BY THE KING — A PROCLAMATION,
For Dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

Whereas we have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the seventeenth day of August next: We do, for that end, publish this our Royal proclamation; and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their meeting and attendance on Tuesday the seventeenth day of August next. And we being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet our people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all our loving subjects our royal will and pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, that, with the advice of our Privy Council, we have given order, that our Chancellor of that part of our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and our Chancellor of Ireland do, respectively, upon notice thereof, forthwith issue our writs in due form, and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: And we do hereby also, by this our Royal proclamation under our Great Seal of our United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to serve in our said Parliament, to be duly returned to and give their attendance in our said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the thirty-first day of August next.

Given at our Court at Windsor the twentieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and two, in the forty-second year of our reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

BY THE KING — A PROCLAMATION.
In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

Whereas we have, in our Council, thought fit, to declare our pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland on Tuesday the thirty-first day of August next ensuing the date hereof: In order, therefore, to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, we do, by the advice of our Privy Council, issue forth our Royal proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood House, in Edinburgh, on Tuesday the tenth day of August next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and chuse the Sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law). And the Lord Clerk Register or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made, and duly examined, to certify the names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such certificate into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we do, by this our proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all the other Magistrates of the said, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof during the time of the said election; and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever. And we strictly charge and command, that this our Royal proclamation be duly published at the market cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness Ourselves at Windsor the ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and two, in the forty-second year of our reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

NAPLES, June 9.

Charles Emanuel the Fourth, King of Sardinia, having by an instrument, dated at Rome the 4th of this month, resigned his Crown and dominions in favour of his brother the Duke de Aosta, his Royal Highness has acceded to the Crown, under the name of Victor Emanuel.

PARIS, June 17.

The Ottoman Minister at this residence has this day received from Constantinople the act of accession, on the part of the Sublime Porte, to the definitive treaty of peace between his Majesty and the French Republic, the King of Spain, the Batavian Republic, signed at Amiens on the 27th of March last.

DOWNING-STREET, June 29.

Accounts have been received here, that his Majesty's ratification of his acceptance of the King of Sweden's act of accession to the Convention, signed at St Peterburgh the 17th of June 1801, had reached Stockholm.

A dispatch has been received from his Excellency Lord St Helen's, his Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary at the Court of St Peterburgh, dated June 3, containing the particulars of what passed between the Count de Kottchoubey and Baron Stadingk, the King of Sweden's Ambassador at St Peterburgh, on the occasion of the latter's acceding, in the name of his Swedish Majesty, to the Convention between his Majesty and the Emperor of Russia, signed at St Peterburgh the 17th of June 1801.

This dispatch states, "That he, (the Count), after endeavouring to refute the various objections that had been urged by the Baron de Stadingk against the tenor of the Convention of the 17th June 1801, and to demonstrate to him that that treaty presented to the Northern Powers all the advantages that it had been found possible to obtain, had proceeded to observe, that the antecedent Convention between Russia and Sweden having been in some sort broken by that which had since been concluded between Russia and England, and to which Denmark had also acceded, it would certainly be advisable for Sweden to accede likewise to that treaty, in order that she might not remain in a manner isolated, and that some common pact might still continue to exist between the powers of the North."

The King has been pleased to appoint William Fullarton, Esq.; Brigadier-General Thos. Pison, and Samuel Hood, Esq. Captain of the Royal Navy, to be his Majesty's Commissioners for executing the office of Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majesty's Island of Trinidad.

WHITEHALL, June 29.

The King has been pleased to appoint Wm. Adam, of Blair-Adam, Esq. to be his Majesty's Lieutenant and Sheriff Principal of the shire of Kinross.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN COCHRAN AND CO. Merchants in Glasgow; and of the Individual Partners of that Company.

At a general meeting of the creditors of the said John Cochran & Co. held in the Tontine Tavern, Glasgow, upon the 26th June 1802, after the last examination of the bankrupts, as prescribed by the act—an offer of a composition, with caution, was laid before the meeting, and unanimously agreed to be accepted of by the creditors present; and, in order that the whole creditors may have it in their power to decide upon said offer, they resolved that a future meeting should be called to consider of it—Such a meeting is accordingly to be held, within the said Tontine Tavern of Glasgow, upon Wednesday, 21st July next, at one o'clock afternoon, to take such offer under consideration.—Of which this notice is hereby given to all concerned, as directed by the statute.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WYLLIE AND ARCHIBALD, Manufacturers and Merchants in Glasgow, as a Company; and of GEORGE WYLLIE and THOMAS ARCHIBALD, as Individuals.

The creditors are requested to meet in the Office of Mr David Kay, accountant, and agent, here, on Wednesday the 14th July, at 12 o'clock noon, when matters of importance will be submitted to their consideration by the trustee. GLASGOW, 29th June 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES GREENSHIELDS, Merchant in Glasgow, acting partner of the Company of JAMES GREENSHIELDS & Co. Merchants in Glasgow.

That the said James Greenshields, with concurrence of the trustee on his sequestrated estate, and four-fifths in number and value of his creditors, having after the period assigned for the second dividend of his funds, applied to the Court of Session to discharge him of all debts contracted by him prior to the 18th July 1802, the date of the sequestration, their Lordships, on the 11th July current, appointed the said petition to be intimated upon the walls of the Inner and Outer House, and also to be advertised in the Edinburgh Gazette, that all parties having interest may object thereto if they think fit; and, upon such intimation being made, and advertisement duly published, their Lordships declared they would receive consideration of said petition, and proceed to determine thereon, with or without objections.—In terms of which interlocutor intimation is now given.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

MESS. M'KNIGHT AND MACILWRAITH, Merchants in Ayr.

At a general meeting of the said creditors, held at Ayr on the 24th day of June next, the bankrupts made an offer of a composition of 16s. per pound of the principal sums due by them, and payable as follows, two shillings in 3 months, seven shillings in 9 months, and the remaining seven shillings in 18 months from the date of the composition being approved of by the Court, and to find security for payment thereof; which offer was approved of by the creditors present.—That in terms of the statute, the trustee notifies, that a general meeting of the creditors is to be held, at Glasgow, on Thursday the 14th day of July next, at 12 o'clock noon, within the Tontine Tavern, for the purpose of deciding upon the said offer of composition. Ayr, 24th June 1802.

LANDS IN ROXBURGHSHIRE, AND SUBJECTS IN CANONGATE, EDINBURGH.

To be sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 7th of July next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, in presence of the Sheriff-Depute of Edinburgh, or his Substitute, for the purpose of redeeming the Law Tax of the Entailed Estates belonging to the most Hon. the Marquis of Lothian.

THE LANDS OF RICCATOUN, with the Teinds and Pertinents of the same, lying within the parish of Oxnam, and county of Roxburgh.

These Lands consist of about 1135 English acres or thereby, a great proportion of which is of a dry soil, and capable of great improvement; and the remainder is well known to contain as good sound stock pasture as any in the country.

The present rent is only 146l. 7s. but as the lease will expire at Whitsunday 1806, a very great additional rent may be depended on.

AS ALSO,

That HOUSE, at the Foot of the Canongate of Edinburgh, called LOTHIAN HUT, with the Offices and Ground thereto belonging, presently possessed by Professor Dugald Stewart, at the rent of 50l. This house is most substantially finished, and is fit to accommodate a large family. The stable contains stalls for eight horses, and there is an excellent Loft and other Offices. The entry will be at Whitsunday 1803.

LIKEWISE,

That other HOUSE contiguous to Lothian House, with the Offices thereto belonging, presently possessed by Mrs Scott of Ancrum, at the rent of 21l. Ster.

These subjects will be exposed either in one or two lots, as most agreeable to intending purchasers. There is also a separate entry to the house possessed by Mrs Scott by the lane leading to the back of the Canongate, so that if they are sold separately, it may be settled, if agreeable to intending purchasers, that Lothian Hut is to have the exclusive privilege of the entry to the Canongate.

The house may be seen every Tuesday and Friday before the day of sale, between the hours of two and three in the afternoon.

The articles of roup and title-deeds are in the hands of James Walker, writer to the Signet, to whom any person wanting information may apply.

LANDS IN RENFREWSHIRE.

To be Sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 7th July next, at three o'clock afternoon, in presence of the Sheriff-Depute of Edinburgh; or his Substitute, for the purpose of redeeming the Land Tax of the Entailed Estates belonging to the Right Hon. Lord Douglas.

THE FARMS of BARNS and BARNHILL, now called BROWNFIELD, with the Feinds, lying in the parish of Inchinnan, and shire of Renfrew. These lands consist of about 248 acres, and were let many years ago upon a lease, of which there are only five years to run after March next, at the rent of 232l. 10s. Sterling. But at the expiration of that lease a very great rise of rent may be certainly depended on, the ground in general being of an excellent quality.

AS ALSO,

The FARMS of AULDLANDS, or ALLAN'S PARK, with the Lands lying adjacent to the former, consisting of about 80 acres of excellent land, and possessed by Thomas Crawford, on a tack which will expire at Martinmas 1805, at the rent of 66l. 12s. Sterling, when a great rise will also be got.

The Farms will be exposed either together, or in such lots as shall be most agreeable to offer.

From information lately obtained, there is reason to believe that there is Coal in the ground.

The articles of roup, title deeds, and a plan of the lands, are in the hands of James Walker, W.S. to whom, or to Campbell Douglas, Esq. at Castlemains, by Douglas milt, any person wanting information may apply.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN MUNRO and CO. Merchants in Cupar Fife.

At a meeting held upon the 25th day of June current, the bankrupts made offer to pay their creditors a composition of 12s. 6d. in the pound, in full of their debts, which was unanimously approved of by those present.

The trustee therefore, agreeable to act of Parliament, requests a general meeting of the creditors, within the house of Mrs Martin, vintner, Covenant Close, Edinburgh, upon Tuesday, the 20th July next, at 12 o'clock noon, to decide upon the said offer.

SECOND NOTICE—SECOND TERM

IN the process of Ranking and Sale, Messrs INNES, BEVERIDGE, & CO. Merchants in London, against DAVID FERGUSSON, late Merchant in —, now abroad, eldest lawful son and heir of the deceased David Fergusson, Esq. late Provost of Ayr, and his Creditors, Lord Methven Ordinary, by his interlocutor, dated 19th June 1802, assigned the third federunt day of November next to the whole creditors to produce their grounds of debt, rights, and diligences, competent to them against the bankrupt or his estate, and that for the second term, with certification as in a reduction and improbation; and assigned the said day to the creditors to depone on the verity of their respective debts, and granted commission for that purpose:—And appointed this notice to be given to all parties concerned, by intimating the same in the Edinburgh Gazette, once every week, for three weeks successively after the date thereof.

M. P. MENZIES, Clerk.

THIRD NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

IN the process of Ranking and Sale, WILLIAM WADDELL, of Easter Moffat, against JOHN SOMMERVILLE, Writer in Edinburgh, and his Creditors, Lord Meadowbank, by his interlocutor, dated the 10th June 1802, assigned the third federunt day of November next, to the whole creditors to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences, competent to them respectively against the bankrupt, or his estate, and that for the second term; with certification, that what writs shall not be produced shall be held as false and forged, so far as they may affect the bankrupt's estate, and the interests of the creditors therein who do produce; and assigned the said day to the creditors to depone on the verity of their respective debts, and granted commission for that purpose.

H. S. STEVENSON, Clerk.

NOTICE.

THAT JOHN DUFF, of Drummure, under the authority, and in terms of an act passed in the 38th year of his present Majesty, has applied, by petition, to the Court of Session, for a warrant to sell his Entailed HOUSE and TENEMENT in the Burgh of ELGIN, for Redemption of the Land Tax payable from his other entailed estates. That the Court, by a deliverance on said petition, dated the 24th day of June current, appointed the same to be advertised weekly, for two successive weeks, in the Edinburgh Gazette.—And intimation thereof is accordingly hereby given to all concerned.
