Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1878.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 'Burial-Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a county of Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received, in pursuance thereof, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in such Order, burials within certain limits, or in certain burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff Clerk of the county in which such burial-ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered:

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of the county of Wigton, finding proved certain of the allegations contained in a Petition of two members of the Parochial Board of the parish of Portpatrick, viz.:—That the burial-ground of the parish of Portpatrick is overcrowded with human remains by continued and repeated interments in the same ground to an extent contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said representation it is recommended that, from the time when a new burial-ground is opened, burials in the said burial-ground of the parish of Portpatrick should be discontinued, subject to the qualification and exceptions—(1) Of heads of families at present living who have a right of burial-place in the existing old churchyard; (2) unmarried persons now living who have a right to any burying-ground belonging to their parents; (3) persons claiming such a right of interment, and receiving licence therefor from one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, under Section 8 of the 'Burial-Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855:'

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from the time when a new burial-ground be opened, burials be discontinued in the burial-ground of the parish of Portpatrick, in the county of Wigtown, subject to the qualification and exceptions—(1) Of heads of families at present living who have a right of burial-place in the existing old churchyard; (2) of unmarried persons now living who have a right to any burying-ground belonging to their parents; (3) of persons claiming such a right of interment, and receiving licence therefor from one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, under Section 8 of the 'Burial-Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855.'

BOARD OF TRADE, WHITEHALL GARDENS,
November 29, 1878.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the Albert Medal of the Second Class on—

ANTHONY GERRIGHTY, Private, Royal Marines.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which this decoration has been conferred :—

On the night of the 27th July last, at 10 P.M., a lunatic named Field, on his passage home in the transport ship 'Baron Colonsay,' of Greenock, broke away from the sentry in the sick berth and climbed to the fore topgallant-yard. Men were sent aloft to try and prevent his falling, but on their approach he struck one of them on the head. After remaining aloft all night calling 'murder,' &c., he came down about 5 A.M., on the 28th. The sentries that were placed to watch him then tried to secure him, but he jumped overboard. GERRIGHTY instantly jumped after him, and though struck at with a knife which Field had in his hand, succeeded in rescuing him.

This occurrence took place in latitude 36° 26' N., longitude 2° 52' W., the ship going eight knots and a fresh breeze blowing.

'THE DUNDEE TRAMWAYS ACT, 1872,' AND 'THE 'DUNDEE STREET TRAMWAYS, TURNPIKE ROADS, AND POLICE ACT, 1878.'

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dundee, as Commissioners of Police for the Burgh of Dundee, and as such the Local Authority of the District, did, on the 16th day of November, 1878 years, in terms of the powers conferred upon them by 'The Dundee Tramways Act, 1872' (the said Commissioners having been duly substituted in place of the Company incorporated by said Act), and 'The Dundee Street Tramways, Turnpike Roads, and Police Act, 1878,' and Acts thereby incorporated and in virtue thereof, and of all other Statutory powers vested in them, make and enact the following Bye-Laws and Regulations for regulating the rate of speed to be observed in travelling upon the Tramways; the distances at which Carriages using the Tramways shall be allowed to follow one after the other; the stopping of Carriages using the Tramways; and the Traffic on the Roads in which the Tramways are laid; and for other purposes; and fixed and appointed that the same shall come into operation on the Third day of February, Eighteen Hundred and Seventy-nine, viz. :—

Bye-Laws and Regulations made by the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dundee, as the Commissioners of Police for the Burgh of Dundee, and as such the Local Authority of the District, under 'The Dundee 'Tramways Act, 1872,' and 'The Dundee 'Street Tramways, Turnpike Roads, and 'Police Act, 1878,' and Acts thereby incorporated, for Regulating the rate of speed to be observed in travelling upon the Tramways; the distances at which Carriages using the Tramways shall be allowed to follow one after the other; the stopping of Carriages using the Tramways; and the Traffic on the Roads in which the Tramways are laid; and for other purposes.

First. No Tramway Car or Tramway Carriage (afterwards in these Bye-Laws called 'Car') shall travel at a greater or higher rate of speed than eight miles an hour.

Second. No Car shall follow any other Car on the same line of rails at a nearer distance than 50 yards.

Third. Every Driver and Conductor of any Car shall stop for the purpose of taking up or setting down passengers in the course of its journey, whenever required by any passenger or person desiring to enter or leave any Car, as well as at the Stances allotted to it by the Magistrates, but no Car shall stop at or within ten yards on either side of any crossing from one line of Tramway to another line of Tramway, or at or within ten yards of any crossing over any Street, or on the incline of the Perth Road between opposite the junction of Tay Street with the Perth Road and opposite the junction of Small's Wynd with the Perth Road.

Fourth. All carts, carriages, or other vehicles travelling or being driven on or over or standing on any part of any road in which the Tramways or any of them are laid shall, on any Car approaching, take the side of the road or Tram other than that upon which such Car is approaching, so as to steer clear of the same when passing: Provided always, that should such cart, carriage, or other vehicle be standing, travelling, or passing on any part of any road with an ample free space between and the nearest line of rail, so as to allow of the safe passing of the Car, this Rule shall not apply.

Fifth. All persons in charge of any animal or animals shall take or drive them out of the way, and all foot passengers shall also get out of the way, of any passing Car; but the Drivers and Conductors of all Cars shall have their brakes always under control, and use their utmost endeavours to avoid any collision with or injury to any animals or foot passengers, and shall keep a good lookout for children incautiously straying or walking in the Streets or attempting to cross over in the face of an approaching Car, and shall, by using a whistle or other signal, give warning of the approaching Car.

Sixth. When any Car is following any vehicle ample space between the Car and such vehicle shall be allowed so that in the event of the vehicle pulling up suddenly no collision may result therefrom; but every vehicle shall go out of the way of the Car with all despatch, so as to keep the Tramway clear for the use of the Car.

Seventh. No Car shall be stopped abreast, or within twelve yards, of another Car on an adjoining line of Rails; and when Cars on different lines are passing each other, the Conductors and Drivers shall respectively slacken the speed of their horses, and gently put on their brakes, to guard against running over persons that may be crossing in the rear of either Car.

Eighth. In the event of any Street being blocked, the Driver of any Car shall stop the same before arriving at the place where the block occurs, so as to keep an open space between for carriages to pass. In case a Car is stopped by any block so long as to bring two Cars together, the foremost Car must, after the way is clear, be driven along so that the time lost by the delay may be gradually made up as soon as possible; but notwithstanding no Car shall be driven faster than eight miles an hour.

Ninth. When Cars are going in opposite directions, and likely to meet near a facing point (whether such facing point leads to a Junction, Siding or Cross Over), Drivers shall not pass each other until they are certain that the Car first approaching such facing point has taken it safely. The Car about to take a point shall have the precedence of the other.

Tenth. No person shall act as a Driver or Conductor of any Tramway Car, unless and until he be Licensed by the Commissioners, and such License may be granted annually, and may be withdrawn on one conviction, and shall be withdrawn on two convictions by any Magistrate of any breach of any Bye-Law: Provided always that the Superintendent of Police shall be entitled to grant temporary Licenses till the first meeting of the Commissioners after application for any such License.

Eleventh. All Drivers of Cars, on coming in sight of any cart, carriage, or other vehicle, standing on the line of Tramway on which he is plying, or by the side thereof, without there being free space to pass, shall use his whistle as a signal to the Drivers or persons in charge of any such cart, carriage, or other vehicle, and that for a distance of 30 yards at least before coming up to such cart, carriage, or other vehicle.

Twelfth. All Drivers and Conductors of Cars shall obey all orders by any Police Officer on duty on the road or in the route travelled over, who is hereby authorised to give such directions as may be necessary for the safety of vehicles and passengers, and for securing the observance of the foregoing Bye-Laws and Regulations in all other respects.

Thirteenth. The foregoing Bye-Laws and Regulations shall not supersede or interfere with the Bye-Laws enacted by the Magistrates of Police of the Burgh of Dundee for regulating Omnibuses or other carriages, and the owners, drivers and conductors thereof, bearing date the 11th day of October, 1871, or with the enforcement of such Bye-Laws, nor shall the said Bye-Laws and Regulations prejudice or interfere with the application of the said Bye-Laws made by the Magistrates to Tramway Cars, and the owners, drivers, and conductors thereof, nor prevent the Magistrates from making and enforcing any other or additional Bye-Laws applicable to Tramway Cars, or the owners, drivers, and conductors thereof, that the Magistrates may at any time think proper to make and enforce.

Fourteenth. The above Bye-Laws and Regulations shall be strictly and faithfully observed and performed in all points. Any Proprietor, Conductor, or Driver, and any person whomsoever, who shall be convicted of a breach or contravention of these Bye-Laws, or any of them, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings.

JAMES ALLAN, Commissioner.
