

United Kingdom or abroad as you may deem expedient for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

And We do by these presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is, that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any three or more of you, your opinion upon the several matters herein submitted for your consideration.

And for the purpose of aiding you in such matters, We hereby appoint Our trusty and well beloved Charles Edward Drummond Black, Esquire, to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the forty-ninth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

RICHD. ASSHETON CROSS.
