TO THE CREDITORS OF

THE deceased JOHN MACKENZIE, Jun.
Merchant in Glasgow.

Andrew Templeton, merchant in Glasgow, trustee for the said creditors, hereby intimates to all concerned, that the whole funds which belonged to the defunct have now been converted into money, and he has accordingly made up states, shewing the neat amount of the funds realised, together with a scheme of division thereof among the whole creditors who have proved their debts; which states and scheme will lie in his hands, for the inspection of all concerned, until Wednesday the 20th day of October next, on which day, if no objections are made to the said states, or to the ranking of the creditors, a second and final dividend will then be made, and the accounts ultimately closed.

GLASGOW, 28th Sept. 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

HUGH M-MURTRIE, Jun: Shoemaker in Stranraer.

That upon the application of the said Hugh M-Murtrie, jun. with consent of a creditor to the extent required by law, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the bills, of this date, sequestrated the whole real and personal estate of the said Hugh M-Murtrie, jun. and appointed his creditors to meet at Stranraer, in the house of Mrs Taylor, innkeeper there, upon Wednesday the 13th October next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, to name an interim factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, on Saturday the 6th November next, to chuse a trustee on the said sequestrated estate.

EDINBURGH, 28th Sept. 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

WILLIAM GRANT, Merchant in Arbroath.

That upon the first day of October curr. Lord Dunfinnan, Ordinary on the Bills, sequestrated the said William Grant's whole estate, heritable and moveable, real and personal, situated within the jurisdiction of the Court; and appointed his creditors to meet, within John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Thursday the 7th October curr. at 12 o'clock noon, to name an interim factor on said estate; and to meet again, at same place and hour, on Thursday the 4th November next, to chuse a trustee, in terms of the act of Parliament.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES LINDEN, late Merchant in Edinburgh.

That at the meeting of creditors, held on 25th curr. the said James Linden made offer of a composition of 11s. per pound of his whole debts, to be paid as follows, viz. 6s. in goods at the invoice prices, to be delivered immediately after acceptance of the offer; 2s. 6d. in cash, within 6 weeks thereafter; and 2s. 6d. more within two months from same period—and either to find security for these payments, or remain in prison until fulfilment thereof; and farther to give his own acceptance for 2s. 6d. more on the whole debts due by him. The creditors at the said meeting appointed another meeting of creditors to be held, within the Fontaine Tavern, Glasgow, on Tuesday 19th October next, at 12 noon, to decide on said offer of composition.—EDINR.
