man of the Commissioners under 'The Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878,' declines to take any part in the present Petition) the whole Trustees of the late James Schaw, Esq. of Preston, in the County of East Lothian, acting under (1) Trust-Disposition and Settlement by the said James Schaw, dated 4th December 1781, and recorded in the Books of Session (Office O. M.) 20th December 1784; (2) Deed of Divestment and Reconveyance by the Primary Trustees named in the foresaid original Deed of Settlement, in favour of the Residuary Trustees thereby appointed, dated 28th November 1787, and recorded in the Books of Session (Office O. M.) 30th November 1787; and (3) Royal Charter of Incorporation, dated 25th January, and written to the Seal and registered and sealed 5th April, all in the year 1830;—and said Petition is in the following terms:—

THAT the Petitioners, incorporated as aforesaid by Royal Charter, under the Name and Title of 'JAMES SCHAW'S HOSPITAL,' are desirous of availing themselves of the 'Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878,' 41 and 42 Victoria, chapter 48, in order that provision may be made for the better government and administration of the Hospital under their charge.

That it is by the Fourth Section of the said Act enacted that 'It shall be lawful for the governing body of any endowed Institution in Scotland, at a meeting specially called for the purpose at a month's notice, to resolve, by a majority of those present at the meeting, that it is expedient that provision should be made for the better government and administration of such Institution, or for the better application of the endowments thereof, or for the transference of such Institution and the endowments thereof, and that an application should be made to the Secretary of State for a provisional order.'

That it is by the Fifth Section enacted, that 'On the foresaid resolution being carried, it shall be lawful for the said governing body to present a petition to the Secretary of State, setting out such resolution, and stating the provisions for the better government and administration of such Institution, or the better application of the endowments thereof which they desire to have sanctioned. Upon receipt of any such petition as aforesaid, the Secretary of State may, if he shall think fit, direct such petition to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette in two consecutive numbers thereof, and in one or more newspapers circulating in the county or counties where such Institution is situated, with a view to further inquiry.'

That it is by the Sixth Section enacted, that 'The Secretary of State may, if he shall think fit, by writing under his hand, remit to the Commissioners hereinafter mentioned to inquire into the said petition and report thereon to the said Secretary of State; and for the purposes of such inquiry, which shall be held in public, the said Commissioners shall have power, after such public notice as they may think sufficient, to examine witnesses on oath, and to call for such information from, and to require the production of such documents by, the governing body or any other persons as they may consider necessary, and to do all such matters and things as may seem to them expedient for the purposes of the inquiry. After the holding of such inquiry the Commissioners shall report to the Secretary of State as to whether, in their opinion, the provisional order prayed for should be made, and if so, with what, if any, alterations or modifications therein.'

That it is by the Seventh Section enacted, that 'It shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to issue a provisional order in relation to the several things mentioned in the foresaid petition, either in accordance therewith, or with such alterations or modifications, not being inconsistent with the general principles thereof, as may appear to him to be requisite, or otherwise to refuse to issue such provisional order.'

'Provided always, that in every such provisional order provision shall be made for saving or making due compensation for the vested interests to which any teacher, master, officer, scholar, bursar, exhibitor, pensioner, or other shall be entitled at the date of such order.'

'Provided also, that if the provisional order shall contain any alterations or modifications as aforesaid, the Secretary of State shall, before signing the order, cause a copy of it to be sent to the governing body, who may, if they think fit, state in writing to the Secretary of State any objections or suggestions respecting such order within one month after the copy thereof was sent to the governing body; and the Secretary of State shall, if he think fit, remit to the Commissioners to report on such objections and suggestions, and shall consider the same, together with the report of the Commissioners.'

That it is by the Eighth Section enacted, that 'The provisional order aforesaid shall not have any effect or operation unless and until the same has been laid before both Houses of Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State, and he is hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be, to cause such provisional order to be laid before both Houses of Parliament; and after such provisional order has lain forty days before Parliament, then, unless within such forty days a resolution has been adopted by one or other of the said Houses disapproving of the said order, such provisional order shall come into operation.'

That it is by the Tenth Section enacted, that 'It shall be lawful for the governing body of an endowed Institution to apply for a provisional order, and such order may provide for the transference of the Institution, and the endowments of such Institution, or part thereof, to the governing body of one or more other endowed Institutions, or to one or more School Boards, subject to the provisions contained in such order.'

That it is by the Fourteenth Section enacted, that 'Nothing herein contained shall be held to limit any of the powers presently enjoyed by any governing body under any Act of Parliament, or provisional order, or charter, or by the foundation grant of the endowed Institution under their government.'

The Petitioners are of opinion that the interests of 'James Schaw's Hospital' would be greatly promoted by their availing themselves of the provisions of the Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878, and that the efficiency of the Hospital would not only be increased, but its usefulness very considerably extended, by their taking advantage of the said Act.

With the view of ascertaining the opinions of the Trustees as to whether any action should be taken by Schaw's Hospital in regard to said Act, a Committee, consisting of the Rev. Dr. Struthers, the Rev. Dr. Cæsar, Mr. David Dickson, Mr. John Scott Moncrieff, and Mr. John Maclaren, was appointed at the Quarterly General Meeting of Trustees on 18th October 1878, to consider the matter and to report.

The Committee presented their Report to the Quarterly General Meeting of Trustees on 31st January 1879, when the following Resolution was unanimously agreed to, viz.:—'The Meeting approved of the Committee's Report, and re-committed the whole matter to the same Committee, with the addition of Mr. Harrison, Treasurer of the City, in order that a Scheme might be prepared embodying the changes in the Institution suggested in the Report, with the view of being submitted to a Special Meeting of the Trustees in terms of the Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878, for their approval.'

A Scheme was accordingly prepared and forwarded to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department on 16th June 1879, but this Scheme, after having been remitted to and reported upon by the Commissioners under the Endowed Institutions Act, has been refused. The present Scheme has been drawn up with the consent of the Home Secretary, and upon the lines suggested by the Commissioners in their Report to him.

The following explanations relative to the Foundation, Management, and Benefits of the Hospital are humbly submitted:—

The late Dr. James Schaw of Preston, in the county of East Lothian (the founder of the Hospital), died on 3d November 1784, leaving a Trust-Disposition and Settlement dated 4th December 1781, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session 20th December 1784. [Copy Settlement hereto annexed.]

For the establishment and foundation of which institution, and of all regulations and arrangements necessary and proper for communicating and perpetuating the benefit thereof, I do hereby vest my said trustees last mentioned, and their quorum aforesaid, with the most ample and unlimited powers; ratifying hereby and approving of the whole plan, regulations, and arrangements so to be made and established by them, and declaring the same to be as valid, binding, and effectual in every respect, as if made and established by myself, and herein particularly engrossed. Provided only, as it is hereby, and shall be by my said trustees or their quorum, expressly provided and declared, as among the fundamental and unalterable rules to be established and observed with respect to said proposed institution: First, That the objects of said charity shall, as above mentioned, be poor boys, and such only. Secondly, That, in the choice of the children to be admitted to the benefit of said institution, there shall uniformly and perpetually be given a preference to those of the surname of Schaw and Macneill; and, next after them, to those of the surname of Cunninghame and Stewart. Thirdly, That the children of these surnames so to be admitted shall be truly in poor and indigent circumstances, so as to stand in need of this charity, and shall, by certificates of unquestionable truth and authority, be attested as proper objects in these respects, before admission. Fourthly, That said children shall not be admitted under the age of four years, nor above the age of seven years, and shall be free of the king's evil, and of all contagious diseases; nor shall any boy be allowed to remain in the hospital after attaining to the age of fourteen years. And, fifthly, That the foresaid lands and barony of Preston, and residue of my other estates, hereinbefore appointed to be applied for the purpose of founding and endowing the aforesaid hospital or charitable institution, shall be considered, and is hereby declared to be the stock or capital of said foundation, never to be diminished or encroached on; nor shall the said lands and barony of Preston ever be sold or alienated, under any pretext whatever, but shall be let out in lease from time to time, by the directors of the aforesaid institution, appointed or to be appointed in manner before specified: the house of Preston itself shall be fitted up, under direction of my said trustees, to receive as many boys as can be conveniently accommodated in it, until the institution shall be put upon a more mature and perfect establishment, when my said trustees may judge it proper to cause erect a suitable building for the purpose, which I recommend to them in that case to cause be done in a neat, plain, frugal manner, studying therein use more than ornament, and keeping always in their eye the meaning of this institution, and the diffusing the benefits thereof as extensively as the funds will admit, to the poor boys who are the objects thereof; and the yearly rents and produce of the said lands and barony of Preston, with the yearly interest and produce of my said other funds, destined for the purposes of founding, supporting, and perpetuating the said institution, shall be applied solely to these purposes, and to no other use or purpose whatsoever. Under which conditions, provisions, and declarations, these presents are granted, and shall be accepted by my said trustees allenarly, as the said Trust-Deed and Settlement, containing sundry other clauses, in itself more fully bears.

The said Dr. James Schaw, by deed of nomination relative to the said Trust-Deed and Settlement, and of even date therewith, and in order to render said Trust-Deed more complete and effectual, nominated and appointed James Balmain, Esq., one of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Board of Excise in Scotland; Alexander Alison, Esq., Deputy-Cashier of Excise; George Fairholme of Greenhill, Esq.; Alexander Thomson, Accountant of Excise, and Robert Boswell, Writer to the Signet, and such of them as should accept, and the survivors and last survivor of those accepting, to be his executors, universal legators, and intromitters with his whole moveable means and estate, which should pertain and belong to him at the time of his death, but in trust always for the uses, intents, and purposes specified in the foresaid Deed of Trust, and with and under the burdens, conditions, and provisions therein expressed, as the said Deed of Nomination, recorded in the Books of Council and Session as aforesaid, the 20th day of December 1784, in itself also more fully bears; which last-mentioned Deed of Appointment of Executors, together with the said Deed of Trust to which it relates, was also duly proved in the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and administration granted to the parties therein named, conform to Probate of the same, under seal of the said Prerogative Court, dated the 7th day of June 1785.

The parties named by the above Trust-Disposition and Settlement, and Deed of Nomination of Executors relative thereto, having all accepted of the offices of trustees and executors thereby conferred upon them, entered upon the possession and management of the whole estate, and made payment of the Trustee's funeral expenses, and of his just and lawful debts, and of the legacies and other bequests in favour of Jean Schaw, his daughter, and of the various other legacies specified in said Trust-Deed and Settlement; and, having been advised by Counsel, with the view of carrying out the ultimate purpose of the Trust-Deed, viz., the founding and establishing of the Hospital therein mentioned, that they might legally, properly, and effectually denude themselves of the trust vested in them by said Trust-Deed and Settlement, in favour of the second set of Trustees named in said settlement, executed a Deed of Divestment and Reconveyance in favour of the said second set of Trustees, dated the 28th, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session the 30th days of November, both in the year 1787 [Copy hereto annexed], whereby, in terms of the Trust-Deed before mentioned, they re-conveyed and disposed to and in favour of themselves during their lives, and to the other persons therein before and after mentioned, viz.:—'The Right Honourable John Earl of Hyndford, present proprietor of the estate of Prestongrange, or any other the proprietor of the said estate of Prestongrange for the time; James Syme, Esq., present proprietor of the estate of Northfield in the neighbourhood of Preston, or any other the proprietor of the said estate of Northfield for the time; the Minister of the parish of Prestonpans, and the Minister of the parish of Tranent, for the time; the Sheriff-Depute of the shire of Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Depute of the shire of Haddington, for the time; the Lord Provost, the Eldest Bailie, the Dean of Guild, and Treasurer of the City of Edinburgh, for the time; the Preses and Treasurer of the Merchant Maiden Hospital for the time; the Preses and Treasurer of George Watson's Hospital for the time; and the Preses and Treasurer of the Orphans' Hospital for the time; the Principal of the University of Edinburgh for the time; and the Ministers of the aforesaid parish of West Church for the time; declaring any seven of the said persons to be a quorum,' and to such of the aforesaid whole persons as should accept, and to their assignees: in trust always to the ends, uses, and purposes thereafter mentioned, and with and under the burdens, provisions, and declarations thereafter specified: All and whatsoever estates, lands, tenements, heritages, debts, and sums, goods, gear, and other heritable and moveable means and effects of whatever nature, denomination, or designation the same be, either in Great Britain, the West Indies, or elsewhere, which belonged to the said deceased James Schaw at the time of his death, and to which the said original Trustees acquired or might have acquired right, as his trustees or executors, in virtue of the deeds before recited: Excepting only in so far as the state of the subjects conveyed by the said Trust-Deed had been altered or innovated, in consequence of the intromissions and management of said original Trustees under the sanction of the said Deed. And particularly, the said original Trustees thereby conveyed and disposed to and in favour of themselves, and the other persons before named, and to such of them as should accept, and their quorum, as said is, and to their assignees, the special subjects, heritable and moveable, thereafter specified, viz., All and Whole the aforesaid lands and barony of Preston and Prestonpans, &c.—[Follows a particular description and enumeration of the subjects disposed.]—But which whole subjects, heritable and moveable, before conveyed should be held by said original Trustees and the persons before named, and their quorum, as aforesaid, in trust, and should be applied, as they and said original Trustees were thereby expressly bound and obliged to apply the same to and for the ends, uses, and purposes following, viz., In the first place, for payment and discharge of any debts and obligations, if any such there be yet resting-owing, and undischarged by the said deceased James Schaw, at the time of his death, and the other purposes mentioned in said Deed of Divestment and Reconveyance; 'And lastly, The foresaid lands and barony of Preston, together with the free residue of the whole other heritable and moveable estate before disposed, after fulfilment of the other purposes of the trust, to be employed for the special intent and purpose of founding and endowing an Hospital, or charitable institution, for the aliment, clothing, and education of poor boys, and also for binding said boys apprentices, or otherwise setting them out to business, all in the manner, and with the powers particularly specified in the aforesaid Deed of Trust; but always with and under the fundamental and unalterable rules and provisions in the said deed, and herein particularly before expressed; under which burdens, conditions, provisions, and declarations, these presents are granted, and shall be accepted of allenary: And under which burdens, provisions, and declarations we do hereby denude and divest ourselves of the aforesaid trust committed to us, and declare the same to be fully terminated and extinguished, and all the powers hitherto vested in us by ourselves, along with the other and further powers before mentioned, to be all now vested in us conjunctly with the other trustees before named; declaring always, that the said trustees hereby named, shall, by acceptation hereof, be, as they are hereby bound and obliged to ratify, homologate, and approve of our whole transactions and management, during the period of our officiating as trustees aforesaid; and to warrant us against all the effects and consequences of the same, and all the other consequences of every kind, of our accepting and acting under the said trust, in manner before specified; and that no claim or demand shall, under any pretext whatsoever, be made against us, or any of us, or our heirs, on account of our said management or intrusions; but that the said trustees hereby named shall be understood, before acceptance of the trust hereby committed to them, to have satisfied themselves of our faithful execution of the trust reposed in us, and of our having fairly and fully accounted for the whole of the trust-funds under our charge; under which declaration also these presents are granted, and shall be accepted of allenary; but it is hereby provided and declared, that nothing contained in the above declaration and obligation, or any part of this deed, shall be construed to bind the said residuary trustees personally, or subject their own private means or estate to any action, claim, or demand whatever, but that the same is granted by them merely as trustees, under the settlement of the said deceased James Schaw; declaring also, as it is, by the aforesaid Deed of Trust, expressly provided and declared, that the trustees hereby named, shall not be liable for omissions, neglects, or insolvency of debtors or tenants, nor for the intrusions of any factors or attorneys, whom they shall find it necessary to appoint to act under them, in the management of the trust hereby committed to them, nor shall they be liable in solidum or each for others, but each of the said trustees for his own actual and personal intrusions only,' as the said Deed of Divestment and Reconveyance, containing sundry other clauses, in itself more fully bears.

All the persons named as Residuary Trustees in the Deed of Divestment and Reconveyance before mentioned, accepted of the trust thereby committed to them, except the late Earl of Hyndford, Mr. James Syme of Northfield, the then Sheriff-Depute of Edinburgh, and the then Sheriff-Depute of Haddington; and a Charter under the Great Seal, of the estate of Preston, was passed in their favour, dated 20th December 1787, on which they were infest the 21st, and the sasine thereon recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the shire of Edinburgh, &c., the 22d January 1788.

The Residuary Trustees were incorporated under the name and title of 'James Schaw's Hospital' in the year 1830, conform to Royal Charter of Incorporation in their favour dated 25th January, and written to the Seal and registered and sealed 5th April 1830.

In pursuance of the Truster's object and directions, the Mansion-house of Preston was fitted up as an Hospital in the year 1789, when 20 boys were admitted as Foundationers. The Mansion-house continued to be occupied as an Hospital till the year 1831, when the present Hospital Building was erected.

In the year 1864 the Trustees, with the view of promoting the better education and upbringing of the Foundationers, resolved to admit a limited number of Boys as Day-Scholars, under certain regulations, and in 1868 they further agreed to admit a limited number of Boys as Boarders. Both these changes have been fraught with much benefit, and a very marked improvement has been observed in the Foundationers by the introduction of Day-Scholars and Boarders.

The average number of Boys maintained, clothed, and educated in the Institution during the ninety years of its existence has been twenty-two per annum.

Coal having been found upon the Estate, the same was let on lease in the year 1833, at the fixed rent of £200 per annum, and several subsequent Leases have been entered into, but latterly at reduced rents and royalties, owing to the coal seams diminishing in extent as the mineral came to be gradually worked out. The average annual Return from coal for the last ten years has been about £173, and the Trustees are given to understand that in a very few years the coal which is at present being worked will be exhausted, so that, when that period arrives, a diminution in the Rental of about £173 per annum will take place, unless further coal is found and worked.

Looking to the limited number of Boys which this sum would be able to maintain and educate, the Trustees have lately been giving their anxious consideration to the subject of altering and improving the present administration of the Hospital, in virtue of 'The Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878.'

Under and in terms of the said Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878, a Meeting of the Trustees was called in due form, and was held in Edinburgh on Wednesday, 12th March 1879. The Trustees present at said Meeting resolved as follows :—

'First, That it is expedient that provision should be made for the better government and administration of James Schaw's Hospital, and the better application of the Endowments thereof, whereby the usefulness and efficiency of the Hospital may be increased, and the benefits thereof extended, in terms of the Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878.

'Second, That a Petition be presented to the Secretary of State, setting out such Resolution, and stating, under distinct heads or articles, all facts or circumstances pertinent to such Petition, and stating also the provisions for the better government and administration of James Schaw's Hospital and the better application of the Endowments thereof, which they desire to have sanctioned, and the reasons for which the said Provisions are considered necessary or expedient for the purposes mentioned in the said Resolution.'

In terms of the said Resolutions come to at that Meeting, and at subsequent Meetings, this Petition and relative proposed Provisional Order is presented.

May it therefore please The Right Honourable Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, to take this Petition into his consideration, and after taking such steps as he may think proper, to issue, in the exercise of the powers conferred on him by the said Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act, 1878, a Provisional Order under his hand and seal of office in relation to the several things mentioned in the foresaid Petition, in the terms or to the effect set forth in the Document entitled 'Proposed Provisional Order for James Schaw's Hospital,' lodged herewith.

And your Petitioners will ever pray.
