EDUCATIONAL ENDOWMENTS
(SCOTLAND) ACT, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, have prepared the Draft of a Scheme for the future administration of the Endowment known as the HUNTER BEQUEST, in the County of Aberdeen, and Parish of Lumphanan, whereof an abstract is appended. The Commissioners will, in terms of the Twenty-fourth Section of said Act, receive and consider any objection made to them in writing by any public body or persons interested respecting such Scheme, and any amendments proposed thereon, provided that the same be delivered at their Office, at No. 46 George Street, Edinburgh, within two calendar months from the date hereof. Printed copies of the said Scheme may be had on application to Messrs. A. & C. Black, Booksellers, Edinburgh, Sale Agents for H.M. Stationery Office, at 1d. per copy.

ALEX. GIBSON,
Secretary to Commissioners.

46 George Street, Edinburgh,
29th October 1886.

Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowment in the Parish of Lumphanan and County of Aberdeen, known as the Hunter Bequest, hitherto held and administered by the Kirk-Session of Lumphanan, under the Will of Miss Jean Hunter.

Preamble.

1, 2. Transference to School Board; Discharge of Governing Body.

3-7. Conduct of Business; Power of Sale and Investment; Accounts and Audit.

8. Vested Interests.

9. Application of Income. — The governing body, after paying the necessary expenses of management, and the burdens and taxes affecting the Endowment, shall apply the free annual income to one or other of the following objects, or partly to both of them, as from time to time they see fit:—(a) They may establish one or more bursaries of the annual value of not less than £3, to be awarded by competitive examination among children residing in the parish of Lumphanan, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may be from time to time fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them a higher education. These bursaries shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools to be approved by the governing body; or (b) they may apply the income in paying the fees of poor and deserving children, residing in the parish of Lumphanan, with books and stationery, at public or State-aided schools in the parish of Lumphanan, or the combination school at Craigievar, who have passed in the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them higher education.

These free scholarships shall be awarded on the result of a competitive examination, or as a reward for regularity of attendance, industry, general merit, and good conduct, all to be ascertained by the report of the teachers, and otherwise as the governing body may determine. Any payment under the sub-section shall be withdrawn in the case of children who fail to give regular attendance or make satisfactory progress at school.

10-13. Forfeiture of Bursaries; Power to apply to Court of Session for Alteration; Power to make Regulations. Scheme to be Printed.

EDUCATIONAL ENDOWMENTS
(SCOTLAND) ACT, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, have prepared the Draft of a Scheme for the future administration of the Endowment known as the RAMSAY MORTIFICATION, in the County of Aberdeen, and Parish of Birse, whereof an abstract is appended. The Commissioners will, in terms of the Twenty-fourth Section of said Act, receive and consider any objection made to them in writing by any public body or persons interested respecting such Scheme, and any amendments proposed thereon, provided that the same be delivered at their Office, at No. 46 George Street, Edinburgh, within two calendar months from the date hereof. Printed copies of the said Scheme may be had on application to Messrs. A. & C. Black, Booksellers, Edinburgh, Sale Agents for H.M. Stationery Office, at 1d. per copy.

ALEX. GIBSON,
Secretary to Commissioners.

46 George Street, Edinburgh,
29th October 1886.

Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowments in the Parish of Birse and County of Aberdeen, known as the Ramsay Mortification, presently held and administered by the School Board of Birse, under the Will and Testament of Dr. Gilbert Ramsay, dated 21st February 1727, and Deed of Transference to said School Board by Sir Alexander Ramsay of Balmain.

Preamble.

1, 2. Transference to School Board; Conduct of Business.

3–7. Power of Sale and Investment; Casual Profits; Accounts; Audit; Vested Interests.

8. School Bursaries.—The governing body shall apply an annual sum in establishing a school bursary, to be called the Ramsay School Bursary, of the yearly value of not less than £5. This bursary shall be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Birse, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may from time to time be fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid for giving them higher education; the bursaries shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools in which efficient instruction is given in the higher branches.

9. Payment for School at Bankhead.—The governing body shall apply the remaining free income of the Endowment, as hitherto, for the promotion of higher education at the school of Bankhead, either by retaining the services of a head master capable of giving such higher instruction, or by giving him such additional assistance as may enable him to devote more time to instruction in the higher standards or specific subjects; provided always, that if it appear to the Scotch Education Department, on such information or inquiry as they may deem sufficient, that the endowment is not being efficiently applied for the promotion of higher instruction in manner foresaid, it shall be in the power of the Department to intimate the same to the governing body, and to require them to apply the income of the endowment in the manner provided in the immediately succeeding section.

10. Application of Income in the event of its being withdrawn from Bankhead School.—The governing body, in the event of their being required, as provided in the previous section, to desist from applying the remaining income of the Endowment to the support of Bankhead school, shall apply it in establishing one or more bursaries for higher education, to be called the Ramsay Bursaries. These bursaries shall be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Birse, whose parents or guardians require aid in giving them higher education, under such conditions and regulations as to age or otherwise as the governing body may determine; they shall be tenable for such period, not exceeding three years, as the governing body may determine, at such schools for higher education or technical instruction as they may approve.

11–14. Forfeiture of Bursaries; Power to apply to Court of Session for Alteration; Power to make Regulations. Scheme to be Printed.
