TO THE CREDITORS OF

MESS. M'KNIGHT & M'ILWRAITH
Merchants in Ayr, and of David M'Knight and John M'Ilwraith, the individual partners of said Company.

That upon application by the said Company, and the said David M'Knight and John M'Ilwraith as individuals, with concurrence of one of their creditors to the extent required by law, the Lord Dunsinnan, Ordinary officiating on the bills, by an interlocutor of this date, sequestrated the whole heritable and personal estates of the said Mess. M'Knight and M'Ilwraith as a Company, and the said David M'Knight and John M'Ilwraith as individuals; and appointed their creditors to meet at Ayr, within the house of Mrs Simson, vintner, on Thursday the 5th day of May next, at 12 o'clock noon, to chuse an interim factor; and also appointed the creditors to meet at same place and hour, upon Thursday the 20th day of same month, to elect a trustee—Of which notice is hereby given in terms of the statute.

EDINB. April 21. 1852.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

DAVID MIFFAN, Merchant, Dundee
That a second state of the affairs of the said David Miffan, and a scheme of division of his funds have been made up, which may be seen in the hands of William Small, writer in Dundee, the trustee, till the 7th of May next, when such of the creditors as have lodged grounds of debt, and oaths of verity since the first dividend was made, are requested to meet in the house of Alexander Morren, vintner there, to receive the dividends due to them. No dividend at present will be paid to the creditors who received the first, but it is requested they will also attend the above meeting, for the purpose of giving the necessary instructions for the trustee in winding up the bankrupt's affairs.

NOTICE TO THE RELATIONS OF

THE deceased ALEXANDER CUTHILL, of the parish of Trelawney, in the island of Jamaica.

The said Alexander Cuthill, by his Last Will, which is dated the 19th day of May 1851, after directing his Debts and some Legacies to be paid, gave and bequeathed the Residue of his WHOLE ESTATE unto all his COUSINS GERMAN, to be equally divided amongst them share and share alike.

The defunct's Cousins German are therefore required to apply to John Leekie, writer in Glasgow, agent for Mr Cuthill's executors, and to produce proper evidence of their relationship.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

PETER LESLIE, Vintner in Edinburgh.

James Eyre, brewer at Canonmills, trustee on the sequestrated estate of said Peter Leslie, hereby intimates to the creditor, that at a meeting held of this date, the said Peter Leslie proposed a composition of the whole debts, at the rate of five Shillings per Pound, payable by equal instalments at three and six months (reserving to the heritable creditors the effects of their grounds of debt and diligences), with caution to the satisfaction of the creditors then present, which they thought should be accepted of.—Therefore the trustee desires the creditors to meet within the house of Mrs Murray, vintner, Parliament Close, on Friday the 14th of May next, at one afternoon, to consider the propriety of accepting the composition offered.

EDINB. April 21. 1852.
