TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1886.

FOREIGN OFFICE, October 11, 1886.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Sir William Arthur White, G.C.M.G., C.B., now Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the King of Roumania, to be Her Majesty's Special Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial Majesty the Sultan.

WHITEHALL, October 21, 1886.

The Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, granting the dignity of a Knight of the said United Kingdom unto Charles Edward Keith Kortright, of Grosvenor Crescent, in the parish of St. George, Hanover Square, in the county of Middlesex, and of Wherstead Park, in the county of Suffolk, Esq.

DOWNING STREET, October 21, 1886.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Hector William Macleod, Esq., Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of the Gold Coast Colony, to be Chief Justice of that Colony.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

October 18, 1886.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that at an Open Competitive Examination for the situation of Second Class Assistant in the Nautical Almanac Office, held in London on the 5th October 1886, and following days, notice of which examination was given in the London Gazette of the 17th August 1886, the under-mentioned Candidate obtained the first place:—

Bawtree, Bernard Francis.

To all the Local Authorities in Scotland within whose District there is a Port or Harbour, in terms of 'The Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.'

Whereas by the Act 30 and 31 Vict. c. 101, Part III., for the Prevention and Mitigation of Diseases, under Order in Council, and by the 31st section of the said Act, it is enacted, that 'Whenever any part of the United Kingdom appears to be threatened with or is affected by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, being one), may, by Order or Orders by them from time to time made, direct that the Provisions for the prevention of diseases contained in Part III. hereof be put in force in Scotland, or in such parts thereof, or in such places therein, as in such Order or Orders may be expressed, and may from time to time, as to all or any of the parts or places to which

'any such Order or Orders extend, and in like manner revoke or renew any such Order.'

And by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June 1885, it is ordered, that 'Whereas the United Kingdom appears to be threatened with a certain epidemic disease, that is to say, the Asiatic Cholera; and whereas it is expedient to make provision thereanent:

'Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the above recited section of the said recited Act, the Lords of the Council do order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions for the prevention of diseases, contained in Part III. of the Act 30th and 31st Victoria, chapter 101, be put in force in Scotland for the space of six calendar months after the publication of this Order in the Edinburgh Gazette.'

And whereas by an order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-first day of December 1885, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of three calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-third day of February 1886, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of six calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the sixteenth day of August 1886, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of six calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by the 33d Section of the said Act it is further provided, that when such an Order in Council has been issued, the Board of Supervision for Relief of the Poor in Scotland 'may issue such Directions and Regulations as they shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of such epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases, and from time to time may revoke, renew, and alter any such Directions and Regulations; and the same shall extend to all Parts or Places in which the Provisions of this Act for the prevention and mitigation of disease shall, for the time being, be put in force under such Orders as aforesaid, unless such Directions and Regulations be expressly confined to some of such Parts or Places, and then to such Parts or Places as therein are specified; and (subject to the power of revocation and alteration herein contained) such Directions and Regulations shall continue in force so long as the said Provisions of this Act shall under such Order be applicable to the same Parts or Places.'

And whereas by the 38th Section of the said Act it is provided that 'All Orders of Council for executing this Act shall extend to Ports and Arms of the Sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, and adjacent to the Places to which such Orders relate; and the Board may issue, under the said Orders, Directions and Regulations for cleansing, purifying, ventilating, and disinfecting, and preventing disease in Ships and Vessels, as well upon Arms and Ports of the Sea aforesaid as upon Inland Waters.'

And whereas Cholera is now prevalent in certain parts of Austria-Hungary, and it is expedient that Rules and Regulations should be made with reference to Ships having on board bales of Rags from that country.

Therefore, in exercise of the Authority vested in us as aforesaid, we, the Board of Supervision for the Relief of the Poor and for Public Health in Scotland, do issue the Directions and Regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to all Places in Scotland, and to all Ports and Arms of the Sea lying within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, and adjacent to such Places:—

Definitions.

Article 1.—

Article 3.—If any rags shall be delivered overside or landed in contravention of this Order, they shall, unless forthwith exported, be destroyed by the person having control over the same, with such precautions as may be directed by the Medical Officer of Health of the Local Authority within whose jurisdiction or district the same may be found.

Article 4.—All masters of vessels, consignees, and other persons having control of any rags prohibited under this Order from being delivered overside (except for the purpose of export), or landed, are required to obey these regulations.

Article 5.—All Officers of Customs are empowered to prevent the delivery overside or landing of rags in contravention of this Order.

Article 6.—It shall be the duty of the Local Authority to take proceedings against masters of ships, consignees, or other persons having control over any rags, who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to obey or carry out, or shall obstruct the execution of any of these regulations.

Certified and Signed by me,

JOHN SKELTON, Secretary.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh,
26th October 1886.

To all the Local Authorities in Scotland within whose District there is a Port or Harbour, in terms of 'The Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.'

Whereas by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of June 1885, the provisions for the Prevention of Diseases, contained in Part III. of the Act 30 and 31 Viet. c. 101, are put in force in Scotland for the space of six calendar months after the publication of the Order in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-first day of December 1885, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of three calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-third day of February 1886, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of six calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the sixteenth day of August 1886, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of six calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

Therefore, exercising the powers conferred upon them by the 33d section of the foresaid Statute, the Board of Supervision renew the Direction and Regulation issued by them on the seventh day of July and the twenty-fifth day of August 1886, prohibiting the Importation of Rags from Italy, and continue the same in force, unless revoked or altered, until the fifteenth day of February 1887.

Certified and signed by me,

JOHN SKELTON, Secretary.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh,
26th October 1886.
