I THE Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, under the powers conferred upon me by the Rivers Pollution Prevention Act, 1876, determine, that so long as this Order remains in force, the Stream of the River Dee, in the Counties of Aberdeen and Kincardine, shall include the tidal waters of said River to the point where the same are divided by a line projected across the said River in continuation of a line drawn along the centre of Market Street, in the City of Aberdeen.

Given under my hand at Whitehall this 24th day of June 1879.

RICHARD ASSHETON CROSS.

(PORT OF GLASGOW.)

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23d day of June 1879.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

The Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of Glasgow, in the County of Lanark, as a foreign animals wharf:—

All that space in the Port and Burgh of Glasgow being a part of the timber wharf and depôt of the Trustees of the Clyde Navigation, situate on the south-east side of the road leading from Point-house to Partick, called the Ferry Road, bounded by a line commencing at a point on the south-east side of the said Ferry Road where the same is intersected by the water edge of the said timber wharf, thence passing in a south-easterly direction for a distance of two hundred and fifty-seven feet six inches or thereabouts along the coping which forms the water edge of the said wharf, thence running at a right angle from the water edge of the said wharf for a distance of ninety-five feet nine inches or thereabouts, thence at a right angle with the last described boundary and parallel with the coping or water edge of the said wharf for a distance of two hundred and twenty-two feet or thereabouts until it intersects the south-east side of the said Ferry Road, thence south-westwardly along the south-east side of the said Ferry Road for a distance of one hundred and two feet or thereabouts to the point first described as the commencement of this boundary, all which space is bounded by a wooden fence and is edged yellow on the plan of part of the Port of Glasgow deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the Office of the Town Clerk of the Burgh of Glasgow.
