NOTICE.

THE Lord Woodhouselee, Ordinary officiating on the bills, on the application of GEORGE CHAPMAN, Merchant in Montrose, with concurrence of creditors to the extent required by law, sequestrated the real and personal estate of the said George Chapman; and appointed his creditors to meet, within the house of Andrew Hunter, vintner in Montrose, upon Wednesday the 29th of September current, at 12 o'clock noon; to name an interim factor, if they think fit so to do; upon the said sequestrated estate, and failing their doing so, to devolve the care and custody in the meantime, of the effects, upon the Sheriff Clerk; and the creditors to meet at the same place and hour, upon Wednesday the 27th of October next, for the purpose of naming a trustee upon the said sequestrated estate.—23d September 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN DUKE, Merchant in Montrose.—That at a meeting of the creditors of the said John Duke, held upon the 17th day of September curt. (being the first lawful day after his last public examination), he made offer of a composition of eight shillings Sterling in the pound of his whole just and lawful debts, payable by equal proportions, at six and twelve months after the date of the acceptance thereof, and consented upon security therefor; and the meeting being of opinion that the said offer was reasonable and adequate, and the security offered sufficient—the trustee appointed another meeting of the creditors to be held, within the house of Andrew Hunter, vintner in Montrose, upon Saturday the 9th day of October next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the said offer.—Of which intimation is hereby made in terms of the statute.
