FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

DOWNING STREET—April 21. 1802.
THIS morning the Hon. Henry Pierpont, dispatched by Anthony Merry, Esq. his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the French Republic, arrived with the ratification by the First Consul of the French Republic, of the definitive treaty, signed the 27th of last month; which was exchanged with Mr Merry against that of his Majesty on the 18th instant, at Paris, by the Plenipotentiary of the French Republic.

APRIL 26.

Last night one of the King's Messengers, dispatched by Anthony Merry, Esq. his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the French Republic, arrived with the ratifications by his Catholic Majesty, and by the Batavian Government, of the definitive treaty of peace, signed the 27th of last month; which were exchanged with Mr Merry against those of his Majesty on the 23d instant, at Paris, by the Plenipotentiaries of his Catholic Majesty and of the Batavian Republic.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS a definitive treaty of peace and friendship between us, the French Republic, his Catholic Majesty, and the Batavian Republic, hath been concluded at Amiens, on the twenty-seventh day of March last, and the ratifications thereof have been duly exchanged: In conformity thereto, we have thought fit hereby to command that the same be published throughout all our dominions: And we do declare to all our loving subjects our will and pleasure, that the said treaty of peace and friendship be observed inviolably as well by sea as land, and in all places whatsoever; strictly charging and commanding all our loving subjects to take notice hereof, and to conform themselves thereunto accordingly.

[Price Sixpence.]

Given at our Court at Windsor, the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and two, in the forty-second year of our reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION,
DECLARING THE CONCLUSION OF THE WAR.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an act passed in the thirty-fourth year of our reign, intituled, An act for the further encouragement of British mariners, and for other purposes therein mentioned, various provisions are made, which are directed to take effect from and after the expiration of six months from the conclusion of the then existing war, to be notified in manner therein mentioned, and it is thereby further enacted, that, for the purposes of the said act, the conclusion of the said war shall be holden to be from the time that that the same shall be notified by our royal proclamation, or order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette: and whereas a definitive treaty of peace has been duly ratified between us, the French Republic, his Catholic Majesty, and the Batavian Republic; we have therefore thought fit, by and with advice of our Privy Council, for the purposes of the said act, hereby to notify and declare the conclusion of the said war, by this our royal proclamation, to be published in the London Gazette; and we do direct the same to be published accordingly.

Given at our Court at Windsor the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and two, in the forty-second year of our reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION,
FOR A PUBLIC THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in his great goodness, to put an end to the late bloody, extended, and expensive war, in which we were engaged; we therefore, adoring the Divine goodness, and duly considering that the great and public blessings of peace do call for public and solemn acknowledgments, have thought fit, by the advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our royal proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding, that a general thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these his mercies, be observed throughout those parts of our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Tuesday the first day of June next: and for the better and more devout solemnization of the same, we have given directions to the most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a form of prayer suitable to this occasion, to be used in all churches and chapels, and other places of public worship, and to take care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective dioceses: And we do strictly charge and command, that the said public day of thanksgiving be religiously observed by all our loving subjects, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and upon pain of suffering such punishment as we may justly inflict upon all such as shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at our Court at Windsor, the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and two, in the forty-second year of our reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.
