WEDNESDAY, JULY 7, 1886.

To all the Local Authorities in Scotland within whose District there is a Port or Harbour, in terms of 'The Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.'

Whereas by the Act 30 and 31 Vict. c. 101, Part III., for the Prevention and Mitigation of Diseases, under Order in Council, and by the 31st section of the said Act, it is enacted, that 'Whenever any part of the United Kingdom appears to be threatened with or is affected by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, being one), may, by Order or Orders by them from time to time made, direct that the Provisions for the prevention of diseases contained in Part III. hereof be put in force in Scotland, or in such parts thereof, or in such places therein, as in such Order or Orders may be expressed, and may from time to time, as to all or any of the parts or places to which any such Order or Orders extend, and in like manner revoke or renew any such Order.'

And by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June 1885, it is ordered, that 'Whereas the United Kingdom appears to be threatened with a certain epidemic disease, that is to say,

'the Asiatic Cholera; and whereas it is expedient to make provision thereanent:

'Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the above recited section of the said recited Act, the Lords of the Council do order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions for the prevention of diseases, contained in Part III. of the Act 30th and 31st Victoria, chapter 101, be put in force in Scotland for the space of six calendar months after the publication of this Order in the Edinburgh Gazette.'

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-first day of December 1885, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of three calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-third day of February 1886, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of six calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by the 33d Section of the said Act it is further provided, that when such an Order in Council has been issued, the Board of Supervision for Relief of the Poor in Scotland may issue such Directions and Regulations as they shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of such epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases, and from time to time may revoke, renew, and alter any such Directions and Regulations; and the same shall
