DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP.

AT Dundee, the sixteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and two years, in presence of JOHN GUILD, Esq. one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Forfar compared JAMES STURROCK and JAMES SMALL, both merchants in Dundee, the two and only partners of the Rope-work Company, carried on under the firm of "Sturrock and Small," in the town and neighbourhood of Dundee, who being severally solemnly sworn and interrogated, depone, that they yesterday, on the 15th instant, by mutual consent Dissolved the said Copartnership, which from henceforth is to cease. And this is the truth, as they shall answer to God.

Sworn before me

JOHN GUILD, J. P.

JAMES STURROCK.

JAMES SMALL.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES GORDON, Merchant in Forfar.

WILLIAM ROBERTS, writer in Forfar, has been appointed trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James Gordon; and, on an application by the trustee to the Sheriff of Forfar-shire, dated the 13th inst. has fixed Monday the 2d of August next, and Wednesday the 18th of the same month, for the examination of the bankrupt, and all other persons any way connected with him, within the Sheriff Court Room of Forfar, at ten o'clock forenoon, of each of those days; and on Thursday the 19th of August next, a meeting of the said James Gordon's Creditors is to be held within the house of Alexander Barrach, writer in Forfar, between the hours of twelve and one o'clock mid-day, for instructing the Trustee relative to the management and disposal of the Estate, and for choosing Commissioners in terms of the statute. The Creditors of the bankrupt are requested to produce in the hands of the Trustee, their claims against the bankrupt, and vouchers, with oaths on the verity of the debts, at or previous to the said meeting; and unless said productions be made betwixt and the 27th day of March next, they party neglecting, shall have no share in the first distribution of the bankrupt's estate.
