Published by Authority,

FROM FRIDAY, MARCH 19, TO TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1802.

WESTMINSTER, MARCH 19, 1802.

This day, the Lords being met, and the Commons assembled, the Royal Assent, by commission, was given to

An act for raising the sum of one million by loans or Exchequer bills, for the service of Great Britain for the year 1802.

An act to repeal the duties on cinnamon imported by the East India Company, and on cassia lignea of all sorts, and for granting new duties in lieu thereof; and to repeal the custom duties on certain hides and skins; and to repeal certain duties granted by an act of the last session of Parliament upon box wood imported, and granting new duties in lieu thereof.

An act to indemnify such persons as have omitted to qualify themselves for offices and employments, and to indemnify Justices of the Peace or others who have omitted to register or deliver in their qualifications within the time directed by law, and for extending the time limited for those purposes until the 25th day of December 1802, to indemnify members and officers in cities, corporations, and borough towns, whose admissions have been omitted to be stamped according to law, or having been stamped, have been lost or mislaid, and for allowing them until the 25th day of December 1802 to provide admissions duly stamped; to permit such persons as have omitted to make and file the same on or before the first day of Michaelmas term 1802; to allow, until the 24th day of December 1802, persons who have omitted to pay the duties on the indentures and contracts of clerks, apprentices, or servants to make payment of the same; to indemnify such persons as have neglected to obtain certificates of admission as solicitors or attornies, notaries or proctors, and for extending the time limited for that purpose until two months after the passing of this act to indemnify persons who have printed or published pleadings and other proceedings in courts of law or equity upon which the name and place of abode of the printer has not been printed; and for indemnifying Deputy Lieutenants and officers of the militia, who have neglected to transmit descriptions of their qualifications to the Clerks of the Peace within the time directed by law, and for extending the time limited for that purpose, until the 1st of September 1802.

An act for making perpetual so much of an act made in the nineteenth year of the reign of his present Majesty as relates to the allowing a drawback of the duties on rum shipped as stores to be consumed on board merchant ships on their voyages; and to continue several laws relating to the permitting the exportation of tobacco pipe clay from Great Britain to the British sugar colonies in the West Indies until the 24th of June 1808; to the giving further encouragement to the importation of naval stores from the British colonies in America, until the 29th of September 1812; to the regulating the payment of the duties on cinnamon, cloves, nutmegs, and mace; to the allowing the importation of certain fish from Newfoundland and the coast of Labrador until the 24th June 1808; and to the allowing the importation and exportation of goods from and to India and China in ships not of British built during the continuance of the exclusive trade to and from the East Indies granted to the East India Company by an act of the 33d year of his present Majesty's reign.

An act for continuing until the 25th of December 1804, the bounties granted for the encouragement of the Greenland Whale Fisheries, and for continuing and amending the regulations respecting the same.

And to 14 English road and private acts.
