At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of July 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Earl of Kintore.
Earl Brownlow.
Sir W. Hart Dyke.
Sir John Cowell.

Whereas Her Majesty the Queen has power and jurisdiction within the dominions of the Kings of Siam and the territories of Chiengmai, Lakon, and Lanpoonchi, belonging to Siam. And whereas Orders in Council under the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts have been made in relation to Siam, and Regulations in pursuance of such Orders in Council have from time to time been made, and doubts have arisen as to the validity of certain of such Regulations, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed and the validity of such Regulations declared :

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Act of the sixth George IV., chapter eighty-seven, and the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1843 to 1878, and the Act of the Session of the twentieth and twenty-first of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-five, and otherwise, in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Siam Order in Council, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

This Order shall be construed as one with the Siam Order in Council, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and the Orders in Council amending the same.

2. It is hereby declared, ordered, and enacted, that the Regulation dated the nineteenth March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, a copy of which is set forth in the Schedule to this Order, is and shall be deemed to be, and to have been as from the date thereof duly and validly made, and effect shall be given thereto, and all acts heretofore done in pursuance of such regulations shall have the same force, effect, and validity as if the provisions thereof had been expressly enacted in the Orders in Council in force in Siam at the said date.

3. The Consul-General shall on receipt of this Order forthwith cause a printed copy thereof to be affixed and publicly exhibited in this Court.

And the Right Honourable the Marquess of Salisbury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Cross, and the Right Honourable Sir Henry Holland, three of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. PEEL.

SCHEDULE.

NOTIFICATION.

The following Regulations made by the undersigned, Her Majesty's Minister Resident and Consul-General in Siam, in virtue of the powers vested in him by section one of the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, to make Rules and Regulations for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Kings of Siam, and approved by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is hereby notified for the information of British subjects:—

1. Every British subject resident in Bangkok, or within twenty-four hours' journey thereof, and every British subject resident in Chiangmai, or within twenty-four hours' journey thereof, being of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, or being married, or a widower or widow, though under that age, shall, in the month of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and in every subsequent year, register himself or herself in the register-book kept for that purpose, either at Her Majesty's Consulate-General in Bangkok or at Her Majesty's Vice-Consulate at Chiangmai, and all British subjects resident in Siam beyond those limits shall, in like manner, register themselves as early as may conveniently be in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and every subsequent year, subject to this qualification, that the registration of a man shall be deemed to include the registration of his wife, unless she is living apart from him, and that the registration of the head of a family, whether male or female, shall be deemed to comprise the registration of all females being relatives to the head of a family (in whatever degree of relationship) living under the same roof with the head of the family at the time of his or her registration.

2. Any British subject failing so to register himself or herself, and not excusing his or her failure to the satisfaction of the Consular Officer, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty ticals for each instance of such failure.

3. Every person on registration of himself or herself shall pay a fee of two ticals.

4. The Consular Officer shall issue to every person so registered a certificate of registration under his hand and consular seal, which certificate shall be given up in exchange for a new certificate on each occasion of re-registration; and failure to produce the previous certificate, or to satisfactorily account for its non-production, shall render the person so failing liable to a fine not exceeding twenty ticals.

5. The transfer or loan of a certificate of registration shall render the person so transferring or lending to another liable to a penalty of one hundred ticals.

6. The use of a certificate of registration by any other than the person to whom it was granted shall render the person so using such certificate liable to a penalty of one hundred ticals.

The provisions of this Regulation shall be applicable only to British subjects resident, or intending to reside, in Siam; they shall be bound to take out a certificate of registration within one month of their arrival in the country. (L.S.)

(Signed) ERNEST MASON SATOW,
Her Britannic Majesty's Minister Resident and Consul-General.
