TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1883.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, ST. JAMES'S
PALACE, April 12, 1883.

NOTICE is hereby given that Her Majesty's Birthday will be generally kept on Thursday the 24th of May next, and that it will be celebrated in London alone on Saturday the 26th of May.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, ST. JAMES'S
PALACE, March 20, 1883.

Notice is hereby given that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday the 23d of April next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B.—The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, it being a Collar-Day.

CROWN OFFICE, April 12, 1883.

The Queen has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, to appoint Archibald Levin Smith, Esq., of the Inner Temple, to the office of one of the Justices of the High Court of Justice.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
April 7, 1883.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the Situation of Assistant Surveyor in the Royal Engineer Department of the War Office.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future examinations.

I. The limits of age for this situation are 21 and 30, and candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the examination. Persons already serving as Temporary Clerks of Works will be eligible in respect of age if their service commenced when they were under 20, if their age does not at the date of the examination exceed 40, and if their service has been continuous up to the same date.

II. Candidates will be required to show what preliminary training or technical education they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature. They must have been engaged for at least three years in acquiring practical knowledge under an Architect, Builder, Civil Engineer, or Surveyor, and must show that they have profited by that training. Evidence on this point must be sent in at least a week before the examination. If it prove prima facie satisfactory, the candidate will be admitted to the examination, subject, in the case of his being successful in the competition, to such further inquiry and the production of such further evidence as may be necessary.

III. The examination will consist of two parts, and will be in the following subjects, viz.:—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. Handwriting and Orthography.
2. English Composition, as tested by writing letters from rough notes.
3. Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).

(The examination in subjects 1 and 3 will include tests of rapidity as well as of neatness and accuracy.)

** No candidate who fails to show satisfactory proficiency in any of the subjects specified above will be admitted to the competitive part of the examination.

PART II.—COMPETITIVE.

1. One of the following (at the option of the candidate):—
  - (a.) Architectural Drawing.
  - (b.) Engineering Drawing.
  - (c.) Preparation of Working Drawings for details of Builders' Work.

2. Theory of Construction.
3. Strength and quality of materials, and description of workmanship, tools, and plant.
4. Analysis of prices.
5. Measurement and estimate of Builders' work, including taking off quantities from Drawings and preparing the Abstracts and Bills of Quantities.

In addition to the above five subjects a candidate may take up any of the following optional subjects:—

- A. Euclid (the first three Books).
- B. Algebra, including quadratic equations.
- C. Plane Trigonometry.
- D. Geometrical Drawing and Freehand Sketches in outline.
- E. Chemistry and Mineralogy relating to Building Materials.

IV. A fee of £1 will be required from each candidate attending the preliminary part of the examination, and a further fee of £4 from each candidate who may be admitted to the competitive part.

V. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may appoint.

** Candidates must be ready to serve at any Station at home or abroad.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for five, or not more than six, situations as Assistant-Surveyor in the Royal Engineer Department of the War Office will be held in London, under the above Regulations, on Friday the 25th of May 1883, and following days.

A preliminary examination will be held in London on Tuesday the 22d of May 1883.

No person will be admitted to the preliminary examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 15th of May 1883, an 'application,' in the candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

The first part of the book is devoted to a general history of the United States from its discovery to the present time. It is divided into three volumes, the first of which contains the history of the continent from its discovery to the establishment of the first colonies.

The second volume contains the history of the colonies from their establishment to the declaration of independence. The third volume contains the history of the United States from the declaration of independence to the present time.

The book is written in a clear and concise style, and is well adapted for use in schools and colleges. It is one of the best works on the history of the United States that has yet appeared.

The author has done his best to give a full and accurate account of the events of our history, and to show the causes and consequences of each event. He has also endeavored to give a just and impartial view of the characters of the principal actors in our history.

The book is a valuable work, and one that every citizen of the United States should read. It is a work that will give us a better knowledge of our country and our history, and will help us to understand the principles of our government.

The book is a work of great interest and value, and one that every citizen of the United States should read. It is a work that will give us a better knowledge of our country and our history, and will help us to understand the principles of our government.
