

NOTICE.

JOHN MAULAY, Merchant in Glasgow, trustee on the sequestrated estates of GARTLY, McDONALD, & Company, Hosiery in Glasgow, and of the individual partners of that company, hereby intimates, that, in terms of the statute, a general meeting of the creditors of the said company, and individual partners thereof, will be held in the house of Miss Thomson, immediately west of the Exchange, on Monday the 19th current, being the first lawful day after the expiry of one year from the date of the sequestration, for the purpose of taking under consideration the state of the process presently depending before the Court of Session, at the instance of the trustee, against George Rennie, residing at Birkhill, near Stirling, and of giving the trustee instructions with respect to the said process, and to the general management of the trust affairs. From the state of the above process, and of the trust affairs, no dividend will be made at present.
GLASGOW, 3d July 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN RALSTON, Tanner in St Ninian's. That, in the sequestration of the said John Ralston's estate, the Court, upon the application of George Brown, writer in St Ninian's, trustee appointed thereon, confirmed his nomination, with the usual powers. That, in virtue thereof, the trustee applied to the Sheriff Depute of Stirlingshire, who appointed Friday the 16th day of July current and Friday the 30th day of that month, at 12 o'clock mid-day, within the Sheriff Court-hall in Stirling, for the public examination of the said John Ralston; of which this intimation is given in terms of the statute. The trustee also intimates, that a meeting of the creditors is to be held, within the house of James Sawyers, vintner in St Ninian's, upon the 31st day of said month, to instruct the trustee, and the creditors are required to lodge the grounds of their debts, and affidavits thereon, in the trustee's hands, betwixt and the 4th March 1803, otherwise they will be excluded from any share of the first dividend.
ST NINIAN'S, 2d July 1802.

INTIMATION.

IN the process of Ranking and Sale, JAMES WATSON, W. S. & Co. against JACK SOMERVELL, some time Merchant in Canongate, eldest son of John Somervell, gunsmith there, deceased, and their Creditors, the Lord Ankerville, Ordinary, appoints the creditors, or their doers properly authorized, to meet within the office of Mr Alexander Stevenson, Depute Clerk of Session, upon the 29th day of July current, by 12 o'clock noon, to name a common agent or solicitor for carrying on said process, and division of the price among the creditors.
8th July 1802.

H. S. P. STEVENSON, Clerk.

THIRD NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

IN the process of ranking and sale, Messrs. ANNES, BEVERIDGE, & CO. Merchants in London, against DAVID FERGUSSON, late Merchant in —, now abroad, eldest lawful son and heir of the deceased David Fergusson, Esq. late Provost of Ayr, and his creditors, Lord Methven Ordinary, by his interlocutor, dated 19th June 1802, assigned the third federal day of November next to the whole creditors to produce their grounds of debt, rights, and diligences, competent to them against the bankrupt or his estate, and that for the second term, with certification as in a reduction and improbation; and assigned the said day to the creditors to depone on the verity of their respective debts, and granted commission for that purpose; and appointed this notice to be given to all parties concerned, by intimating the same in the Edinburgh Gazette once every week for three weeks successively, after the date thereof.

M. P. MENZIES, Clerk.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES and J THOMAS MILL, Corn and Cattle Dealers at Inshank.

That upon the application of the said James and Thomas Mill, with concurrence of a creditor to the extent required by law, their estates, real and personal, either as a company or as individuals, were, upon the 7th of May last, sequestrated by the Lord Ordinary on the bills; and, at a meeting of their creditors, held by appointment of the Court, upon the 16th June last, for the purpose of choosing a trustee, Edward Warden, writer in Cupar-Angus, was elected into that office, whose appointment has been since confirmed by the Court of Session; and that upon the application of the trustee to the Sheriff of Forfar, he has fixed Saturday the 17th current, and Monday the 2d August next, at 12 o'clock noon, within the Sheriff Court Room in Forfar, for the public examination of the said James and Thomas Mill.—Of which this notice is given. And at same time it is requested, their creditors, either as a company or individuals, will meet within the house of Adam Warden, vintner in Alyth, upon Tuesday the 3d August next, at 12 o'clock noon, to instruct the trustee as to the management and disposal of the bankrupts estate; and that such of the creditors as have not already produced their grounds of debt, with oaths on the verity thereof, will lodge the same with the trustee, betwixt and the 7th of March next, being ten calendar months subsequent to the date of awarding the sequestration; with certification, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution.—All in terms of the statute of the 33d of his present Majesty.
