CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
July 27, 1886.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the situations of Draughtsman in the Department of the Director of Engineering and Architectural Works in the Admiralty, at the Outports, and of Assistant Surveyor in the Office of Her Majesty's Works, &c.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future examinations.

I. The limits of age for these situations are 24 and 30 for the situation in the Admiralty, and 21 and 30 for the situation in the Office of Works.

Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the competitive examination.

II. Candidates will be required to show what preliminary training or technical education they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature. To be qualified for the situation in the Admiralty they must have served for at least five years, and for the situation in the Office of Works, for at least four years, in a public or private office under a Architect or Surveyor, and must show that they have profited by that training. Evidence on this point must be sent in at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint. If it prove prima facie satisfactory, the candidate will be admitted to examination, subject to such further inquiry as may be necessary.

III. The examination will consist of two parts, and will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).

* * No candidate who fails to show satisfactory proficiency in any of the subjects specified above will be admitted to the competitive part of the examination.

PART II.—COMPETITIVE.

1. Drawings and Design of Civil Engineering and Architectural Works.
2. Details of Construction in Foundations, Masonry, Brickwork, Carpentry, Ironwork, Joinery, Plumbers' and Sanitary Work.
3. Rudimentary Calculations of Strength of Materials of Construction.
4. Measurement of Quantities in Building Works and Estimates of Cost.
5. Specifications for Building Works.
6. Modern Sanitation.
7. Practical Geometry.
8. Algebra, including Quadratic Equations.
9. Rudimentary Mechanics.
10. Use of Surveying Instruments.
11. Any one Modern Language.

IV. Candidates must pass to the satisfaction of the Commissioners in the subjects numbered 1 to 4. Candidates for the Office of Works must also pass in the subjects numbered 5 and 6.

V. A fee will be required from each candidate attending the examination, according to the scale laid down under the Order in Council of 22d March 1879, by notice in the London Gazette of 29th April 1881.

VI. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may appoint.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Open Competition will be held in London, under the above Regulations, on the 18th October 1886, and following days.

A preliminary examination will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, on the 5th October 1886.

The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the examination.

No person will be admitted to examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 21st September, an 'application' in the handwriting of the candidate, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
July 27, 1886.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for the situation of Out-door Officer in Her Majesty's Customs will be held under the Special Regulations, dated 23d June 1882, and published in the London Gazette of the same date, on Friday the 1st October 1886, in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Liverpool, Bristol, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Hull, Leeds, Birmingham, Portsmouth, Plymouth, Swansea, Glasgow, Aberdeen, Cork, Belfast, and Limerick.

One hundred candidates will be appointed on the result of this Examination, if so many should be found qualified.

No person will be admitted to compete from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 17th September 1886, an 'application' in the handwriting of the candidate, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
