NOTICE—ARTIFICIAL ALIZARINE.

WE, the undersigned, the Owners respectively of the Patents for the Manufacture of Alizarine:—

A.D. 1869, . . . No. 1936,
 A.D. 1869, . . . No. 1948,
 A.D. 1869, . . . No. 3318,

Hereby give notice that we recently commenced legal proceedings against the Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, for damages for the infringement of the above-mentioned Patents, and for an Injunction to restrain the said Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, from manufacturing, selling, or from offering for sale or disposing of or parting with any Artificial Alizarine or other colouring matters manufactured or prepared in contravention of our rights under the said Patents, or either of them respectively: And that after obtaining an interim injunction on the terms of our application, we, at the request of the said Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, agreed to stay our Action upon the following terms:—

- a. That the said Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, should submit to a perpetual injunction.
- b. That they should admit the validity of the said Patents.
- c. That they should pay damages for past infringements.
- d. That they should pay our costs of the legal proceedings.

A perpetual Injunction against the Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, has been granted, and all proceedings in the Action have been stayed on the above terms.

And we hereby give further notice that we recently were about to institute legal proceedings against Messrs. Arthur & Hinshaw, Drysal-ters and Oil Merchants in Glasgow, and Matthew Clark and William Andrew Jamieson, Drysalterns and Oil Merchants, Glasgow, the Individual Partners of the said Firm of Arthur & Hinshaw, to obtain Interdict against their infringing the said Letters Patent, or any of them, and damages for infringements thereof by them in time past; and that we have agreed to discontinue and discharge the said threatened proceedings upon certain conditions embodied in an Agreement entered into between us and them. Under the said agreement, the said Messrs. Arthur & Hinshaw, and the said Matthew Clark and William Andrew Jamieson, the Individual Partners of the said Firm, admit and acknowledge,—

- a. That the said Letters Patent are valid in every respect.
- b. That they have infringed the said Letters Patent, by importing, vending, and selling Artificial Alizarine, manufactured according to one or other of the processes described in the Specifications respectively filed in connection with the said Letters Patent.
- c. That the Letters Patent of the 28th May 1869, No. 1642, granted to Franz Julius Brönnner (therein named Julius Brönnner) and Hermann Gutzkow, are and always have been null and void.
- d. They undertake during the subsistence of our said Letters Patent not to import into or sell within the United Kingdom any Artificial Alizarine produced by any of the processes described in the Specifications of any of our said Letters, except with our consent in writing.

We lastly give notice that any person or persons infringing our above-mentioned Patents, whether by PURCHASING (except from us or our Licencees), or SELLING, importing, or being concerned in importing, or in any way using Artificial Alizarine in the United Kingdom, other than Alizarine made here by us, or imported by us or our Licencees, will be immediately proceeded against.

A Reward will be given to any person who will give the undersigned information sufficient to undertake legal proceedings against any such Infringers.
