10. Free Scholarships at Public Schools.—The governing body shall expend a sum not exceeding £7 yearly in paying the fees of poor and deserving children, with books and stationery, at public or State-aided schools in the parish of Mortlach, who have passed in the fifth or higher standards of the Scotch Code, and whose parents or guardians, not being in receipt of parochial relief, are in such circumstances as to require aid in providing elementary education, and are persons who, in the opinion of the governing body, should not be required to apply to the Parochial Board for aid in paying school fees. These free scholarships shall be awarded on the result of a competitive examination, or as a reward for regularity of attendance, industry, general merit, and good conduct, all to be ascertained by the report of the teachers and otherwise as the governing body may determine. Any payment under this clause shall be withdrawn in the case of children who fail to give regular attendance or make satisfactory progress at school.

If in any year no candidate comes forward properly qualified under this section, or if none of the candidates appear to the governing body, whose determination on such point shall be final, to be properly qualified to take due advantage of the education at a higher school, the amount of the bursary for that year shall be applied to the purposes of the immediately preceding section.

12. School Bursaries. — The governing body shall apply the remainder of the free annual income in establishing school bursaries, each of the yearly value of not less than £5 nor more than £10. If in any year the annual income does not appear to the governing body sufficient for the establishment of such bursaries, they may accumulate the income for the purpose. In the event of equality of examination, a preference shall be given to the relatives of the father and mother of the foresaid Dr. John Lorimer, but not more than one bursary at a time shall be held by them in virtue of such preference.
