DUBLIN CASTLE, January 3, 1883.

Her Majesty's Letters Patent have passed the Great Seal of Ireland, appointing Andrew Marshall Porter, Esquire, Q.C., to be Her Majesty's Attorney-General in Ireland, in the room of the Right Honourable William Moore Johnson, appointed a Judge of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in Ireland.

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE,
DUBLIN CASTLE, January 5, 1883.

Her Majesty, by Her Royal Letter, having appointed Andrew Marshall Porter, Esq., Q.C., M.P., Attorney-General for Ireland, to be of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in Ireland, he this day, in Council, took the usual oaths and his place at the Board accordingly.

W. S. B. KAYE.

TREASURY CHAMBERS, January 4, 1883.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, hereby gives notice that the undermentioned offices in the Scotch Prison Service are added to Schedule B of the Order in Council of the 4th of June 1870, viz. :—

Chaplains and Visiting Clergymen of General and Local Prisons who are not required to give their whole time to the Public Service.'

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

January 5, 1883.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the Situation of Assistant of Excise in the Department of Inland Revenue.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future examinations.

1. The limits of age for this situation are 19 and 22. Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the month in which the examination is held.

2. Candidates must be unmarried and without family.

3. No person who has been previously successful in an examination for the situation of Assistant of Excise, and has passed into actual employment in that capacity, will be eligible to compete.

4. The examination will be in the following subjects, viz.:—

(A.) Obligatory:	Marks.
1. Handwriting	400
2. Orthography	400
3. Arithmetic (to Vulgar and Decimal Fractions)	400
4. English Composition	400
(B.) Optional:
5. Higher Arithmetic, including Mensuration, Square and Cube Root, &c.	400
6. Geography, especially that of the British Isles	400

5. A fee will be required from each candidate attending the examination, according to the scale laid down under the Order in Council of 22d March 1879, by notice in the London Gazette of 29th April 1881.

6. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may appoint.

7. Each examination will have reference to such number of vacancies as may be specified in any notice of such examination published, with the approval of the Lords of the Treasury, in the London Gazette.

ASSISTANT SURVEYORS OF TAXES.

A further competition following each Excise examination, and open to all candidates who have succeeded therein, will be held for the situation of Assistant Surveyor of Taxes, subject to the under-mentioned conditions, viz.:—

1. The subjects of the further examination are—
 1. Translation from and into either French, German, or Latin.
 2. First three books of Euclid.
 3. Algebra, up to and including Quadratic Equations.
 4. Book-keeping by Double Entry.
 5. Political Economy (so far as relates to Rates and Taxes).

2. Candidates must pass in Book-keeping and in two at least of the subjects numbered 1, 2, 3, 5. The marks obtained in the examination for first entrance as Assistant of Excise will not be counted.

3. The greatest number of appointments which may be given on the result of any further competition will be the number estimated as likely to occur within six months from the date of that competition. This number will be stated at the time of declaring the result of such competition. These appointments will, as a rule, be given to the candidates highest on the list in order of merit, provided they shall have given proof, as Assistants of Excise, of their possessing the requisite practical qualifications; but the Board of Inland Revenue are not pledged in any way to give an Assistant Surveyorship to any candidate on account of his success in the examination.

4. A fee will be required from every candidate attending one of these further examinations, according to the scale laid down, under the Order in Council of 22d March 1879, by notice in the London Gazette of 29th April 1881.

5. Application for permission to attend a further examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, January 5, 1883.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for the situation of Out-door Officer in Her Majesty's Customs will be held under the Special Regulations, dated 23d June 1882, and published in the London Gazette of the same date, on Friday the 16th February 1883, in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Liverpool, Bristol, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Hull, Leeds, Portsmouth, Plymouth, Swansea, Glasgow, Aberdeen, Cork, Belfast, and Limerick.

Appointments will be given to the first 30 candidates on the list, if duly qualified in respect of age, health, physical qualifications, and character.

No person will be admitted to compete for whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 2d February, an 'application,' in the handwriting of the candidate, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
