TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN URIE, Farmer and Cattle Dealer at Old Paper Mill of Cathcart.

Several of the Creditors of the above John Urie having failed to come forward to receive their dividends made at and prior to 10th March 1795, the trustees upon his sequestrated estate hereby require all such of the creditors to call at the office of Duncan Macfarlane and Robert McClure, writers in Glasgow, on Wednesday the 4th day of August next, at one o'clock afternoon, to uplift their dividends; with certification, if they fail so to do, that they will be held as having abandoned their claims upon the estate.—And for the purpose of finally closing the business of the sequestration, a general meeting of the creditors is also requested to be held, at the above time and place. GLASGOW, July 8. 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES STEIN, late Distiller at Kilbagie.

That the said James Stein, with concurrence of the trustee on his sequestrated estates, and four-fifths of his creditors in number and value, having applied, by petition, to the Lords of Session, praying their Lordships to declare the said James Stein discharged of all his debts contracted prior to the 28th January 1788, the date of the sequestration, the Lords, by their interlocutor, dated 9th July current, appointed the said James Stein to be intimated on the walls of the Inner and Outer House, and also to be notified to all concerned by public advertisement, to be inserted three different times, at the distance of one month, in each of the two Edinburgh newspapers, called the Edinburgh Evening Courant and Caledonian Mercury, and once at least in the Edinburgh Gazette, that all parties having interest might object thereto if they think fit; and upon such intimation being duly made and reported, the Lords declared that they would resume consideration of the said petition, and proceed to determine thereupon, with or without further objections than those stated at moving of the said petition:—Of which the present notice is accordingly given. EDINBURGH, 12th July 1802.

WILLIAM and ROBERT WILSONS, Merchants and Manufacturers at Seafield, near Dundee.

William Small, writer in Dundee, trustee of the sequestrated estate of the said William and Robert Wilsons, hereby intimates, that he has made up the accounts of the said bankrupts affairs, and scheme of the fund established, which will lie open for the inspection of the creditors, or their agents, in the hands of the trustee's office in Dundee, until the 18th day of August next, when a meeting of the creditors is requested at the house of Alexander Morren, vintner in Dundee, at one o'clock noon, to give directions to the trustee. No dividend will be made.
