Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1879.

I THE Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, under the powers conferred upon me by the Rivers Pollution Prevention Act, 1876, determine, that so long as this Order remains in force, the Stream of the River Dee, in the Counties of Aberdeen and Kincardine, shall include the tidal waters of said River to the point where the same are divided by a line projected across the said River in continuation of a line drawn along the centre of Market Street, in the City of Aberdeen.

Given under my hand at Whitehall this 24th day of June 1879.

RICHARD ASSHETON CROSS.

(PORT OF GLASGOW.)

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23d day of June 1879.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

The Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of Glasgow, in the County of Lanark, as a foreign animals wharf:—

All that space in the Port and Burgh of Glasgow being a part of the timber wharf and depôt of the Trustees of the Clyde Navigation, situate on the south-east side of the road leading from Point-house to Partick, called the Ferry Road, bounded by a line commencing at a point on the south-east side of the said Ferry Road where the same is intersected by the water edge of the said timber wharf, thence passing in a south-easterly direction for a distance of two hundred and fifty-seven feet six inches or thereabouts along the coping which forms the water edge of the said wharf, thence running at a right angle from the water edge of the said wharf for a distance of ninety-five feet nine inches or thereabouts, thence at a right angle with the last described boundary and parallel with the coping or water edge of the said wharf for a distance of two hundred and twenty-two feet or thereabouts until it intersects the south-east side of the said Ferry Road, thence south-westwardly along the south-east side of the said Ferry Road for a distance of one hundred and two feet or thereabouts to the point first described as the commencement of this boundary, all which space is bounded by a wooden fence and is edged yellow on the plan of part of the Port of Glasgow deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the Office of the Town Clerk of the Burgh of Glasgow.

WAR OFFICE, June 23, 1879.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of Colonel Henry Evelyn Wood, C.B., V.C., and Commissary-

General Edward Strickland, C.B., to be Ordinary Members of the Military Division of the Second Class, or Knights Commanders of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath;—and Colonel Charles Knight Pearson to be an Ordinary Member of the Military Division of the Third Class, or Companion of the said Most Honourable Order;—and Thomas Backhouse Sandwith, Esq., Her Majesty's Consul for the Island of Crete, to be an Ordinary Member of the Civil Division of the Third Class, or Companion of the said Order.

WHITEHALL, June 23, 1879.

The Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Signal Manual to the effect following:—

VICTORIA, R.

Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, to Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor James Plaisted, Baron Penzance; Our trusty and well-beloved Alexander George Russell, Esq. (commonly called Lord Alexander George Russell), Companion of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-General in Our Army; the Right Reverend Father in God Frederick, Bishop of Exeter; Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Robert Lowe; and our trusty and well-beloved George Tomkyns Chesney, a Lieutenant-Colonel in Our Corps of Royal Engineers, Greeting!

Whereas it has been represented unto Us that it is expedient that inquiry should be made into the several matters hereinafter mentioned, now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your ability and discretion have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint you the said James Plaisted, Baron Penzance; Alexander George Russell (commonly called Lord Alexander George Russell); Frederick, Bishop of Exeter; Robert Lowe; and George Tomkyns Chesney,—to be Our Commissioners to inquire and report what funds were subscribed, and upon what footing, for the purposes of providing a College for the education, bringing up, maintaining, and clothing of the children of deceased officers in Our Army, or in the Army of the then East India Company, and none others, now known as Wellington College; what moneys have since been received by the Governors, by gift, bequest, or otherwise, for the purposes of the said College, and how such funds have been applied; what number of boys are now maintained and educated on the foundation of the said College, and at what expense to the said College; and what other boys are educated in the said College, and on what terms; and whether, having regard to the circumstances and objects under and for which the said College was founded, the funds and property thereof have been administered, so as to confer upon the orphan sons of officers of Our Army the full amount of benefit which was intended for them, and to make such recommendations in the premises as to you shall seem fit.

And for the better discovery of the truth in the premises, We do by these presents give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority to call before you, or any three or more of you, such persons as you shall judge necessary, by whom you may be the better informed of the truth in the premises, and to inquire of the premises, and every part thereof, by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever, and also to call for and examine all such books, documents, papers, and records as you shall judge likely to afford you the fullest information on the subject of this Our Commission.

And Our further will and pleasure is, that you, Our said Commissioners, do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, in writing, under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any three or more of you, your several proceedings under and by virtue of this Our Commission, together with what you shall find touching or concerning the premises.

And We further will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And for the purpose of aiding you in such matters, We hereby appoint Our trusty and well-beloved Henry Bargrave Deane, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the twentieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the forty-third year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,

RICHD. ASSHETON CROSS.

WHITEHALL, June 23, 1879.

The Queen has been pleased to constitute and appoint Charles Alexander Home, Esq. (commonly called Lord Dunglass), to be Lieutenant of the Shire of Berwick, in the room of James Henry Robert, Duke of Roxburghe, deceased.

WHITEHALL, June 23, 1879.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend James Butter, M.A., to the Vicarage of Saint Michael, in the City of Coventry and Diocese of Worcester, void by the cession of the Reverend Robert Hall Baynes, M.A., the last Incumbent.

FOREIGN OFFICE, June 14, 1879.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Francis Clare Ford, Esq., C.B., C.M.G., now Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Argentine Republic, to be Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Emperor of Brazil.

The Queen has also been graciously pleased to appoint Ronald Ferguson Thomson, Esq., now Secretary to Her Majesty's Legation at Tehran, to be Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Persia, and also to be Her Majesty's Consul-General at Tehran.

NOTICE—ARTIFICIAL ALIZARINE.

WE, the undersigned, the Owners respectively of the Patents for the Manufacture of Alizarine:—

A.D. 1869, . . . No. 1936,

A.D. 1869, . . . No. 1948,

A.D. 1869, . . . No. 3318,

Hereby give notice that we recently commenced legal proceedings against the Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, for damages for the infringement of the above-mentioned Patents, and for an Injunction to restrain the said Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, from manufacturing, selling, or from offering for sale or disposing of or parting with any Artificial Alizarine or other colouring matters manufactured or prepared in contravention of our rights under the said Patents, or either of them respectively: And that after obtaining an interim injunction on the terms of our application, we, at the request of the said Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, agreed to stay our Action upon the following terms:—

- a. That the said Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, should submit to a perpetual injunction.
- b. That they should admit the validity of the said Patents.
- c. That they should pay damages for past infringements.
- d. That they should pay our costs of the legal proceedings.

A perpetual Injunction against the Alizarine and Anthracene Company, Limited, has been granted, and all proceedings in the Action have been stayed on the above terms.

And we hereby give further notice that we recently were about to institute legal proceedings against Messrs. Arthur & Hinshaw, Drysalters and Oil Merchants in Glasgow, and Matthew Clark and William Andrew Jamieson, Drysalters and Oil Merchants, Glasgow, the Individual Partners of the said Firm of Arthur & Hinshaw, to obtain Interdict against their infringing the said Letters Patent, or any of them, and damages for infringements thereof by them in time past; and that we have agreed to discontinue and discharge the said threatened proceedings upon certain conditions embodied in an Agreement entered into between us and them. Under the said agreement, the said Messrs. Arthur & Hinshaw, and the said Matthew Clark and William Andrew Jamieson, the Individual Partners of the said Firm, admit and acknowledge,—

- a. That the said Letters Patent are valid in every respect.
- b. That they have infringed the said Letters Patent, by importing, vending, and selling Artificial Alizarine, manufactured according to one or other of the processes described in the Specifications respectively filed in connection with the said Letters Patent.
- c. That the Letters Patent of the 28th May 1869, No. 1642, granted to Franz Julius Brönner (therein named Julius Brönner) and Hermann Gutzkow, are and always have been null and void.
- d. They undertake during the subsistence of our said Letters Patent not to import into or sell within the United Kingdom any Artificial Alizarine produced by any of the processes described in the Specifications of any of our said Letters, except with our consent in writing.

We lastly give notice that any person or persons infringing our above-mentioned Patents, whether by PURCHASING (except from us or our Licencees), or SELLING, importing, or being concerned in importing, or in any way using Artificial Alizarine in the United Kingdom, other than Alizarine made here by us, or imported by us or our Licencees, will be immediately proceeded against.

A Reward will be given to any person who will give the undersigned information sufficient to undertake legal proceedings against any such Infringers.
