COLONIAL OFFICE, March 4, 1880.

The following Proclamation, issued by the Right Honourable Sir Bartle Frere, G.C.B., &c., &c., Governor of the Cape Colony, has been received by the Secretary of State for the Colonies:—

PROCLAMATION.

By his Excellency the Right Honourable Sir Henry Bartle Frere, Baronet, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council,

Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Commander of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner, &c., &c., &c.

Whereas by Act No. 9 of 1876, entitled 'Act to prevent the introduction into this Colony of articles or things which, by reason of disease or otherwise, might be injurious to the interests thereof,' it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation, to be published in the Government Gazette, either to prohibit absolutely the introduction into this Colony of any such articles or things, or to make such regulations concerning the introduction thereof as may be deemed expedient: And whereas it is necessary in the interest of the Colony to prevent the importation of all grapes, vines, or cuttings, or portions of vines, plants, tubers, roots, bulbs, or any portion thereof respectively, from places where disease affecting vines exists, or is supposed to exist, or from which it may be introduced: Now, therefore, I, the Governor aforesaid, in virtue of the powers vested in me by the said Act No. 9 of 1876, do, with the advice of the Executive Council, absolutely prohibit the introduction into this Colony of all grapes, vines, or cuttings, or portions of vines, plants, tubers, roots, bulbs, or any portion or portions thereof respectively, from any
