Leith 25 October, 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

HAY SMITH, late Banker in Haddington, and JAMES SOMMERVALE, late of Liverpool, Partners, who carried on business under the Firm of JAMES SOMMERVALE, or JAMES SOMMERVALE & CO. and of the said JAMES SOMMERVALE as an individual.

CHARLES SELKRIG, Accountant in Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said HAY SMITH and JAMES SOMMERVALE, Partners, who carried on business under the Firm of JAMES SOMMERVALE, or JAMES SOMMERVALE and COMPANY, and of the said JAMES SOMMERVALE as an individual does hereby give notice, That he has received a letter from Mr William Inglis, writer to the signet, as acting for more than one-fourth part of the creditors in number and value, in which he requires the trustee to call a General Meeting in the view of proposing that the trustee should be removed from his office. The trustee does in consequence of such requisition hereby intimate to the creditors, that a General Meeting will be held in the Royal Exchange Coffee-house upon Saturday the 27th day of November 1802, at two o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of coming to a resolution upon the subject matter of the proposal to be submitted by Mr Inglis.

At the same time that the trustee gives this intimation, he conceives it to be his duty to state to the creditors at large, that those creditors who propose to remove him have not been pleased to assign any reasons for such a step; and, as he is confident that he has fulfilled his duty as trustee, so he is called upon to warn
