WEMYSS AND BUCKHAVEN RAILWAY.

Certificate of the Board of Trade for the Construction of the Railway, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, Esquire, of Wemyss and Torry, in the County of Fife, and Mrs. Millicent Erskine Wemyss, relict of the late James Hay Erskine Wemyss, Esquire, late of Wemyss and Torry, and Sir David Baird, of Newbyth, Baronet, as the accepting Curators nominated to him the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, by the said James Hay Erskine Wemyss, his father, by Trust Disposition and Deed of Settlement and Nomination of Tutors and Curators, dated the twenty-first day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixty, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session the seventh day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, the promoters of the Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway, have contracted for the purchase of the lands required for the Railway, and the works connected therewith, and have complied with the requirements of 'The Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864,' 'The Railways Companies Powers Act, 1864,' and 'The Railways (Powers and Construction) Acts, 1864, Amendment Act, 1870:'

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do by this their Certificate, in pursuance of the said Acts, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, certify as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Certificate may be cited for all purposes as 'The Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway Certificate, 1879,' and the Railway authorized by this Certificate shall be called 'The Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway.'

Incorporation of Acts.

2. 'The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845,' 'The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860,' 'The Railways Clauses

Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845,' and Parts I. (construction of a Railway) and III. (working agreements) of 'The Railways Clauses Act, 1863,' are, with the exceptions and subject to the provisions contained in the Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864, incorporated with and form part of this Certificate, except where varied by or inconsistent with this Certificate.

Interpretation.

3. In this Certificate the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Acts wholly or partially incorporated herewith have the same respective meanings, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; the expression 'the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss' in this Certificate shall mean and include the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, his heirs, successors, and assigns, and the said Mrs. Millicent Erskine Wemyss and Sir David Baird, his curators, until the eleventh day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, when the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss attains majority, and thereafter the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, his heirs, successors, and assigns; and the expressions 'the Railway' and 'the Undertaking' mean respectively the Railway and the Undertaking by this Certificate authorized: Provided that in the Acts wholly or partially incorporated with this Certificate the expression 'the Special Act' shall mean this Certificate.

Power to make Railway.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Certificate and of the Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864, and the Railways (Powers and Construction) Acts, 1864, Amendment Act, 1870, the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss may, on the lands contracted to be purchased as aforesaid, make and maintain, in the line and according to the levels shown on the deposited plans and sections, the Railway hereinafter described, with all proper stations, junctions, sidings, approaches, works, and conveniences connected therewith; that is to say:—

A Railway, four miles one furlong and one hundred and ninety yards or thereabouts in length, to be wholly situate in the county of Fife, and to commence in the parish of Markinch, by a junction with the North British Railway, at or near the Thornton station of the North British Railway Company, and to terminate in the parish of Wemyss, at a point in or near the hedge on the west side of the statute labour road leading from the Sawmillford turnpike road to the village of Buckhaven, three hundred and thirty-three yards or thereabouts, measured in a southerly direction, from the junction of the said statute labour road with the said turnpike road. The aforesaid junction with the North British Railway shall be made to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, and, having been so made, shall thereafter be maintained in the same state and condition, unless and until altered with the consent of the Board of Trade.

Powers of Lateral Deviation.

5. In constructing the Railway by this Certificate authorized it shall be lawful for the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, notwithstanding the provisions of 'The Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845,' to deviate from the line delineated on the deposited plans to any extent within the limits of deviation marked upon the said deposited plans.

Proprietor may appoint Officials.

6. The said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss may appoint a secretary, treasurer, or any other servant or functionary usually necessary or employed for the carrying on the business of a Railway Company; and any act which in the case of a Railway Company can only be, or is usually, done under the seal of the Company, may be effectually done by any writing under the hand of the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss or his duly authorized agent.

Borrowing Powers.

7. The said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss may borrow, by way of Bond and Disposition in Security or Mortgage Debenture on the security of the Railway, any sum whatever at any time; and any Company, in whom the Railway may become vested, may borrow on the said security, subject to the provisions of the twenty-ninth section of the Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864: Provided always that proof that one-fifth of the amount of the capital hereinafter in this Certificate specified has been expended for the purposes of this Certificate shall be substituted for the proof required to be given under sub-section one of the said section: Provided further that, for the purposes of this section, the amount of capital shall be deemed to be twenty-five thousand pounds.

For Appointment of a Judicial Factor.

8. The Mortgagees of the Railway may enforce payment of arrears of interest or principal or principal and interest due on their Mortgages by the appointment of a Judicial Factor, and in order to authorize the appointment of a Judicial Factor in respect of arrears of principal, the amount owing to the Mortgagees by whom the application for a Judicial Factor is made shall not be less than two thousand five hundred pounds in the whole.

Lands for Extraordinary Purposes.

9. The said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss may from time to time, in addition to the lands contracted to be purchased as aforesaid, purchase by agreement any quantity of land not exceeding five acres, for any of the extraordinary purposes mentioned in 'The Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845.'

Power to take Easements, &c., by Agreement.

10. Persons empowered by 'The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845,' to sell and convey or release lands may if they think fit, subject to the provisions of that Act, and of 'The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860,' and of this Certificate, grant to the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss any easement, servitude, right, or privilege, not being an easement of water, required for the purposes of this Certificate, in, over, or affecting any such lands, and the provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rent charges or feu-duties, so far as the same are applicable in this behalf, shall extend and apply to such grants and to such easements, servitudes, rights, and privileges as aforesaid respectively.

Powers of Leasing.

11. Subject and without prejudice to the special provisions hereinafter contained for entering into agreements for the working of the Railway by the North British Railway Company, and to the Agreement scheduled to and confirmed by this Certificate, the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss shall have power by lease or agreement to commit the working of the Railway, when completed, to any person or Company for any term of years and upon such conditions as may be agreed on, and after such person or Company shall have commenced working, the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss shall, subject as by this Certificate otherwise provided, be free from all liability on account of the working of the Railway, incurred subsequently to the time of working commenced by such person or Company, and during the continuance of such working, and after the commencement and during the continuance of such working the liability shall, subject as aforesaid, attach to and be borne only by the person or Company so working in like manner as the same would have attached to and been borne by the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, if working the Railway.

Power to sell Railway.

12. The said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss shall have power to sell and convey the fee-simple or dominium utile and inheritance of the Railway, or any part thereof, or share therein, to any person or Company, and after a Disposition or Conveyance of the fee-simple or dominium utile and inheritance of the whole Railway, and working commenced thereunder by the person or Company to whom the same is conveyed, the person or Company making the conveyance if also working the Railway shall, subject as by this Certificate otherwise provided, be free from all liability on account of the working of the Railway incurred subsequently to the time of working so commenced, and such liability, after working commenced as aforesaid, shall, subject as aforesaid, attach to and be borne by the person or Company to whom the Railway may be conveyed if also working the Railway in like manner as the same would have attached to and been borne by the person or Company making the conveyance and previously working in case no conveyance had been made.

Power to convey Railway by Will—Effect thereof or of Intestacy.

13. The said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss may by testamentary disposition or will dispose of the Railway, or any part thereof, or share therein, and working commenced by the beneficiary under such testamentary disposition or will, or by the heir-at-law in the case of an intestacy, shall have the same result and effect, as regards liability, as a conveyance on a sale provided for in the immediately preceding section and working commenced thereunder would have had.

Liability of Person working the Railway.

14. Every person or Company entitled by any disposition, lease, working agreement, or devise, or otherwise, to work the Railway, and having commenced the working thereof, shall, from the time of working commenced and until the working shall have been committed to and commenced by any other person or Company, be liable with reference to the working of the Railway in like manner as the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss will become liable under this Certificate when the Railway is worked by him.

Liability of two or more Persons working the Railway.

15. When and if the working of the Railway shall be in the hands of two or more persons for their individual benefit, they shall be jointly and severally liable on account of the working of the Railway in like manner as a single person working the Railway.

Gauge.

16. The Railway shall be made on the gauge of four feet eight inches and half an inch.

Time for completion of Railway.

17. The Railway shall be completed within five years from the publication in the Edinburgh Gazette of this Certificate.

Tolls.

18. The said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss may demand and take in respect of the Railway any tolls, rates, and charges not exceeding those set forth in the Schedule A hereto annexed, and the Regulations contained in Part III. of the Schedule to the Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864, shall be incorporated with and form part of this Certificate and the said Schedule A hereto annexed.

Charges for extra services.

19. In addition to the tolls, rates, and charges by this Certificate authorized, the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss may demand and take a reasonable sum for the use of any warehouse or dépôt belonging to him.

Not bound to carry Manure.

20. Nothing contained in this Certificate shall make it compulsory on the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss to carry on the Railway any night soil, dung, manure, or compost, or other offensive matter.

Power to enter into Working Agreements with the North British Railway Company.

21. The said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss on the one hand, and the North British Railway Company on the other hand, may, subject to the provisions of Part III. of 'The Railways Clauses Act, 1863,' from time to time enter into agreements with respect to the following purposes, or any of them (that is to say):—

The working, use, management, and maintenance of the Railway or any part thereof, and the conveyance of traffic thereon;

The supply and maintenance of engines, stock, and plant necessary for the purposes of the Railway, and the employment of officers and servants for the conveyance and conduct of traffic on the Railway;

The regulation, interchange, collection, transmission, and delivery of traffic coming from or destined for the Railways of the contracting parties or either of them;

The payments to be made and the conditions to be performed with respect to the purposes aforesaid or any of them;

The fixing, collection, payment, appropriation, apportionment, and distribution of the tolls, rates, income, and profits arising in respect of traffic.

Confirmation of Agreement with the North British Railway Company.

22. The agreement, dated the twenty-first day of April One thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, between James Lindesay, Junior, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh, Commissioner therein mentioned, of the first part, and the North British Railway Company of the second part, set forth in Schedule B to this Certificate, is hereby confirmed and made binding on the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss and the said Company respectively, and full effect may and shall be given thereto.

Tolls on Traffic conveyed partly on the Railway and partly on the Railways of the North British Railway Company.

23. During the continuance of the agreement by this Certificate confirmed, or any agreement to be entered into under the provisions of this Certificate for the working or use of the Railway or any part thereof by the North British Railway Company, the Railway and the Railways of the North British Railway Company shall, for the purposes of short distance tolls and charges, be considered as one Railway, and in estimating the amount of tolls and charges in respect of traffic conveyed partly on the Railway and partly on the Railways of the North British Railway Company, for a less distance than six miles, tolls and charges may only be charged as for six miles, and in respect of passengers for every mile or fraction of a mile beyond six miles tolls and charges as for one mile only, and in respect of animals and goods for every quarter of a mile or fraction of a quarter of a mile beyond six miles tolls and charges as for a quarter of a mile only, and no other short distance charge shall be made for the conveyance of passengers, animals, or goods partly on the Railway and partly on the Railways of the North British Railway Company.

Notice of Person working the Railway to be fixed at Stations.

24. Before the Railway shall be opened for public traffic, there shall be fixed, and after such opening there shall continue to be kept fixed on each station of the Railway, in a conspicuous position, a notice painted in proper legible letters, at least one inch in length, stating the name and place of residence of the person, or if a Company, the name of the Company working the Railway, and on the change from time to time of the person or Company working the Railway, such notice shall be altered accordingly, and shall be dated on the day when the alteration is made.

Liability to continue till notice altered.

25. The person or Company named in any notice required by the last preceding clause of this Certificate, or if the person so named be dead, his real and personal representatives, estate and effects in due course of law shall for all purposes, and notwithstanding any other clauses in this Certificate, remain liable on account of the working of the Railway, for the period during which his name, or the name of the Company, may continue to appear in such notice, and notwithstanding any other clauses in this Certificate, the person or Company from time to time named in such notice, or if the person be dead, his real and personal representatives, estate and effects shall cease to be so liable only from the time when another name shall have been duly substituted in such notice, pursuant to the provisions of this Certificate. But as between the person or Company from time to time named in such notice, and any other person or Company who in substitution may have become entitled to work the Railway or to the receipt of the tolls or profits of the Railway, the person or Company named in such notice shall be entitled to be recouped and indemnified in respect of any liability incurred, and all costs in reference thereto by the person or Company who shall have so become entitled in substitution.

Notice to be altered only by Order of Sheriff.

26. A notice as to the person or Company working the Railway when once fixed as required by this Certificate, shall not be altered, except upon an order made by the Sheriff of the County of Fife, or his Substitute, who is hereby authorized to make an order, directing an alteration in such notice upon production of a statutory declaration by the person or an officer of the Company whose name is sought to be substituted in the notice to the effect that, by virtue of the deed, will, or other means to be shortly referred to in such declaration, such person or Company is duly entitled to work the Railway, and is about to work the same, or is already duly working the Railway.

Order to be deposited with the Board of Trade.

27. Every order made under the last preceding section, and the statutory declaration whereon the order is grounded shall, within fourteen days after the date of such order, be deposited with the Board of Trade.

In case of default, Tolls not recoverable.

28. If default shall be made in duly fixing and keeping fixed as required by this Certificate at any station of the Railway, the notice as to the person or Company working the Railway, or in depositing with the Board of Trade any order of the Sheriff or his Substitute, or any statutory declaration required to be deposited by the last preceding clause, then all tolls and charges authorized by this Certificate, and which, but for this present provision, would have become due during the period of default, shall absolutely cease to be demandable, payable, or recoverable.

Forms in Schedule.

29. The notice order of Sheriff or his Substitute, and statutory declaration referred to in the preceding clauses of this Certificate, may respectively be in the forms contained in the Schedule C to this Certificate, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

Provision in case of a Company entitled.

30. In case any Company shall be about to work the Railway, any declaration or other act required by this Certificate, but not capable of being made or done by a body corporate, may be made or done on behalf of the Company by the Secretary or by the Chairman of the Directors of the Company.

Costs of Certificate.

31. All costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing for, obtaining, and granting of this Certificate, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss.

Dated this Sixteenth day of October One thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

T. H. FARRER,

Secretary to the Board of Trade.

The Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens.

The Schedules referred to in the foregoing Certificate.

SCHEDULE B.

THIS AGREEMENT entered into and executed by and between James Lindesay, Junior, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh, Commissioner of Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, Esquire, of Wemyss and Torry, conform to Commission dated the eighteenth and twenty-fourth days of October eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, granted by the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, with consent of Mrs. Millicent Erskine Wemyss, relict of James Hay Erskine Wemyss, Esquire, late of Wemyss and Torry, and Sir David Baird, of Newbyth, Baronet, the accepting Curators nominated to the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss by the said James Hay Erskine Wemyss, his father, in favour of the said Mrs. Millicent Erskine Wemyss and the said James Lindesay, Junior, and each of them; and whereby the said James Lindesay, Junior, has full power to enter into this Agreement of the first part (the expression 'the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss' where hereinafter used to mean and include the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, his heirs and assigns, and the said Mrs. Millicent Erskine Wemyss and Sir David Baird, his Curators, until the eleventh day of July eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, when the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss attains majority, and thereafter the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, his heirs and assigns) of the first part, hereinafter called the 'first party,' and the North British Railway Company, incorporated by Act of Parliament, of the second part, hereinafter called the 'second parties,' witnesseth That whereas the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss has applied to the Board of Trade for a Certificate under the 'Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864,' the 'Railways Companies Powers Act, 1864,' and the 'Railways (Powers and Construction) Acts, 1864, Amendment Act, 1870,' for the construction of a Railway to be wholly situate in the county of Fife, and to commence in the parish of Markinch, by a junction with the Leven and East of Fife Branch of the North British Railway, at a point to be agreed on at or near to the Thornton Station of the North British Railway, and to terminate in the parish of Wemyss, at a point at or near to the village of Buckhaven, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and for other purposes, the said Railway being hereinafter called the 'Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway.' And whereas the second parties upon the construction and completion of the said Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway, have agreed to work and maintain the same upon certain terms and conditions. And whereas the said parties with reference to the said Certificate, and in anticipation of its being obtained, have made the following arrangements:—Therefore the said parties hereto have covenanted and agreed with each other, and the said James Lindesay, Junior, does hereby bind and oblige the said Randolph Gordon Erskine Wemyss, and the said second parties do hereby bind and oblige themselves and their successors in manner following, that is to say:—

FIRST.—The expression ‘North British Railway,’ where used in this Agreement, shall mean the Railways of the North British Railway Company, and all other Railways (except the Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway) leased to or worked by the North British Railway Company.

SECOND.—When and as soon as the Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway shall have been constructed and completed as a single line of railway, in a substantial manner, with all the necessary stations, sidings, signals, and other works and appliances necessary for working the traffic thereon, and when the same shall have been joined with the line of the said North British Railway at Thornton Junction, all to the satisfaction of James Bell, Esq., Civil Engineer, Edinburgh, the engineer of the second parties or of their engineer for the time being, and the same shall have been approved of by the Government Inspector, the second parties shall enter upon the use and management of the said Railway, for the purpose of working the traffic upon and maintaining and renewing the same, and shall work, and, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, manage the traffic upon and maintain the said Railway in good and complete order thereafter, and that for the period of ninety-nine years from and after the fifteenth day of May eighteen hundred and eighty-one, and shall provide the locomotive power and rolling stock and plant of every kind necessary for effectually working the traffic of the said Railway during the foresaid period.

THIRD.—If after the opening of the Railway any additions to or extensions of any stations, sidings, or other works or conveniences of the said Railway, in consequence of increased traffic or otherwise, be found by the second parties to be necessary or expedient for the proper working of the traffic of the Railway, such additions and extensions shall be provided by and at the expense of the said first party, and in the event of any questions arising as to the necessity or expediency of such additions and extensions, the same shall be and are hereby referred to the Sheriff of the County of Fife for the time, whose decision shall be final.

FOURTH.—The second parties shall select and appoint all officers, agents, bookkeepers, booking, and other clerks, signalmen, servants, porters, carters, surfacemen, and others to be employed upon or connected with the said Railway, or required for keeping in the offices of the said second parties the accounts connected with the traffic of the Railway, or employed in superintending or directing or actually engaged in conducting the said traffic, and the said officers and others shall be paid by the second parties, and shall be exclusively under their control.

FIFTH.—The second parties shall keep regular and proper books of accounts of the traffic and receipts appertaining to the Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway, and of all other transactions of or in relation to the traffic of the Railway, and the first party or such person or persons as may be duly authorized by the first party, shall at all times have full and free access to the said books, and to all accounts, returns and documents, and vouchers showing or tending to show the amount, extent, and nature of the traffic, and of the rates, charges, and receipts therefor, and to inspect and audit, and take copies of or extracts from the same, and shall be entitled to make all such inquiries and investigations in relation thereto as may be found to be necessary, and the said second parties shall be bound as they hereby bind and oblige themselves to furnish to the first party monthly in each year, and within sixty days after the last day of each month, duly authenticated returns of the traffic, and receipts upon and from the Railway, and of the share of the said receipts due and payable to the first party.

SIXTH.—The local and through traffic of the said Railway, including the fixing of the tolls, rates, charges, and fares to be levied or taken in respect of the said traffic, shall, during the subsistence of this Agreement, be managed by the second parties, and the said Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway shall be treated as a branch of the North British system, and the omnibus coal rates of the district in force from time to time shall be extended to the collieries on the said Railway.

SEVENTH.—The second parties shall run on the said Railway not fewer than three trains each way daily, at hours to be fixed by the second parties and by the first party, all of them to carry passenger traffic; but so as they may be used also as mixed goods or mineral trains, and in the event of any dispute as to the hours at which the said trains shall be run, the same shall be referred to the Sheriff of the County of Fife for the time, whose decision shall be final.

EIGHTH.—The gross revenue accruing to the Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway shall be ascertained and determined as follows, viz. :—

(FIRST.)—The entire receipts, including terminals derived from all local traffic, that is traffic which both arises and terminates upon the Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway, shall, subject only to deduction by the second parties of the actual expense of cartage where incurred, belong and be credited to the said first party.

(SECOND.)—The gross receipts accruing to the first and second parties from through traffic, arising on the Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway, and terminating on the North British Railway or Railways beyond, and vice versa, shall, as between the said first and second parties, be divided between them rateably, according to the mileage over which such traffic shall pass on the said Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway and the North British Railway; but a terminal allowance of one shilling per ton on traffic, carried at rates that include cartage, shall be credited to the first party, and treated as a portion of the receipts of the said Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway, and, in respect of the said traffic, the actual cost of cartage at stations on the Wemyss and Buckhaven Railway shall be paid by the second parties, and deducted from the gross receipts before division.
