A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

Whereas, by the Reserve Force Act, 1867, as amended by the Army Enlistment Act, 1870, it is amongst other things enacted that, in case of imminent national danger, or of great emergency, the occasion being first communicated to Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, or declared by Proclamation, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Proclamation to direct that the Reserve Force, or such part thereof as Her Majesty may think fit, may be called out on permanent service, and that upon the issuing of any such Proclamation the men in Class I. of the Reserve Force, or those of them to whom such Proclamation applies, shall become subject to general service with Her Majesty's Army. And the said force, or such part thereof as may be so called out, shall serve in pursuance of such Proclamation until it be signified to them by Her Majesty's command that their services are no longer required; but so, nevertheless, that the services of men so called out shall not be required under such Proclamation beyond six months after peace has been next proclaimed:

And whereas the present state of public affairs in the East, and the necessity in connection therewith of taking steps for the maintenance of Peace and for the protection of the interests of the Empire, have in Our opinion constituted a case of great emergency within the meaning of the said Acts, and We have communicated the same to Parliament:

Now, therefore, We do, in pursuance of the said Acts, hereby direct, that on the 3d day of April 1878, Class I. of the Reserve Force shall be called out on permanent service, and that the men thereof shall, on or before the nineteenth day of April 1878, proceed to, and attend at, the places which may be respectively appointed by Our Secretary of State, to serve as part of our Army until their services are no longer required.

And We do hereby direct the Right Honourable Frederick Arthur Stanley, one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, to give all necessary directions herein accordingly.
