of Natural History, Science, and

Art, and to fit up, furnish, and supply the same respectively.

5. To authorise the said Magistrates and Council to maintain as a Public Park and Recreation Ground the Park conveyed to them under the powers of 'The Glasgow Improvements Act, 1866;' and to make such other provisions with respect to the said Park as the Bill may provide.

6. To authorise and empower the said Magistrates and Council and the Glasgow Botanic Institution, incorporated under Royal Charter granted by his late Majesty King George the Third, dated the 20th day of September 1818, and written to the seal, registered, and sealed the 12th day of October 1818, to enter into agreements for the transfer to and acquisition by the said Magistrates and Council of the lands and heritages situated in the Parish of Govan or Combination Parish of Govan and County of Lanark, known as and called the Royal Botanic Gardens, together with all right, title, and interest therein, or connected therewith, and all other property, rights, titles, and effects, real and personal, belonging to the said Glasgow Botanic Institution; or to authorise agreements between the said Magistrates and Council and the Glasgow Botanic Institution for the future maintenance and management of the said Royal Botanic Gardens, and the utilization thereof for the benefit of the inhabitants of the City of Glasgow; or to authorise the said Magistrates and Council, out of the rates to be levied under the Bill, to advance and lend to the said Royal Botanic Institution such sum or sums as may be agreed upon for the more efficient maintenance of the said Royal Botanic Gardens for the use and benefit of the public; and to authorise the said Glasgow Botanic Institution to grant valid and effectual mortgages or bonds in favour of the Corporation for such advances, and for any advances made or money already lent by the said Magistrates and Council to the said Glasgow Botanic Institution, or any of the Directors thereof; and if the said Royal Botanic Gardens are acquired by the said Magistrates and Council, to authorise and empower them to uphold and maintain the same as one of the public parks of the city, and to make bye-laws and regulations for the proper regulation thereof; and to confirm any agreements which previous to the passing of the Bill may be entered into between the said Magistrates and Council and the said Glasgow Botanic Institution; and to alter, repeal, or amend all or some of the provisions of the said Royal Charter; or to make such other provisions in reference thereto as the Bill may provide or Parliament direct.

7. To authorise the said Magistrates and Council to enter into agreements with the various feuars and inhabitants of Bridgeton, in the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, or with any committee representing their interests, with reference to the money received by the said feuars in respect of the taking of, or interference by the Glasgow Improvement Trustees with, the bleaching green or ground in Bridgeton; and to authorise the said Magistrates and Council to uplift the money now deposited in the Clydesdale Bank at Glasgow (Calton and Bridgeton branch), or to authorise the upliftment and payment thereof to the Magistrates and Council, and to authorise the Magistrates and Council to apply the same towards the erection and maintenance of Museums or Buildings, Galleries of Art, collections of Natural History, Science, and Art, or other Buildings, in Bridgeton or its neighbourhood.

8. To authorise the said Magistrates and Council to make, lay out, and maintain public parks, pleasure and recreation grounds, and approaches thereto, and works, museums, buildings, and conveniences connected therewith, for the use, recreation, amusement, and enjoyment of the public on all or any portion of the lands now belonging, or which may be acquired by them under the Bill, as they may think fit, and to sell, lease, feu, or convey such portions of the remainder thereof which may not be necessary for such purposes, for such prices, feu-duties, or ground-annuals, or other consideration as can be obtained for the same.

9. To make applicable to the lands to be acquired, and to the additional parks or park or pleasure grounds, open spaces, and buildings, to be made and maintained under the Bill, all or some of the powers and provisions conferred on the Magistrates and Council by the Act of 1859, with reference to the parks and buildings therein referred to, in the same manner and to the like effect as if the lands to be acquired, and parks, pleasure grounds, open spaces, and buildings to be made and maintained under the powers of the Bill had been acquired, and the additional parks or park, pleasure grounds, and buildings to be authorised by the Bill had been laid out by the Magistrates and Council prior to the passing of the Act of 1859, or to repeal, alter, or amend all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1859, and to make new, additional, or amended provisions with reference to the making, laying out, maintaining, and managing of all or any of the various parks, pleasure grounds, open spaces, museums, buildings, and galleries which now are, or may under the provisions of the Bill belong to, and be authorised to be made, laid out, maintained, managed, and regulated by the said Magistrates and Council.

10. To authorise the said Magistrates and Council to apply the rates authorised to be levied, and the money authorised to be borrowed and raised under the Act of 1859, to the purposes of the Bill as well as to the purposes of the Act of 1859, or to authorise the Magistrates and Council to assess and levy further new and additional or special rates and assessments for the several objects of the Act of 1859 and of the Bill, on and from the occupiers of lands, buildings, and other heritages situated within the limits of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, as defined by 'The Glasgow Municipal Act, 1872;' and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such new and additional or special rates and assessments.

11. To authorise and empower the said Magistrates and Council, in addition to the moneys they are already authorised to borrow under the Act of 1859, to borrow, and from time to time to re-borrow, moneys for the purposes of the Act of 1859 and of the Bill, or either of them, on mortgage, bond, annuity, cash credit, or otherwise, and to apply such additional moneys for the purposes of the Act of 1859 and of the Bill, or either of them, and to charge the moneys borrowed on the credit and security of the rates, revenues, and assessments which they now are, under the Act of 1859, or may, under the Bill, be entitled to assess, levy, collect, and recover, and on the lands, houses, and property, or on the rents or revenues issuing out of or from any lands, houses, and property for the time being held or possessed by them under the Act of 1859 or the Bill, or on any interest therein, or by any one or more of these means.

12. To make provision for the repayment of the moneys already borrowed or to be hereafter borrowed by the said Magistrates and Council for any of the purposes or objects of the Act of 1859 or of the Bill; to create a new sinking fund or sinking funds with reference to the moneys borrowed under the Act of 1859 and the moneys to be borrowed under the Bill, and to fix the amounts or amount thereof, and the respective applications thereof, and to repeal or alter the provisions of the Act of 1859 with reference to the sinking fund thereby provided and the repayment of the moneys already borrowed by the said Magistrates and Council, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof.

13. The Bill will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would in any way interfere with any of its objects, and will confer other rights and privileges, and it will incorporate with itself, with or without alteration or modification, all or some of the clauses and provisions of 'The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845,' 'The Lands Clauses Consolidation Amendment Act, 1860,' and 'The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847.'

Duplicate plans of the lands, houses, and other property which will or may be compulsorily taken under the powers of the Bill, with a Book of Reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees or the reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November 1877, be deposited for public inspection with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Lanark, at his Office in Glasgow, and on or before the same day a copy of the said plan and Book of Reference and a copy of this Notice will be deposited for public inspection with the Session-Clerk of the Parish of Maryhill, in which the lands, houses, and property which will or may be taken are situate, at the usual place of abode of such Session-Clerk.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December 1877.

Dated this 10th day of November 1877.

GLASGOW HOUSES OF REFUGE AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS AND JUVENILE DELINQUENCY REPRESSION ACTS.

Repeal, Alteration, Amendment, or Consolidation of 4 and 5 Victoria, cap. 36, entitled 'An Act for Repressing Juvenile Delinquency in the City of Glasgow,' 'The Glasgow Juvenile Delinquency Repression Act, 1866,' 'The Glasgow Juvenile Delinquency Repression Acts Amendment Act, 1870,' and 'The Glasgow Juvenile Delinquency Repression Acts Amendment Act, 1877;' Alteration of Constitution of Commissioners acting under these Acts or Dissolution of Commissioners; Appointment and Incorporation of two new Boards, hereinafter respectively referred to as the Board and the Directors; Transference to the Directors of Property, &c., of existing Commissioners, and of the Glasgow Industrial Schools; Powers of Directors to Sell and Dispose of Property; Power to Board to Assess and Levy Rates, &c., and to Borrow Money; Application of Capital and Revenue of Property to be vested in Directors, and Proceeds of Assessment to be paid over to them for Maintenance and Management of Protestant Reformatories, Houses of Refuge, and Industrial Schools, and their Powers with reference thereto; Application of Rates and Assessments for Protestant and other Reformatories, Houses of Refuge, Industrial Schools, and Training Ships, and Powers of the Board with reference thereto; Costs of Act, Incorporation of Acts, Amendment of Acts, and other Purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other objects, powers, and purposes (that is to say):—

1. To repeal or alter and amend, in whole or in part, or to consolidate as so altered or amended, with such new or additional powers and provisions as may be necessary or expedient, all or some of the provisions of the following local and personal Acts, or some or one of them, that is to say, the 4th and 5th Victoria, cap. 36, entitled 'An Act for Repressing Juvenile Delinquency in the City of Glasgow;' 'The Glasgow Juvenile Delinquency Repression Act, 1866' (in this Notice hereinafter referred to as the Act of 1866); 'The Glasgow Juvenile Delinquency Repression Acts Amendment Act, 1870;' and 'The Glasgow Juvenile Delinquency Repression Acts Amendment Act, 1877;' and which several Acts are hereinafter in this Notice collectively called the existing Acts; and to make further new and additional provisions with reference to the Reformatories, Houses of Refuge, and Industrial Schools and similar Institutions within the City of Glasgow, and for the Prevention and Repression of Juvenile Delinquency in the said City.

2. To alter or amend the Constitution of 'The Commissioners for the Repression of Juvenile Delinquency in the City of Glasgow' (in this Notice hereinafter called the existing Commissioners), as constituted and appointed under the Act of 1866, or to dissolve the existing Commissioners, and to provide for winding-up the affairs of the existing Commissioners.

3. To elect, nominate, or appoint and incorporate, or to provide for the election, nomination, or appointment and incorporation, by the Corporations, bodies, or persons in whom such election, nomination, or appointment and incorporation shall be vested, of—First, a Board of Commissioners to be called 'The Board of Commissioners for the Repression of Juvenile Delinquency in the City of Glasgow,' hereinafter called 'The Board;' and Second, of another Board to be called 'The Directors of the Glasgow Houses of Refuge and Reformatory and Industrial Schools,' hereinafter called 'The Directors,' or under such other names or name, titles or title as the Bill may provide or Parliament may direct; and to confer on and vest in the Board and in the Directors all or some of the powers, rights, and privileges now vested in and exercisable by the existing Commissioners under the existing Acts, and further additional powers, rights, and privileges as the Bill may provide or Parliament may direct.

4. To authorise and require the existing Commissioners and also the Directors for the time being or Trustees of the following Glasgow Industrial Schools—that is to say, The Boys' Industrial School, Mossbank, and The Girls' Industrial School, Rottenrow, and all others, if any, having an interest therein, to transfer, convey, and make over to and in favour of the Directors all the property, funds, and effects, both heritable and moveable, real and personal, which at the passing of the Act, or at such other time as may be therein fixed, may belong to or be vested in them or any of them, and all their right, title, and interest therein, or to provide for the transference to and vesting in the Directors of all such property, funds, and effects, and which property, funds, and effects are in this Notice hereinafter called the 'Realized Property,' and to impose on the Directors the fulfilment, performance, and satisfaction of the whole obligations, as at that date, of the existing Commissioners and of the Directors of said schools.

5. To authorise the Directors to hold and possess the realized property, or to sell, feu, or otherwise dispose of all or any portion thereof in such manner and at such times and for such prices or considerations as they may think proper, and, from time to time, to lay out and invest the proceeds thereof and any other funds for the time being in their hands, on such security or securities as they may think expedient, and to apply the rents, profits, and annual proceeds of the same for the purposes aftermentioned.

6. To authorise and empower the Board to assess and levy rates or assessments for the purposes of the Bill on and from the tenants and occupiers of all lands, buildings, and other heritages within the limits of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, as defined by the Glasgow Municipal Act, 1872; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such rates or assessments.

7. To authorise and empower the Board to borrow, and from time to time to reborrow, money for the purposes of the Bill, on mortgage, bond, annuity, cash-credit, or otherwise, and to charge moneys borrowed on the rates and assessments to be authorised to be assessed, levied, and charged by them under the said Bill, and to make provision for the repayment of all moneys so borrowed, to create a sinking fund or sinking funds, and to fix the amount or amounts thereof, and to make other provisions with reference to the borrowing powers of the Board.

8. To authorise the Directors to apply the annual income of the realized property towards the maintenance and management of all or any of the various Protestant Reformatories, Houses of Refuge, and Industrial Schools, under their management, which now are or may from time to time be established in the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, and which Reformatories and Industrial Schools are at the time duly certified by one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State under the provisions of 'The Reformatory Schools Act, 1866,' or 'The Industrial Schools Act, 1866,' or of any subsequent Acts relating to Reformatory or Industrial Schools, or of any public Act or Acts which may be passed for amending these Acts, or any of them; and which Reformatories, Houses of Refuge, and Industrial Schools are hereinafter collectively referred to as the Protestant Institutions.

9. To authorise and empower the Directors at their discretion from time to time to advance and pay out of the capital of the realized property such sum or sums as they may think proper for the purchase of property for the purposes of the Protestant Institutions, or the erection of new and additional, or the repair or alteration of any existing schools or buildings for the use of the Protestant Institutions or in connection therewith.

10. To authorise and empower the Board to pay over out of the annual proceeds of the rates and assessments to be assessed and levied by the Board under the powers of the Bill, at such time or times as they may think fit, such sum or sums as may be necessary, along with the income received from the realized property, for the maintenance and management of the Protestant Institutions, and after making such payments, such proportion of the remainder of the said rates and assessments as they may also from time to time deem expedient, or such minimum sum as may be fixed by the Bill, to the Managers or Executive Committee of any other Reformatory or Industrial School established or to be established within the City or Royalty of Glasgow, or within such area as may be fixed by the Bill, or in any Training Ship moored in the River or Firth of Clyde, or in any Loch adjacent thereto, and all duly certified as aforesaid, for the maintenance and management of such Institutions, or to make such other provisions with reference to the application of the said realized funds and produce thereof, and of the rates and assessments as the Bill may provide or Parliament may sanction.

11. To provide that no portion of the said rates and assessments shall be applied except for the benefit of young persons who may have been resident within the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow for such time as the Bill may appoint.

12. To authorise the Board, out of the said rates and assessments, or out of any moneys to be borrowed by them, in their discretion, to give, by way of grant or loan, to the Protestant Institutions, Training Ships, Roman Catholic Institutions, or any of them, such sum or sums for the purchase or erection of additional, or the repair or alteration of existing schools or premises, or the furnishing and equipment thereof, on such terms and conditions and on such security or securities as the Board may think expedient.

13. To provide for the payment out of the rates and assessments to be levied, or the money to be borrowed under the Bill, of all costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, and passing of the Bill.

14. To vary and extinguish all existing rights, powers, and privileges which would or might in any respect interfere with or prevent the execution of any of the purposes or provisions of the Bill; and to confer all such other rights, powers, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for carrying the same into effect.

15. To incorporate and make applicable to the said Bill and to the said Board and Directors, or either of them, with such alterations as may be deemed expedient, all or some of the provisions of 'The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847,' or to make other provision with reference thereto, and to make provisions as to the officers to be employed in carrying out the objects of the Bill.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 15th day of November 1877.

ROYAL BANK OF SCOTLAND OFFICERS WIDOWS FUND.

(Amendment of Act with Respect to the Admission of Contributors and the Amount of their Contributions, and the Time of Holding Annual General Meetings; Power to Increase Annuities, and Alter Contributions; other Purposes.)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting the following purposes, or some of them, that is to say:—

To alter and amend the provisions of 'The Royal Bank of Scotland Officers Widows Fund Act, 1870' (hereinafter called 'The Act of 1870'), with respect to the admission of Contributors to the Fund thereby constituted, and to the amount of the contributions payable by such Contributors, and to repeal, so far as may be necessary, all or any of such provisions, and to make new and extended provisions with respect to the matters aforesaid, and particularly for the admission as Contributors to the said Fund of persons employed or to be employed in the business of the Royal Bank of Scotland in whatever capacity, either at their head office in Edinburgh or at any of their branch offices or sub-offices, on such terms and conditions, and subject to such regulations, as are specified in the Act of 1870, or as may be specified or provided for in the Bill, and to fix and regulate the annual sums or contributions to be paid by Contributors to the said Fund on their admission, and on their changing from a lower to a higher class of Contributors, in manner provided by the Act of 1870, or to be provided by the Bill.

To provide for the holding of an Annual General Meeting of the Contributors to the said Fund on the first Monday of July in every year, or such other day as may be fixed by the Bill, instead of the first Monday of February in every year as provided by the Act of 1870.

To empower the Contributors to the said Fund in General Meeting assembled from time to time to make additions to the annuities charged on the said Fund, or which may be payable, according to the rules of the Fund, for the time, and to make alterations in the contributions payable by Contributors to the said Fund, in such manner and to such extent as may be determined at any such General Meeting, or as may be defined or otherwise provided for in the Bill.

To vary or extinguish all rights or privileges which would interfere with or prevent the execution of the purposes of the Bill, and to confer all such powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for carrying such purposes into effect.

Copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December 1877.

Dated this tenth day of November 1877.
