PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE, February 23, 1883.

Notice is hereby given that the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons have presented a Petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying for the grant of a Supplemental Charter, as follows:—

DRAFT SUPPLEMENTAL CHARTER

OF THE

ROYAL COLLEGE OF VETERINARY SURGEONS.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith—To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting!

Whereas by Our Royal Charter or Letters Patent, granted on the 8th day of March, in the seventh year of Our reign, and hereinafter referred to as the Charter of 1844, We were graciously pleased to grant, ordain, and declare that Thomas Turner, William Joseph Goodwin, Thomas Mayer, William Dick, William Sewell, Charles Spooner, and James Beart Simonds, together with such other persons as then held certificates of qualification to practise as Veterinary Surgeons granted by the Royal Veterinary College of London or by the Veterinary College of Edinburgh respectively, and such other persons as then were or might thereafter become Students of the Royal Veterinary College of London, or of the Veterinary College of Edinburgh, or of such other Veterinary Colleges, corporate or unincorporate, as then were or thereafter should be established for the purposes of education in Veterinary Surgery, whether in London or elsewhere in the United Kingdom, and which We or Our Royal Successors should under Our sign manual authorize in that behalf, and should pass such examination as might be required by the orders, rules, and bye-laws which should be framed and confirmed pursuant to such Charter or Letters Patent, should be members of and form one body politic and corporate by the name of 'The Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons' (hereinafter referred to as the 'Royal College'), by which name they should have a perpetual succession, and a common seal, with such powers as in the same Charter mentioned:

And whereas by Our Royal Charters or Letters Patent, granted respectively on the 23d day of August, in the fortieth year of Our reign, and on the 15th day of January, in the forty-second year of Our reign (hereinafter respectively referred to as the Charter of 1876 and the Charter of 1879), We did make further provision for the government and regulation of the affairs of the said Royal College:

And whereas by the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1881, further provision was made for keeping the Register of Veterinary Surgeons directed to be kept by the Charter of 1876, and for preventing unqualified persons assuming the title of Veterinary Surgeon or Veterinary Practitioner or other similar title, and for other purposes; and the said Charters of 1844, 1876, and 1879 were confirmed, except so far as altered, or inconsistent with the said Act, but not so as to prevent the making of any amendment thereof or addition thereto by any supplemental Charter not being inconsistent with the said Act:

And whereas the Charter of 1844 authorizes the Council of the said Royal College from time to time to make, alter, suspend, and repeal orders, rules, and bye-laws for (among other things) fixing and determining the times and places and manner of examining Students educated at the said Royal Veterinary College of London, or the Veterinary

College of Edinburgh, or such other Veterinary Colleges as hereinbefore mentioned, who may be desirous of becoming members of the said Royal College, and for regulating the nature and extent of such examinations, and for the appointment of persons to examine and determine upon the fitness and qualification of such Students, and for the admission or rejection of such Students as members of the said Royal College :

And whereas doubts have been raised as to the extent of the power of the Council to make orders, rules, or bye-laws under the provisions of the Charter of 1844, and it appears to Us expedient to amend those provisions :

And whereas by the Charter of 1844 the fee or fees chargeable for admission as a member of the said Royal College is or are limited to a maximum sum of Ten Guineas, and in view of the increased expense of holding examinations of candidates for membership consequent on the progress and extension of veterinary knowledge, it appears to Us expedient to authorize an increase of the said maximum to a sum not exceeding Fifteen Guineas, and also to authorize the Council of the said Royal College to demand and receive a fee or fees in respect of registration of any person as a member of the said Royal College not exceeding Five Guineas :

And whereas it is expedient to make provision respecting the grant of the Diploma of Membership of the said Royal College to persons entitled under section 13 of the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1881, to be registered as Colonial or Foreign Practitioners :

And whereas the provisions of the Charter of 1844 respecting the date of retirement from office of the President, Vice-Presidents, and Secretary require amendment :

And whereas under the Charter of 1844 the President, Vice-Presidents, and Secretary of the said Royal College are appointed at a meeting of the Council held in every year before the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the Annual General Meeting, and by the Charter of 1876 the Council of the said Royal College are directed on the day of the Annual General Meeting of the members of the said Royal College in every year to appoint a fit and proper person as a Registrar, and it appears to Us expedient that the Registrar be also appointed in every year at the same Meeting as the President, Vice-Presidents, and Secretary :

Now know ye that We, of Our especial grace and mere motion, at the humble petition of the said Royal College, have willed, ordained, constituted, declared, and granted, and by these presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do will, ordain, constitute, and declare, and unto the said College do grant in manner following (that is to say) :—

I. (1.) It shall be lawful for the Council of the said Royal College (without prejudice to any power conferred by the Charters of 1844, 1876, and 1879) to make any orders, rules, or bye-laws for prescribing or regulating, in the case of Students of any of the Veterinary Colleges hereinbefore mentioned who may be desirous of becoming members of the said Royal College, all or any of the following matters (that is say) :

The period of pupilage with a registered Veterinary Surgeon or Surgeons before admission as a member of the said Royal College ;

The minimum age of candidates for examination or admission as members of the said Royal College.

(2.) It shall be lawful for the Council of the said Royal College from time to time to alter, suspend, or repeal any such orders, rules, or bye-laws, and to make new orders, rules, or bye-laws in their stead, as the Council may think proper and expedient, so that the same be not repugnant to these presents or to the laws of this Our realm.

II. (1.) Notwithstanding anything in the Charter of 1844, the Council of the said Royal College may demand and receive from any candidate at an examination of Students desirous of becoming members of the said Royal College, a fee or fees not exceeding in the whole the sum of Fifteen Guineas.

(2.) The Council of the said Royal College may also demand and receive from any person on registration in the Register of Veterinary Surgeons, a fee not exceeding the sum of Five Guineas.

III. It shall be lawful for the Council of the said Royal College from time to time to grant (either after or without previous examination) to any person entitled to be registered under section 13 of the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1881, a Diploma of Membership.

IV. Notwithstanding anything in the Charter of 1844, the President, Vice-Presidents, and Secretary shall continue in office till the Meeting of the Council at which their successors are appointed, and on the appointment of their respective successors they shall respectively retire from office.

V. Notwithstanding anything in the Charter of 1876, the Registrar of the said Royal College shall be appointed by the Council at the yearly Meeting at which the President, Vice-Presidents, and Secretary are appointed, and shall hold office till the appointment of his successor.

And We do hereby further declare Our will and pleasure to be that, except in the respects hereby altered, the said Royal College and the Council of the same shall have and continue to have all such and the same jurisdiction, powers, and authorities for the making, ordaining, confirming, annulling, or revoking orders, rules, and bye-laws, and transacting and ordaining all other matters and things whatsoever for the regulation, government, and advantage of the said Royal College, as the said Royal College and the Council thereof respectively had under the Charters of 1844, 1876, and 1879, or any of them, or in any other lawful manner.

And We do hereby for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, further grant unto the said Royal College that these Our Letters Patent, on the enrolment or exemplification thereof, shall be in and by all things good, firm, valid, sufficient, and effectual in the law according to the true intent and meaning thereof, notwithstanding the not fully or duly reciting the said Charters, or any other omission, imperfection, defect, matter, cause, or thing whatsoever, the same or any rule or law to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

In witness whereof We have caused Our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness Ourselves at our Palace at the day of , in the
