Captain CHRISTIE, although he had been in the water a quarter of an hour, and the cold was so great that the spray turned to ice, refused to be taken into the boat until one of his crew, George Main, who was lying some two or three boats' lengths off in a state of insensibility, had been picked up.

WALLACE HALL ACADEMY (SCOTLAND).

Petition for a Provisional Order under 'The Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878.'

Unto the Right Honourable Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Petition of the Governing Body, as defined in 'The Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878,' of Wallace Hall Academy, in the Parish of Closeburn and County of Dumfries, under the Trust Deed of the deceased JOHN WALLACE, Esq., Merchant in Glasgow, subscribed at Glasgow, on the 24th July 1717, and the 30th April 1723, of which Deed a certified printed copy is herewith sent.

Humbly Sheweth,—

THAT your Petitioners are Henry Wallace, of Busby and Cloncaird; the Reverend David Ogilvy-Ramsay, Minister of the United Parishes of Closeburn and Dalgarno; and James David Marwick, Doctor of Laws, Town-Clerk of Glasgow, Patrons under the said Trust Deed; and the Reverend Charles West M'Kenzie, Minister of the Parish of Durisdeer, Moderator; and the said Reverend David Ogilvy-Ramsay; the Reverend John Monteith, Minister of the Parish of Glencairn; the Reverend David Jardine, Minister of the Parish of Keir; the Reverend John Donaldson, Minister of the Parish of Kirkconnel; the Reverend John Murray, Minister of the Parish of Morton; the Reverend Andrew Paton, Minister of the Parish of Penpont; the Reverend John Inglis, Minister, and the Reverend James M'Donald Inglis, Assistant and Successor, of the Parish of Sanquhar; the Reverend David Couper, Minister of the Parish of Tynron; and the Reverend James Laidlaw, Minister of the Parish of Wanlockhead, Members of the Presbytery of Penpont, Trustees under the said Trust Deed—the said Patrons and Trustees being the Governing Body, as defined in the Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878, of Wallace Hall Academy aforesaid.

That, at a Meeting of the Governing Body of said Endowed Institution, specially called for the purpose, and held at a month's notice, at Wallace Hall, on the eighteenth day of February eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, it was resolved, in terms of sections four and five of the said Act, by the whole of those present at the Meeting, that it was expedient that provision should be made for the better government and administration of the said Institution, and for the better application of the endowments thereof, that an application should be made to the said Secretary of State for a Provisional Order, and that a Petition should be presented to the said Secretary, setting out such resolution, and stating the provisions for the better government and administration of said Institution, which they desire to have sanctioned. A duplicate of the Minute of this Meeting, containing the Resolutions, is herewith sent.

Your Petitioners respectfully refer to the certified printed copy of the Trust Deed of Endowment, to certified extracts from (1) Disposition of Five Acres of Land, by Sir Thomas Kirkpatrick, of Closeburn, Baronet, to the Moderator and Presbytery of Penpont—registered 7th September 1724; and (2) Charter of the Lands of Baltersan, by George Clerk Maxwell, Esq., in favour of said Moderator and Presbytery—registered 25th November 1754; and Report by James Hutchison, Esq., Mouswald Farm, Valuator, as to the present value and condition of property belonging to the Trust—all herewith sent; also to a Report by the Secretary and Assistant Commissioner, and Report by a Committee of the Presbytery of Penpont on Wallace Hall, made in 1874, to the 'Endowed Schools and Hospitals (Scotland) Commission,' and contained in the Appendix to the Third Report of the said Commission, vol. i., pp. 215-222, as showing that it is expedient to make the present application, on the following and other grounds:—The Constitution of the body of Patrons is such as, in present circumstances, to be almost unworkable. While there are certain powers vested in the Patrons, the Trustees, the Laird of Closeburn, and others, there is no effective administrative body charged with the government of the Endowed Institution and application of its endowments; and, generally, the Trust cannot now, in its present form, be so administered as to carry out the wishes of the Founder, or to utilize to anything like their full extent the largely increased revenues of the Trust.

Referring to the above recited Deeds and Reports, herewith sent, it will be seen that the sum left by Mr. Wallace, the founder of the Trust, amounted to £1600; that the primary object of Mr. Wallace in instituting the Trust was to provide the children of his native parish with a better education, secondary and elementary, than they were otherwise likely to receive; and that with the view of recommending such education to and bringing it within the reach of all whom it was intended to benefit, he expressly provided that it should be free; that the Trustees were enabled to carry out the wishes of the Truster with respect to the purchase of a convenient piece of ground, and the erection of School buildings thereon, and with respect, also, to the purchase of landed property with the residue of the Trust funds: that the said School buildings, having been added to by successive Rectors, are now of much larger extent than they originally were, and that the property of Baltersan, purchased in 1723 for £1145, now yields a yearly rent of £630, and it is estimated that it will be worth £760 per annum three years hence, when the current leases expire, but that after an expenditure of £1500 on buildings and fences.

The population of the united parishes of Closeburn and Dalgarno is, by the census of 1871, 1612. The parish is of large extent, being about 13 miles in length by about 7 in breadth; and it may for educational purposes be divided into four districts, viz.:—the Northern district, the children in which attend a school belonging to the Duke of Buccleuch, in the parish of Morton, and just beyond the bounds of Closeburn parish; the Southern district, where there is a public school; the Central district, in which Wallace Hall is situated; and the Eastern district, called Gubhill in the Trust Deed, where there is another of the Duke of Buccleuch's schools, and towards meeting the educational wants of which the Rector of Wallace Hall is bound by the Trust Deed to make a yearly contribution of £5. The children within the school age in the Central or Wallace Hall district number about 200, of whom 181 are provided in Wallace Hall with school accommodation according to the usual Government requirements, the remainder being provided for in a girls' school lately built by the School Board, near to Wallace Hall, with a view to its being acquired, when circumstances should admit of it, by the Trustees thereof. The children within the school age in the Eastern or Gubhill district number about 28, and the school has accommodation for 45, but it is very inconveniently situated for about one-half of the children.

An entirely free education having been found in Closeburn (as elsewhere) prejudicial to education, and thus opposed to the object which Mr. Wallace had in founding and endowing the Institution, the new Governing Body should have power to levy fees, but only according to a scale and under the conditions set forth in the Provisional Order.

One of the expressly stated objects of Mr. Wallace being the advancement of Christian knowledge within the parish, the Petitioners are desirous that power should be given to the new Governing Body to encourage the same by grants of money to all the Schools within the parish which are under Government inspection—the amount of grant, and to whom payable, to be determined by the Governors; and the grant to be given only in respect of ascertained excellence in religious instruction according to use and wont.

The Petitioners have prepared, and respectfully submit herewith, and as part hereof, the Heads of a Provisional Order, in which are stated the provisions for the better government and administration of the Endowed Institution, and the better application of the Endowments thereof, which they desire to have sanctioned.

May it therefore please the Right Honourable the Secretary of State to take this Petition into consideration, and with or without publication thereof, or at least so much of it as contains the Heads of the proposed Provisional Order, in the Edinburgh Gazette or in any newspaper or newspapers circulating in the County of Dumfries, with a view to further inquiry, and with or without remit to, or report by, the Commissioners under the Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878, to issue a Provisional Order in relation to the several matters mentioned in this Petition in terms of the Statute.

And your Petitioners will ever pray, &c.

Preliminary Meeting.

4. A Preliminary Meeting for the arrangement of the conduct of the business shall be held upon the summons of the Moderator of the Presbytery of Penpont upon some day to be fixed by him within one calendar month after the time at which, under the provisions herein contained, the administration of the Endowed Institution shall be assumed by the Governors in place of the present Governing Body.

Chairman.

5. The Governors shall, at the said Preliminary Meeting, and afterwards at their first Meeting in each year, elect one of their number to be Chairman of their Meetings for the current year, and they shall also make regulations for supplying his place in case of his death, resignation, or absence during his term of office. The Chairman shall always be eligible for re-election.

Special Meetings.

7. The Chairman, or any two of the Governors, may at any time summon a Special Meeting for any cause that seems to him or them sufficient. All Special Meetings shall be convened by or under the direction of the person or persons summoning the Meeting, by notice in writing delivered or sent by post to each Governor, specifying the object of the Meeting. And it shall be the duty of the Clerk, if any, to give such notice when required by the Chairman, or by any of the Governors having a right to summon such Meeting.

Adjournment of Meetings.

8. If a sufficient number of the Governors to form a quorum are not present at any Meeting, or if the business at any Meeting is not fully completed, those present may adjourn the Meeting to a subsequent day and time, of which notice shall be given in manner aforesaid to each Governor.

9. A Minute Book and proper Books of Account shall be provided by the Governors, and kept in some convenient and secure place of deposit to be provided or appointed by them for that purpose, and Minutes of all proceedings of the Governors shall be entered in such Minute Book,

10. The Governors shall cause full Accounts to be kept of the Receipts and Expenditure in respect of the Endowed Institution, and such Accounts shall be stated for each year, and, after being audited by a professional Accountant, shall be examined and passed annually by the Governors at the first Meeting in the ensuing year, unless some other Meeting shall be appointed for the purpose, and every such Account shall be signed by the Governors present at the Meeting at which it was passed. The Governors shall cause sufficient Abstracts of the Accounts to be published annually in one or more local newspapers.

Business Arrangements.

11. The Governors may from time to time make such arrangements as they may find most fitting for the custody of all Deeds and other Documents belonging to the Endowed Institution, for deposit of money, for the drawing of cheques, and also for the appointment of a Clerk or Factor or other proper Officers for their assistance in the conduct of the business of the Endowed Institution, at such reasonable salaries or scale of remuneration as they may determine, but no Governor acting as such Clerk, Factor, or Officer shall be entitled to any salary or remuneration.

Vesting Property.

Transfer of Administration of Endowed Institution to Governors.

14. So soon as this Order takes effect, the administration of the Endowed Institution shall be assumed and exercised by the Governors in place of the present Governing Body, and such Governing Body shall thereupon become ipso facto removed and discharged from their office as such Governing Body, and shall cause all deeds, minute and account books, and other papers and documents belonging or relating to the Endowed Institution, and all cash balances and moveable effects belonging thereto, to be delivered or transferred unto the Governors as they shall direct.

Provisions as to School to be brought into operation as soon as practicable.

15. The Governors shall take all requisite measures for bringing the provisions of this Order into active operation for the regulation of the School, as soon as practicable, and they shall have power to make all suitable and proper arrangements for that purpose.

Saving of Vested Interests.

16. Any vested interest to which any teacher, master, officer, scholar, bursar, exhibitor, pensioner, or other shall be entitled at the date at which this Order takes effect, shall be continued to him.

THE SCHOOL AND ITS MANAGEMENT.

Rector—Appointment.

17. There shall be a rector of the School, who shall be styled the Rector of Wallace Hall Academy. He shall be a graduate of some University in the United Kingdom. The Rector shall be appointed by the Governors at a Meeting to be called for that purpose, as soon as conveniently may be after this Order takes effect, and thereafter at some Meeting to be called as aforesaid, after the occurrence of a vacancy, or after notice of an intended vacancy. In order to obtain the best candidates, the Governors shall, for a sufficient time before making any appointment, give public notice of the vacancy, and invite applicants for the office by advertisements in newspapers, or by such other methods as they may judge best calculated to secure the object.

Dismissal after six months' notice.

18. The Governors may dismiss the Rector without assigning any cause, after six calendar months' written notice, given to him in pursuance of a resolution passed at two consecutive Meetings held at an interval of at least 14 days, and convened for that purpose.

Dismissal without notice.

19. The Governors, for what in their opinion is urgent cause, may, by resolution passed at a Special Meeting convened for that purpose, and affirmed by not less than two-thirds of the whole number of the Governors for the time being, declare that the Rector ought to be dismissed from his office without the aforesaid notice, and in that case they may appoint another Special Meeting to be held not less than a week after the former one, and may then by a similar resolution, affirmed by as large a proportion of the Governors, absolutely and finally dismiss him. And if the Governors present at the first of such Meetings think fit at once to suspend the Rector from his office until the next Meeting, they may do so by resolution affirmed by as large a proportion of Governors. Full notice of, and opportunity of defence at, both Meetings shall be given to the Rector.

Declaration to be signed by Rector.

20. The Rector, previously to entering into office, shall be required to sign a declaration, to be entered in the Minute Book of the Governors, to the following effect:—

'I declare that I will always to the best of my ability discharge the duties of Rector of the Wallace Hall Academy during my tenure of office, and that if I am removed by the Governors I will acquiesce in such removal, and will thereupon relinquish all claim to the rectorship and its future endowments, and will deliver up to the Governors, or as they direct, possession of all the property of the Endowed Institution then in my possession or occupation.'

Rector's Residence.

21. The Rector shall dwell in the residence assigned to him. He shall have the occupation and use of such residence, and of any other property of the Endowed Institution of which he becomes the occupant as such Rector, in respect of his official character and duties and not as tenant, and shall, if removed from his office, deliver up possession of such residence and other property to the Governors, or as they direct. He shall not, except with the permission of the Governors, permit any person not being a member of his family to occupy such residence, or any part thereof.

Rector not to have other Employment.

22. The Rector shall give his personal attention to the duties of the School, and during his tenure of office, he shall not accept or hold any office or appointment which, in the opinion of the Governors, may interfere with the proper performance of his duties as Rector.

Neither Rector nor Teachers to receive other than authorized Fees.

23. Neither the Rector nor any assistant-teacher shall receive or demand from any pupil in the School, or from any person whatsoever on behalf of any such pupil, any gratuity, fee, or payment, except such as are prescribed or authorized by this Order.

Jurisdiction of Governors over School Arrangements.

24. Within the limits fixed by this Order the Governors shall prescribe the general subjects of instruction, the relative prominence and value to be assigned to each group of subjects, the arrangements respecting the School terms, vacations, and holidays, the payments of day pupils, and the number and payments of boarders. They shall take a general supervision of the sanitary condition of the School buildings and arrangements. They shall determine what number of assistant-teachers, male or female, shall be employed. They shall every year assign the amount which they think proper to be contributed out of the income of the Endowed Institution for the purpose of maintaining assistant-teachers, and providing and maintaining a proper school plant or apparatus, and otherwise furthering the current objects and efficiency of the School.

Governors to consider views and proposals of Rector.

25. Before making any regulations under the last preceding section, the Governors shall consult the Rector in such a manner as to give him full opportunity for the expression of his views. The Rector may also from time to time submit proposals to the Governors for making or altering regulations concerning any matter within the province of the Governors. The Governors shall fully consider any such expression of views or proposals, and shall decide upon them.

Jurisdiction of Rector over School Arrangements.

26. Subject to the rules prescribed by or under this Order, the Rector shall have under his control the choice of books, the method of teaching, the arrangement of classes and school hours, and generally the whole internal organization, management, and discipline of the School.

Assistant-teachers.

27. The Rector shall have the sole power of appointing and dismissing all assistant-teachers, provided that (1) each assistant-teacher shall be the holder of a Government Certificate of competency, (2) one male assistant-teacher shall be qualified to give a thorough commercial education, and (3) one female assistant-teacher shall be qualified to give instruction in vocal and instrumental music. The Rector shall determine, subject to the approval of the Governors, in what proportions the sum assigned by the Governors for the maintenance of the assistant-teachers or the other current objects of the School, shall be divided among the various persons and objects for which it is assigned in the aggregate, and the Governors shall pay the same accordingly, either through the hands of the Rector or directly as they think best.

Income of Rector.

28. The Rector shall receive such salary or remuneration and allowances, and such residence as the Governors shall determine, and on such conditions as may be inserted in his appointment; but he shall have no right to interfere in the management of the Endowed Institution or its Endowments, except in so far as may be expressly provided in this Order or in his appointment.

Boarders.

29. The Governors may make such regulations and arrangements as they may think right for the reception of boarders, either in the house of the Rector or of any assistant-teacher, or, if they think fit, in both of those ways.

School Fees and Boarding Charges.

30. Except as hereinafter provided, all pupils shall pay such school fees as the Governors may fix from time to time, provided that no such fee shall be at the rate of more than 1d. a week for pupils taught according to the Third or any lower Standard of the Code of the Scotch Education Department, or more than 2d. a week for pupils taught according to the Fourth, Fifth, or Sixth Standards of the said Code, or more than 6d. a week for pupils receiving a higher class education, as the same shall be determined by the Governors. Provided that in cases in which two or more children of one family are attending the School at the same time, the Governors may, if they think fit, reduce the amount of fee to be paid to the extent of not more than one-half for each such child after the first. If at any time there shall be more applicants for admission to the School than can be properly accommodated therein, a preference shall be given to those who are children of parents resident in the parish of Closeburn, and after them to those who are children of parents resident in any parish within the Presbytery of Penpont.

The Governors may, if they think fit, fix higher School Fees than those hereinbefore mentioned to be paid by pupils who are not the children of parents resident in the parish of Closeburn.

The payments to be required from boarders, exclusive of the School Fees, shall be at such rate or rates as the Governors shall determine.

All payments for School Fees shall be made in advance to the Rector, or to such other person as the Governors shall from time to time determine, and shall be accounted for by the person receiving the same to the Governors, and treated by them as part of the general income of the Endowed Institution.

To whom School is open.

31. Subject to the provisions established by or under the authority of this Order, the School and all its advantages shall be open to all pupils of good character and sufficient health who are residing with their parents, guardians, or near relations within degrees to be determined by the Governors, or in some boarding-house conducted under regulations made by the Governors. No boy not so residing shall be admitted to the School without the special permission of the Governors.

Applications for Admission.

32. Application for admission to the School shall be made to the Rector, or to some other person appointed by the Governors, according to a form to be approved of by them and delivered to all applicants.

ance in the School; and no child shall in the School be placed at any disadvantage with respect to the secular instruction given therein by reason of the denomination to which such child or his parents belong, or by reason of his being withdrawn from any instruction in religious subjects.

Instruction.

35. Subject to the foregoing provisions, religious instruction according to the use and wont of Scotland shall be given in the School, under such regulations as shall be made from time to time by the Governors.

Instructions shall also be given in the School in the following subjects:—

Provision may be made for teaching such scientific, industrial, and artistic branches of education, including instrumental music, as the Governors may determine. Subject to the above provisions, the course of instruction shall proceed according to the classification and arrangements made by the Rector.

Inspection.

36. The School shall be open at all times to the inspection of any of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

Parliamentary Grants.

37. The Governors shall not be precluded by any provision in this Order from conforming to any regulations which the Scotch Education Department, under the Education (Scotland) Act, 1872, or any Act amending the same, or under any authority may impose as the conditions of a grant of money. Any Parliamentary Grants earned shall be paid to the Governors, or to some one appointed by them for that purpose, and shall be treated by them as part of the general income of the Endowed Institution.

APPLICATION OF INCOME.

38. After defraying the expenses of management and of repairs and improvements, and making the several payments hereinbefore directed or authorized, the Governors may apply the income of the Endowed Institution in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained:—

Payment of School Fees.

(1.) The Governors may pay the School Fees of not more than one-third of the pupils attending the School who are children of parents resident in the parish of Closeburn, to be selected for that purpose from among such pupils, being not less than seven years of age, who have, during the previous year, been distinguished for good conduct, industry, and regularity of attendance, and who have satisfactorily passed the last examination by Her Majesty's Inspector in the Standard suitable to their age, or some equivalent examination.

(2.) The Governors may apply a yearly sum in providing bursaries of such number and value, and under such regulations as they may from time to time fix, to be competed for by boys or girls, the children of parents resident in the parish of Closeburn, who have attended any inspected School within the parish for at least two years, and have passed in one at least of the three highest Standards for the time being of the Code of the Scotch Education Department, or in an equivalent examination, and to be tenable in the Wallace Hall Academy for the purpose of enabling the holder to study some subject of instruction higher than elementary.

Bursaries to Children of Parents resident in Presbytery of Penpont.

(3.) In default of duly qualified candidates among the pupils attending the School, who are the children of parents resident in the parish of Closeburn, these bursaries may be opened to candidates otherwise complying with the conditions set forth in the preceding Sub-section, who are children of parents resident in any parish within the Presbytery of Penpont.

Exhibitions tenable at University, Training College, or other place.

(4.) The Governors may apply a yearly sum in providing exhibitions of such number and value, and under such regulations as they may from time to time fix, tenable at some University, Training College for teachers, or other place of higher education or professional training or study to be approved by the Governors. These exhibitions shall be competed for by pupils who have for three years at least attended the School, and have passed in one, at least, of the two highest standards for the time being of the Code of the Scotch Education Department, or in an equivalent examination.

*Preference for Exhibitions to Children in Parish of

(5.) A preference for such exhibitions shall ceteris paribus be given to candidates, if duly qualified, who are the children of parents resident in the Parish of Closeburn, and failing them, the children of parents resident in any parish within the Presbytery of Penpont.

Grants for Encouragement of Religious Instruction.

(6.) The Governors may apply a yearly sum for the purpose of making grants of money to any School within the Parish of Closeburn under Government Inspection, the grant to be applied in such manner as the Governors may arrange with the School Board, or other persons having the management of the School, for the purpose of encouraging the giving of religious instruction in such School, according to the use and wont of Scotland.

Grant to School or Schools in Gubhill District.

(7.) The Governors may apply a yearly sum towards the maintenance of any Elementary School or Schools in the Eastern or Gubhill District of the Parish of Closeburn, provided such School or Schools are under Government inspection.

39. Within the limits prescribed by this order the Governors shall have full power from time to time to make regulations for the conduct of their business and for the management of the Endowed Institution, and such regulations shall be binding on all persons affected thereby.

Endowed Institution to be governed exclusively under this Order.

40. From and after the date at which this order takes effect the Endowed Institution shall for every purpose be administered and governed wholly and exclusively in accordance with the provisions of this order, notwithstanding any former or other order, Act of Parliament, charter, or instrument relating to the subject matter of this order.

Temporary Arrangements sanctioned.

41. It having been considered expedient by the present Governing body that the existing vacancy in the office of rector should not be filled up until a Provisional Order should have been obtained to effect the purposes hereinbefore set forth, and the Presbytery of Penpont having abstained from exercising their right of appointing a rector jure devoluto, all costs and expenses incurred in carrying on the Wallace Hall Academy, between the date of the death of the late rector and the appointment of a rector under this order, shall form a charge against and be paid out of the funds of the Endowed Institution.

Costs of Order.

42. The whole costs, charges, and expenses connected with the applying for and obtaining this order and incident thereto shall form a charge against and be paid out of the funds of the Endowed Institution.

Order to be printed and sold.

43. The Governors shall cause this order to be printed, and a copy to be given to every Governor, Rector, and Assistant-Teacher upon their respective appointments, and copies may be sold at a reasonable price to all persons applying for the same.
