NOTICE

To the HEIRS OF ENTAIL of the Estate of Otter.

JOHN CAMPBELL, Esq. of Otter, also JOHN CAMPBELL of Auchencwillan, Esq. and Mr. MUELPEAT, a quorum of the trustees appointed by the late JOHN CAMPBELL, Esq. of Otter, hereby intimate to all concerned, That in terms of the act passed in the 38th and 39th years of the reign of his present Majesty, "For making perpetual (subject to redemption and purchase, in manner therein stated) the several sums of money charged in Great Britain as a land tax, for one year from the 25th day of March 1798; and for amending the said acts," have applied by petition to the Court of Session, praying the authority of that Court to the sale of the following sum, being part of the entailed estate of Otter, belonging to the said John Campbell, and possessed by the said trustees for his behoof, viz.

The farm of Strone and Burn kerrochbeg, let at present to Archibald Campbell.
Of which application this public notice is given.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
ALEXANDER JOLLY, Farmer and Victual Dealer,
Miltown of Mathers.

JOHN LOW, Writer in Stonehaven, the trustee, hereby intimates, That the Sheriff of Kincardineshire has appointed Saturday the 27th current, and Saturday the 13th March next, at one o'clock afternoon, within the Ordinary Court-house at Stonehaven, for the public examination of the bankrupt;—and that a General Meeting of the creditors will be held on Monday the 15th March, at one o'clock afternoon, within the house of William Smith, vintner, Elsinure, near St. Cyrus, to chuse commissioners, and give instructions to the trustee with regard to the sequestrated estate. The creditors are requested, betwixt that meeting, to lodge their claims and vouchers of debt, with oaths of verity, in the hands of the trustee; with certification, that those who neglect to do so before the 29th day of October next, being ten months from the date of the sequestration, will not receive any share of the first dividend.
February 16, 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ADAM SMITH, in Mains of Forrest, in the County of Aberdeen, Drover and Dealer in Cattle.

THAT upon the eighth day of January last, William Stirling, advocate in Aberdeen, was elected sole trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said Adam Smith, and his nomination has since been confirmed by the Court of Session. That on the trustee's application, the Sheriff has fixed the nineteenth day of February next, and fifth day of March next, at twelve o'clock noon, within the high Tolbooth of Aberdeen, for the public examination of the bankrupt, his family or others, connected with his business; and that on the sixth day of the said month of March, a meeting of the creditors will be held within the house of Geo. Moir, vintner, Old Ship Tavern, Aberdeen, for instructing the trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate. And the trustee hereby requires the creditors to produce in his hands, their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to the said meeting, if not already produced. And he farther intimates, that unless said productions are made between and the nineteenth day of September next, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.

WILLIAM STIRLING.

Aberdeen, Feb. 8, 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
SCOTT and DICKSON, Manufacturers in Montrose.

THAT upon the application of the said Scott and Dickson, as a Company, and Archibald Scott and Robert Dickson, as individuals, with concurrence of a creditor to the extent required by law, the Court of Session this day sequestrated the estate of the said Scott and Dickson, as a Company and as individuals, heritable and moveable, real and personal, and appointed their creditors to meet within the house of Hunter, vintner in Montrose, upon Tuesday the 23d day of February next, at twelve o'clock noon, for chusing an interim factor; and again to meet at the same place and hour upon Tuesday the 23d day of March next, for the purpose of naming a trustee—all in terms of the statute.
February 16, 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES GUILD, Merchant in Crieff.

THAT upon the application of the said James Guild, with concurrence of a creditor, to the extent required by law, the Court of Session upon the 13th inst. sequestrated the estate of the said James Guild, heritable and moveable, real and personal, and appointed his creditors to meet within the house of Mr Allan, vintner in Crieff, upon the 2d day of March next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of chusing an interim factor; and further appointed them to meet at the same place and hour upon the 23d day of the said month of March, for the purpose of chusing a trustee—all in terms of the statute.
Feb. 16, 1802.

INTIMATION.

THAT the Right Honourable JOHN EARL of BREADALBANE has made application, by petition, to the Court of Session, for authority to sell the Lands of ARDINTRYVE and UPPER SONOCHAN, part of his Lordship's entailed estate in the county of Argyll, for the purpose of redeeming the Land-Tax, payable out of the whole entailed estates belonging to his Lordship, lying in the counties of Perth and Argyll, in terms of the acts of Parliament 38th Geo. III. ch. 60. and 39th Geo. III. ch. 6. and 40. and for the other purposes specified in said acts; Of which public notice is hereby given to all concerned.

[Price Sixpence.]
